Rudolf Steiners Sculpture In Dornach:

Rudolf Steiner's Sculptural Group Sergei O. Prokofieff, 2013 Saved by good fortune from the flames that engulfed the first Goetheanum Rudolf Steiners wooden sculpture of the Christ the Representative of Humanity standing between the adversary forces of Lucifer and Ahriman remains intact although unfinished and on display to this day Unique in the history of art the Sculptural Group was deeply connected to Rudolf Steiners inner being The great Christian initiate even died by its side having made efforts to work on the sculpture days before he crossed the threshold Edith Maryon Peter

Selg, 2022-10-17 The most essential and intrinsic quality of her soul was not a particular branch of human endeavour not even art the most salient of her soul tendencies her soul intentions was the striving for spirituality Rudolf Steiner Edith Maryon 1872 1924 was a trained sculptor who worked alongside Rudolf Steiner to create the unique sculpture of Christ the Representative of Humanity at the Goetheanum in Dornach Switzerland One of Steiner s closest collaborators she was a highly valued colleague and esoteric pupil As one of his dearest friends Maryon kept a busy and detailed correspondence with Rudolf Steiner in which he confided freely about his personal situation his lack of true colleagues difficulties with lecture tours and the embattled public standing of anthroposophy Almost invariably these letters emphasized Steiner s longing for the Dornach studio and their shared work on the Christ statue Maryon s early death aged 52 following fifteen months of illness shook Rudolf Steiner to the core He was to die himself less than a year later With this book the author s central aim is to illuminate the spiritual signature of Edith Maryon s relationship with Rudolf Steiner and their mutual work in anthroposophy and on the sculpture of Christ Building on Rex Raab s 1993 biography Peter Selg s moving study features dozens of photos and facsimiles of letters utilizing previously unpublished sources from Edith Maryon s and Ita Wegman s literary estates and the Rudolf Steiner Archive in Dornach From the History of the Dornach Hill... Angela

Locher, 2024-11-25 Focusing on Marie Steiner von Sivers distinctive collaboration with Rudolf Steiner From the History of the Dornach Hill offers an engaging lively narrative of the early decades of the anthroposophical movement Utilizing eye witness accounts and primary sources Angela Locher creates vivid images of the developing arts at the Goetheanum in particular eurythmy speech formation and the dramatic arts but also describes many fascinating aspects of general anthroposophical history The latter include the period of cooperation with the Theosophical Society the design and building of the first and second Goetheanums travels tours and visits overseas with Rudolf Steiner the pivotal Christmas Conference of 1923 4 stage performances including the Mystery Dramas and Rudolf Steiner s unexpected death and its aftermath Locher structures her absorbing study around the life of Marie Steiner from her birth in 1867 and childhood in Russia to her eventual passing in Switzerland in 1948 I have written this book especially for subsequent generations of eurythmists actors and speakers who could not experience what had been achieved in the previous century the vital processes of the development of eurythmy and the dramatic arts These created the foundation on which we stand today and from which we can carry on into the future Angela Locher This work by Angela Locher can be greeted with enthusiasm In view of the difficult challenges of our time more people than ever are beginning to experience that the arts are not merely a beautiful addition to life but are profoundly connected to our humanity Virginia Sease

Crisis in the Anthroposophical Society Sergei O Prokofieff, Peter Selg, 2013 More than 100 years after its founding the Anthroposophical Society faces serious questions some of an existential nature regarding its purpose and tasks today On March 30 2012 at the Society's Annual General Meeting in Dornach Sergei Prokofieff and Peter Selg gave lectures in which they addressed difficult issues related to the General Anthroposophical Society and its global headquarters the Goetheanum in Switzerland Their lectures were met with a mixture of enthusiastic support and stern disapproval They are reproduced here in full together with supplementary material that helps broaden and deepen their themes so that every interested individual has access to them

The Mystery of the Resurrection in the Light of Anthroposophy Sergei O. Prokofieff, 2010 We live today at a time when the full mystery of the Resurrection body can become manifest to human beings out of the inspirations of Michael This was accomplished by Rudolf Steiner not just in a theoretical sense but also practically and came about through the establishing of a path accessible to all human beings which leads to a union with the forces of the Resurrection body Sergei Prokofieff approaches the deepest mysteries of the Turning Point of Time the Christ event through Rudolf Steiner's spiritual research At its heart stands the question of the restoration of the phantom of the physical body and its transformation into the resurrected body of Christ through the Mystery of Golgotha The author draws a broad and differentiated picture of the tasks and possibilities that the Easter event as well as Ascension and Pentecost present both for the individual and humanity The final chapter considers the mystery of Easter Saturday through which the two polar aspects of the Mystery of Golgotha death and resurrection interconnect also explaining the relationship between the Earth Spirit and the interior of the Earth An appendix tackles the phenomenon of stigmatization from a spiritual scientific perspective

Mystery of the Christ Oskar Kürten, 2023-05-15 Who is the Christ What is the Sun spirit How should we understand the person of Jesus in relation to the Cosmic Christ or even to the Holy Trinity In a majestic overview of Rudolf Steiner's extensive references to Christ and Jesus originally dispersed throughout his many writings and lectures Oskar Kürten creates a mutually reconcilable and coherent text We are invited to accompany the author as he attempts to comprehend the unimaginably vast enigma of Christ's appearance on Earth The results of his work can sometimes be overwhelming but as Kürten points out humanity is always advancing in its intellectual and spiritual culture and each step poses higher demands on our capacity to understand In a volume comprising three previously untranslated booklets composed originally as study material for people conversant with the fundamentals of anthroposophy Mystery of the Christ gives numerous pointers to great mysteries inviting readers to penetrate ever more deeply into the inexhaustible subject matter As Kürten states this approach enables us again and again to find surprisingly new insights into the mysterious interconnections in which Christ's entry into earth existence and the

