Rumanian Architecture:

Romanian Modernism Luminita Machedon, Ernest Rowland Scoffham, 1999 Modern architecture flourished in Romania between the two World Wars and is still visible as a neglected and almost forgotten past amid the contradictions of present day Bucharest Much of the text is based on archival research in Bucharest Romanian Folk Architecture Georgeta Stoica, 1989 The Socialist Life of Modern Architecture Juliana Maxim, 2018-12-07 The Socialist Life of Modern Architecture is the first systematic architectural history of Romania under socialism written in English It examines the mechanisms through which modern architecture was invested with political meaning and in reverse how specific architectural solutions came to define the socialist experience Each of the book's three parts traces the historical development of one key aspect of Romania's architectural culture between the years 1949-1964 the planning and construction of housing districts in Bucharest the role of typification of design and standardization of construction in a project of cultural transformation the production and management of a folk architectural tradition Going beyond buildings and architects to consider the use of photography painting and novels as well as narrations of history and the formation of an ethnographic architectural heritage the author explores how buildings came to participate in the cultural imagination of socialism and became in fact a privileged medium of socialism Part of the growing interest in the significance of Soviet Bloc architecture this is an important contribution to the fields of architectural history cultural history and visual culture

Nineteenth-Century Photographs and Architecture Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Eschewing the limiting idea that nineteenth century architecture photography merely reflects functionality the objective of this collection is to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time The essays hold appeal for social and cultural historians as well as those with an interest in the fields of art history urban geography history of travel and tourism Nineteenth century photographers captured what could be seen and what they wanted to be seen Their images informed of exploration progress heritage and destruction Architecture was a staple subject for the first generation of photographers as it patiently tolerated the long exposures of the early processes During its formative decades photography responded to evolutionary cultural forces of market and artistic production Photographs of architecture reflected a specific political or social context modulated through individual points of view For this reason the examination of each photographic image as a primary visual document and an aesthetic object rather than a technical milestone on a chronological trajectory affords a richer multi faceted approach to the extensive and complex corpus of photographs taken by photographers all over the world This project acknowledges the importance of technique in the early decades of photography but focuses on the thematic content of the material It places the photography of architecture in an international context under the contemporary critical lens sharpened by theoretical and cultural examinations of the topic Interwar Architecture with Reinforced Concrete Structure

Exposed to Multihazard in European Context Maria Boştenaru Dan, 2013 The theme of this book is between the response to environmental hazards such as earthquakes of housing of the so called other Modernism over issues of conservation of historical materials as a kind of sustainable urban development which includes inhabitants participation It is important to preserve memory and this book uses the knowledge of art a multimedia installation and the role of photography as an example of virtual witness It includes a dialogue about traditional earthquake resistant natural materials with modern construction in order to learn lessons about retrofitting Series Architecture Architektur Vol 11 Area Handbook for Romania Eugene K. Romania ,1966 An Anthropology of Architectural Transformation Maria Șalaru,2025-03-27 An Anthropology of Architectural Transformation is an ethnographic investigation of everyday life in a Romanian apartment block from its construction in 1974 to the present day It provides a unique window into how inhabitants through everyday creative engagements with their apartments come to terms with the uncertainties of a rapidly changing society caught in between the vulnerabilities of both socialism and capitalism The book attends to the micro day to day transformations of individual apartments and the way in which they cumulatively affect larger urban changes in Piatra Neam transforming both the urban fabric and the local sense of what defines a good life This book also provides social scientists with a novel way of thinking about the fundamental relationship between people and buildings while inviting architects to consider how buildings are transformed in time by their inhabitants With minute ethnographic detail Maria alaru demonstrates how social order is created and maintained through the materiality of the building Praise for An Anthropology of Architectural Transformation A beautifully crafted ethnography of life in a Romanian housing block as inhabitants navigate the material and infrastructural uncertainties of post socialism while struggling to maintain aging socialist buildings in the wake of state retrenchment a localised story with global resonance and masterful testament to the fraught possibilities of collective urban care through innovation Christina Schwenkel University of California An ethnographic gem Salaru s evocative focus on the material and social life of a single block of flats brings exciting new perspectives to debates on urban housing as she documents how everyday practices of repair decay and modification intersect with global energy politics EU policy and Romanian urban building regulations Penny Harvey Manchester University Far from static forms buildings emerge in this remarkable ethnography of everyday life in Romanian block flats as dynamic and flexible entities subject as much to their inhabitants needs frustrations and aspirations as they are to the vagaries of weather or austerity alaru challenges anyone interested in architecture to consider how buildings caught between shifting economic political and ecological orders usher in improvised practices of maintenance and improvement capable of reimagining everything from collective obligation to neighbourly care Catherine Fennel Columbia University This sparkling account of the life of an apartment block in Romania brims with lively stories of transformation Salaru can provoke interest in even the most everyday chores using vivid description and stunning illustrations Building on anthropologies of the home material cultures and infrastructures this study shows us what these really mean to people in the twenty first century We see life in a Romanian town through the eyes of its inhabitants and feel the heat and cold in their homes This is essential reading for architects and sociologists of infrastructure and anyone interested in the home buildings and their refurbishment and contemporary life in Romania Simone Abram Durham University An Anthropology of Architectural Transformation is a groundbreaking exploration of how architecture shapes and is shaped by social cultural and political forces With in depth case studies and critical analysis the book offers fresh perspectives on the dynamic relationship between buildings and the communities they serve A must read for scholars and practitioners interested in the intersection of architecture anthropology and transformation Rokia Raslan UCL

