of antebellum Arkansas Genealogical Abstracts from the American Weekly Mercury, 1719-1746 Kenneth Scott, 1974 The American Weekly Mercury was the first newspaper published in Pennsylvania and the third in British North America In the earliest days of publication what little genealogical material is found in the paper comes chiefly from advertisements for runaway servants or Negro and Indian slaves In time however a steady stream of genealogical data mainly marriages and deaths began to appear Most of the marriage entries pertained to persons of some distinction such as governors judges government officials clergymen and eminent merchants as well as their family members In the case of death notices the age of the deceased was noted sometimes with a brief sketch of his career and with an indication of his place of birth ancestry and relatives Many of the genealogical items were concerned with persons in Delaware New Jersey Maryland South Carolina and New England as well as Pennsylvania The index lists 3 400 names of persons who would otherwise have been relegated to obscurity New Jersey Archives William Nelson, 2007-02-01 Originally published in 1903 as Volume XXV of the First Series of the New Jersey Archives this eBook edition is reformatted for ease of reading but is complete and unabridged including footnotes addenda and corrected errata The content is a chronological compilation of extracts from American newspapers relating to events in New Jersey from 1766 through 1767 Here are the published reports of runaway servants and slaves land sales political issues the repeal of the Stamp Act Biographical Appendix Index and much more This masterfully crafted eBook is fully searchable and fully printable 517pp 1 61 Mb Advertisements for Runaway Slaves in Virginia, 1801-1820 Daniel Meaders, 2014-02-25 This collection of runaway slave notices from Virginia highlights the plight of African Americans fleeing bondage in early nineteenth century Virginia Presented in modern type the advertisements appear exactly as published The preface situates these advertisements historically and indicates the significance of the collection for studies of African American history the history of slavery and resistance to slavery in early American culture The advertisements are presented chronologically and index by slave and master This collection of historical documentation will be valuable to scholars interested in the history of slavery and resistance in America Double Character Ariela J. Gross, 2021-07-13 In a groundbreaking study of the day to day law and culture of slavery Ariela Gross investigates the local courtrooms of the Deep South where ordinary people settled their disputes over slaves Buyers sued sellers for breach of warranty when they considered slaves to be physically or morally defective owners sued supervisors who whipped or neglected slaves under their care Double Character seeks to explain how communities dealt with an important dilemma raised by these trials how could slaves who acted as moral agents be treated as commodities Because these cases made the character of slaves a central legal question slaves moral agency intruded into the courtroom often challenging the character of slaveholders who saw themselves as honorable masters Gross looks at the stories about white and black character that witnesses and litigants put forth in court She not only reveals the role of law in constructing race but also offers a portrait of the culture of slavery one that addresses historical debates about law honor and commerce in the American South Gross maintains that witnesses and litigants drew on narratives available in the culture at large to explain the nature and origins of slaves character such as why slaves became runaways But the legal process also shaped their expressions of racial ideology by favoring certain explanations over others Double Character brings to life the law as a dramatic ritual in people s daily lives looking at trials from the perspective of litigants lawyers doctors and the slaves themselves The author s approach combines the methods of cultural anthropology quantitative social history and critical race theory A Refutation of the Calumnies Circulated by the Anti-Slavery Agency Committee Against the West India Planters Joseph Liggins,1833 Report of the General Superintendent of Police of the City of Chicago ... Chicago (Ill.).
