transparency or predictability of international legal relations This monograph examines the framework of interpretation in international law based on the premise of the effectiveness and determinacy of international legal regulation which is a necessary pre requisite for international law to be viewed as law This study examines this problem for the first time since these questions were introduced and identified as the basic premises of the international legal analysis in the works of JL Brierly and Sir Hersch Lauterpacht Addressing different aspects of the effectiveness of legal regulation this monograph examines the structural limits on and threshold of legal regulation and the relationship between established legal regulation and non law Once the limits of legal regulation are ascertained the analysis proceeds to examine the legal framework of interpretation that serves to maintain and preserve the object and aims of existing legal regulation The final stage of analysis is the interpretation of those treaty provisions that embody the indeterminate conditions of non law Given that the generalist element of international legal doctrine has been virtually silent on the problem and implications of the effectiveness and determinacy of international legal regulation this study examines the material accumulated in doctrine and practice for the past several decades including the relevant jurisprudence of all major international tribunals

Without God Michael Rachel, 2021-10-22 Without God By Michael Rachel Author Michael Rachel was compelled to write Without God after witnessing the separation between the love for the Creator God and the people's love for vanity and material possessions As Rachel evaluated the contents in the Holy Bible he began to see much more clearly in this journey of life Generation after generation we have the tendency to repeat the mistakes of our forefathers due to our lack in righteousness and love of vanity envy and much more which ultimately provide nothing but pain and stress Born in St Louis Missouri during segregation Rachel and others became witnesses to life's lows and highs the highs being times of peace the lows were not Being introduced to this deity called I AM Almighty Yahweh Jehovah GOD who loved us so much He gave the world his only begotten son Jesus Christ to die for all mankind for the redemption of our sins Many people believe but many still have a greater belief in the world and worldly items We curse ourselves and wonder why our lives are full of pain stress and confusion Without God take a deeper look at ourselves and reviews the heartbreaking powerful findings Faith in Jesus when convenient is not the same as everyday faith