Andraş,Carmen-Maria Andraş,Eduard Andrei,Iulian Boldea,Liviu Bordaş,Maria Boştenaru Dan,Daniel Citirigă,Octaviana Jianu,Giuseppe Motta,Truţa Ferencz-Iozsef,2023-01-01 As a political model for the young democracy in interwar Romania as a protector against threats to the sovereignty and integrity of the state as a cultural model and as a daily life America represented for Romania a reference point a factor of stability and progress America was a model and ally of the civilized world Unfortunately isolated in the interwar period from the political realities on the continent America saw how at the end of the 30s the political creation of the Paris Peace Conference collapsed the US being invited to abandon jazz to enter a new war on the European continent extended to Asia and Africa to save civilization alongside the UK At the war s end Eastern Europe fell victim to communist totalitarianism imposed by the USSR and its peoples were forced to abandon the Western model of civilization in favor of the communist model However after 45 years of communism the American model became negotiable again as a cultural economic and political model for Romanians allowing us to reconstruct essential pages in the history of interwar Romania in the context of Romanian American relations This volume was supported by the Executive Agency for Higher Education Research Development and Innovation Funding UEFISCDI the National Research Council CNCS the Ministry of Education Romania Project PN III P4 PCE 2021 0688 Contract 29 from 27 May 2022 title The Ethos of Dialogue and Education Romanian American Cultural Negotiations 1920 1940 Acest volum a fost finan at de c tre Unitatea Executiv pentru Finan area nv m ntului Superior a Cercet rii Dezvolt rii i Inov rii UEFISCDI Consiliul Na ional al Cercet rii tiin ifice CNCS Ministerul Educa iei Proiect PN III P4 PCE 2021 0688 Contract num rul 29 din 27 mai 2022 cu titlul Etosul educa iei i dialogului Negocieri culturale rom no americane 1920 1940 Forging Architectural Tradition Dragan Damjanović,Aleksander Lupienko,2022-03-11 During the nineteenth century a change developed in the way architectural objects from the distant past were viewed by contemporaries Such edifices be they churches castles chapels or various other buildings were not only admired for their aesthetic values but also for the role they played in ancient times and their role as reminders of important events from the national past Architectural heritage often was and still is an important element of nation building Authors address the process of building national myths around certain architectural objects National narratives are questioned as is the position architectural heritage played in the nineteenth and the early twentieth centuries Structures and Architecture Paulo J. Cruz,2013-06-27 Although the disciplines of architecture and structural engineering have both experienced their own historical development their interaction has resulted in many fascinating and delightful structures To take this interaction to a higher level there is a need to stimulate the inventive and creative design of architectural structures and to persua The Rough Guide to Romania Darren (Norm) Longley,Tim Burford,2011-06-01 The brand new Rough Guide to Romania is the definitive handbook to one of Europe s most fascinating scenic and least discovered countries The full colour introduction highlights all the things not to miss from the wilds of the Carpathian mountains to the marvellous Delta wetlands as well as the country s many unique festivals Two full colour sections describe the myriad outdoor activities available from mountain hikes and skiing to bear and wolf tracking and the country s extraordinary religious architecture The guide reviews all the top hotel and restaurant options to suit every taste and budget and the Author s Pick feature highlights the very best while there are concise maps and plans throughout The contexts section includes informed background on Romania s history wildlife literature music and of course Dracula World Fairs and the Global Moulding of National Identities ,2021-11-01 This volume examines the role of the broad variety of international exhibitions between 1851 and 1958

