Rumer Godden Anne Chisholm, 1999 The story of an emotionally powerful writer and a woman of unusual strength of character Rumer Godden Anne Chisholm, Carole Boyd, 2006-07-01 Rumer Godden storyteller extraordinaire has been well loved by her readers for over six decades Perhaps fittingly her biography reads almost like one of her novels with its mix of romance drama and tragedy At the core of her inspiration have always lain her memories of her paradisaical childhood spent in Bengal which sustained her through the stigma of a career in Calcutta and a disintegrating marriage Nor was her love of India always reciprocated A servant in Kashmir tried to poison the author and her children an incident which forced her out of Kashmir and then her beloved India forever Godden s talent and determination to keep living and above all writing whatever the circumstances come over beautifully in Anne Chisholm s book which was compiled with access to important letters and interviews with the author herself Rumer Godden Anne Chisholm, 1998 Biografie van de Britse schrijfster 1907 Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women s themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children s literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women s writing in the Catholic tradition and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Rumer Godden Lucy Le-Guilcher, 2016-04-08 From 1929 to 1997 Rumer Godden published more than 60 books including novels biographies children s books and poetry this is the first collection devoted to this important transnational writer Focusing on Godden s writing from the 1930s onward the contributors uncover the breadth and variety of the literary landscape on display in works such as Black Narcissus The Lady and the Unicorn A Fugue in Time and The River Often drawing on her own experiences living in India and Britain Godden establishes a diverse narrative topography that allows her to engage with issues related to her own uncertain position as an author representing such nomadic Others as gypsies or taking up the displacements brought about by international conflict Recognizing that studies of the transnational must consider the condition of enforced and elected exile within the changing political and cultural borders of postcolonial nations the contributors position Godden with respect to different and overlapping fields of inquiry modern literary history colonial postcolonial and transnational studies inter media studies and children s literature
