"A terrifying, taut drama!"
VICTORIA MATHER - DAILY TELEGRAPH

The poster features a dramatic illustration of a train wreck in a snowy, mountainous landscape. A train engine is partially buried in a pile of wreckage and snow. Three characters are prominently featured: a woman on the left looking upwards with a concerned expression, a young boy in the center with his hands on his head in a distressed state, and a man on the right in a red jacket looking down with a somber expression. The background shows snow-covered evergreen trees and distant mountains under a cloudy sky.

The City of Dying A. D. Williams, 2012-09 The novel takes place in a futuristic world within the fictional City of Dion The story centers over a looming civil war that threatens humanity previously decimated by an ancient war perpetuated by an evil race known as the Sedi Ans Rebel factions and secret organizations fight to seize control of the ailing kingdom while the illegitimate king hides in fear for his life A mercenary who discovers she has mysterious powers must help the reluctant king discover his inner strength to accept his father's responsibilities as the rightful heir to the Ancestral Birthright while trying to discover the truth about her own past Together they must unite him with the lost Ancestral Birthright that has shunned society to protect the kingdom from the prophesized end of civilization However the prophecy proclaims that the Sons of Sedi an will consume the kingdom and possess the Ancestral Birthright for themselves Sedi an's half breed progeny threatens to resurrect the ancient war to fulfill prophecy

High-Class Moving Pictures Charles Musser, Carol Nelson, 2015-03-08 The entrepreneur of phonograph concerts and motion picture programs Lyman H Howe was the leading traveling exhibitor of his time and the exemplar of an important but until now little examined aspect of American popular culture This work with its numerous and lively illustrations uses his career to explore the world of itinerant showmen who exhibited all motion pictures seen outside large cities during the 1890s and early 1900s They frequently built cultural alliances with genteel city dwellers or conservative churchgoers and in later years favored high class topics appealing to audiences uncomfortable with the plebeian nickelodeons Bridging the fields of American studies and film history the book reveals the remarkable sophistication with which exhibitors created their elaborate evening length programs to convey powerful ideological messages Whether depicting the Spanish American War the 1900 Paris Exposition or British colonialism in action Howe's cinema of reassurance had many parallels with the music of John Philip Sousa Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