in two programmatic essays and twelve case studies covering not just France and the United States but also among others Sweden Romania Colombia Japan and the nascent European Community World fairs were global platforms for the construction of national identities The mix of national self profiling and commercial exoticism turned the nation into a brand while reframing the nation state from its nineteenth century positioning amidst neighbouring enemies towards being a competitor in a global consumer oriented trade and entertainment economy By presenting national identities in banal form as feelgood factors world fairs helped the nation to maintain its grassroots appeal across the century of totalitarianism and internationalism Contributors are Joep Leerssen Eric Storm Florian Gro Anthony Swift Cosmin Minea Claire Hendren Taka Oshikiri Robert W Rydell Sven Schuster Miriam Oesterreich Bartosz Dziwanowski Stefa czyk Christina Romlid Jonathan Voges and Anastasia Remes

Testimonies of the City Joanna Herbert, Richard Rodger, 2016-04-01 Oral testimony is one of the most valuable but challenging sources for the study of modern history providing access to knowledge and experience unavailable to historians of earlier periods In this groundbreaking collection oral testimonies are used to explore themes relating to the construction of urban memories in European cities during the twentieth century From the daily experiences of city life to personal and communal responses to urban change and regeneration to migration and the construction of ethnic identities oral history is employed to enrich our understanding of urban history It offers insights and perspectives that both enhance existing approaches and forces us to re examine official histories based on more traditional sources of documentation Moreover it enables the historian to understand something of the nature of memory itself and how people construct their own versions of the urban experience to try to make sense of the past By using the full range of opportunities offered by oral history as well as fully considering the related methodological issues of interpretation this volume provides a fascinating insight into one of the least explored areas of urban history As well as adding to our understanding of the European urban experience it highlights the potential of this intersection of oral and urban history

Violations of the Helsinki Accords, Romania Janet Fleischman, 1986

Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume Four Roumen Dontchev Daskalov, Diana Mishkova, Tchavdar Marinov, Alexander Vezenkov, 2017-02-06 The present volume is the last in the Entangled Balkans series and marks the end of several years of research guided by the transnational entangled history and histoire croise e approaches The essays in this volume address theoretical and methodological issues of Balkan or Southeast European regional studies not only questions of scholarly concepts definitions and approaches but also the extra scholarly ideological political and geopolitical motivations that underpin them These issues are treated more systematically and by a presentation of their historical evolution in various national traditions and schools Some of the essays deal with the articulation of certain forms of Balkan heritage in relation to the geographical spread and especially the cultural definition of the Balkan area Concepts and definitions of the Balkans are thus complemented by self representations that reflect on their cultural foundations Rural and Urban: Architecture Between Two Cultures Andrew Ballantyne, 2009-12-04 Contains essays that investigate how the cultures of the town and the countryside interact in architecture