Artistic handling of nature, soul, moods, and portraits are taught in the upper classes. This book is divided into three parts: 1. The Basic Principles of Painting from the First to the Eighth Class, Margrit Junemann; 2. Lessons in Making Things that are both Practical and Artistic in Classes Nine to Twelve, Fritz Weitmann; and 3. Rudolf Steiner's Recommendations Regarding a New Kind of Art Education, Fritz Weitmann. In conceiving his architectural masterpiece, the Goetheanum in Dornach, Switzerland, Rudolf Steiner designed a large wooden model featuring three main figures to be placed in a central position in the building. Known as The Representative of Humanity, the sculpture shows Christ in the center, standing and holding a balance between the beings of Lucifer and Ahriman, who represent polar tendencies of expansion and contraction. On New Year's Eve 1922, the Goetheanum was destroyed by fire, but the model, still in the process of being sculpted and housed in an external studio, escaped the flames. It remains intact in the second Goetheanum, where the public may view it. With numerous full color photos and illustrations, this book offers a vivid introduction to this monumental historic artwork. We follow the evolution of the statue through the photographic documentation of many models created during its development, from six smaller versions to a full size model which is also still on display. The authors offer impressive insights into the artist's detailed intentions, which were repeatedly revised by Rudolf Steiner. The book demonstrates the continual spiritual movement evident in the whole series of small models and the metamorphic processes that developed over an eight year period. The Representative of Humanity offers indications about the realm and content from which the statue arose, the environment in which it is situated, and the artists who created it: Rudolf Steiner and the sculptor Edith Maryon. They also examine the intentions behind this work of art, which addresses the destiny of humankind. Rudolf Steiner in Britain Crispian Villeneuve, 2009-09-14. Rudolf Steiner spent some five months of his life in Britain, visiting there ten times between 1902 and 1924. With the exception of German speaking countries, the longest time Steiner spent abroad was in Britain, a place he clearly considered central to his work. In this extraordinary, thorough study of more than 1,200 pages and dozens of illustrations, Crispian Villeneuve documents those important visits, reproducing letters, articles, records, and other archival material, much of it published for the first time. He also studies the interconnected theme of the life and work of D. N. Dunlop, Rudolf Steiner's closest British colleague. Rudolf Steiner Speaks to the British Rudolf Steiner, 2013-11-06. As demonstrated by the contents of this book, Rudolf Steiner was able to speak to the British in a very direct and lively way. He did not need to give a long introductory build up to his main theme, as was expected of him in Germany, for instance, but could refer immediately to esoteric ideas The intention of this volume is to give a fuller picture of Rudolf Steiner's work in Britain and his approach to esoteric ideas while on British soil Although the major lecture series he gave in Britain have been previously published this book gathers together various lectures addresses question and answer sessions minutes of important meetings and articles a good deal of which has been unavailable in English until now It also features a complete list of all the lectures and addresses Steiner gave in Britain making it a valuable reference book for students of Rudolf Steiner's work Living Architecture Kenneth Bayes, 1994 Rudolf Steiner has given us a biography of architecture architecture as a living being from its birth at the beginning of history until today and with indications for the future We see it with its own rhythms and patterns as with a human life In Steiner's cosmology architecture has reached in terms of a human lifespan the age and energy of the early thirties so it is a biography in progress Here is a concise richly illustrated introduction to the architectural ideas of Rudolf Steiner He was an early exponent of what has come to be called organic design in architecture and this little volume clearly shows Steiner's influence on architects and designers around the world The Goetheanum Hagen Biesantz, Arne Klingborg, Åke Fant, 1979 The Imagination of Pentecost Richard Leviton, 1994 Carlo Pietzner speaks out of his own ego directed inner experiences about several motifs inherent to inner striving the problem of self in relationship to the world the disintegration of the three soul forces the transition from sense perception to spiritual perception the reality of evil the condition of loneliness and more Architecture Rudolf Steiner, 2013-04-04 The origins and nature of architecture The formative influence of architectural forms The history of architecture in the light of mankind's spiritual evolution A new architecture as a means of uniting with spiritual forces Art and architecture as manifestations of spiritual realities Metamorphosis in architecture Aspects of a new architecture Rudolf Steiner on the first Goetheanum building The second Goetheanum building The architecture of a community in Dornach The temple is the human being The restoration of the lost temple The Routledge Companion to Biology in Art and Architecture Charissa Terranova, Meredith Tromble, 2016-08-12 The Routledge Companion to Biology in Art and Architecture collects thirty essays from a transdisciplinary array of experts on biology in art and architecture The book presents a diversity of hybrid art and science thinking revealing how science and culture are interwoven The book situates bioart and bioarchitecture within an expanded field of biology in art architecture and design It proposes an emergent field of biocreativity and outlines its historical and theoretical foundations from the perspective of artists architects designers scientists historians and theoreticians Includes over 150 black and white images A Study of Rudolf Steiner's First Goetheanum Bernadette Schwartz, 1983
