Running Over 40, 50, 60, 70... Bruce Tulloh, 2015-10-19 The only book written specially for over forty runners including starting from scratch how to train properly how to avoid injuries diet and lifestyle advice graded training schedules for all standard distances

The Chicago Marathon Andrew Suozzo, 2024-03-18 Received the Hal Higdon Journalism Award recognizing serious journalism about running from the Chicago Area Runners Association CARA 2007 The first book length study of the city's great annual contest In The Chicago Marathon Andrew Suozzo reveals this citywide ritual as far more than a simple race Providing a full spectrum look at the event's production and participants Suozzo shows how the elements that comprise the marathon also reflect modern Chicago's politics its people and the ways the city engages with the wider world. The book encompasses all of the forces that come together to make the race the spectacle it has become today. Beginning with a brisk history of the marathon, Suozzo leads readers from its origins in Greek mythology to its modern reality and also along its rocky road to international prominence. He investigates the roles of sponsorship, small business support, and the city's intervention on behalf of the marathon as well as the alliances the event has forged with the media and charity fundraisers. He also discusses race management and the grassroots support that ultimately make it possible, with a special perspective on the aid station directors and volunteers. Finally, The Chicago Marathon features numerous interviews with the runners themselves ranging from world renowned professional athletes to amateurs with diverse backgrounds and abilities.

Long Distance Bill McKibben, 2010-10-26 A new edition of a classic book about what it takes to be a world class athlete and where the true meaning of endurance can be found. At 37, the celebrated writer and environmentalist Bill McKibben took a break from the life of the mind to put himself to the ultimate test, devoting a year to train as a competitive cross country skier. Consulting with personal trainers, coaches, and doctors at the US Olympic Center, he followed the rigorous training regimen of a world class athlete. Along the way, he learned to cope with his physical limitations and when his father was diagnosed with a life threatening brain tumor, discovered something about the real meaning of endurance. Told with his trademark intelligence, humor, and honesty, Long Distance is an insightful examination of the culture and mind set of endurance athletes and a moving and inspiring meditation on finding balance in our often harried lives.

The New York Road Runners Club Complete Book of Running and Fitness Fred Lebow, Gloria Averbuch, New York Road Runners Club, 1998 This is the complete guide to running for everyone from the casual jogger to the ultra marathoner. The latest on training, nutrition, and motivation is included here with race calendars, 26 week training programs, and lists of contact names.

Running Times, 2006-07 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes, coaches, and scientists; rates and profiles elite runners; and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview.

Olympus and Beyond Allan Lawrence, 2014-08-28 Olympus and Beyond by Allan Lawrence is the story of sport running told against the backdrop of the bigger human story of atmosphere, emotions, and relationships from the beginning where a young Australian boy watched a newsreel and saw an American Naval Ensign become the first human in history to exceed 15 in the pole vault in Madison Square Garden. He vowed that one day he would compete in Madison Square Garden and break a world record. True to his word, seventeen years later, almost to the day, he succeeds, although in a different event. This is the fascinating tale of a young boy's rise in the athletic field and his coming to the United States where he won several NCAA titles, both individual and team, and won All American selection ten times while winning AAU titles in cross country, indoor, and track running. He struggled along the way with citizenship and health issues, but his determination and persistence allowed him to overcome these obstacles. Allan Lawrence is a true competitor.

Coaching Masters Athletes Bettina

Callary, Bradley Young, Scott Rathwell, 2021-04-11 This book is a foundational resource for all coaches and student coaches who are or who plan to be working with Masters athletes. This athletic cohort typically includes adults over the age of 35 years who are registered for sport programs, events, and who invest in training to improve themselves for competitions that range from recreational to championship caliber. As the boom in Masters sport continues worldwide, coaches are increasingly tasked with the development and support of adults' quality sport experiences and the implementation of strategies to foster skill acquisition and to facilitate their pursuit of competitive goals. This book presents what is different about coaching Masters athletes and prompts coaches to expand their scope of practice beyond traditional knowledge associated with youth or younger adult cohorts. It is essential for coaches to understand the psychological and social considerations that are unique to coaching adult sports persons and Masters athletes and that can be adapted to adults whose training and preparation for competition is quite varied. Coaching Masters Athletes: Advancing Research and Practice in Adult Sport explores the research and practice specific to planning to coach Masters athletes and divulges what is known about distinctive considerations for delivering coaching interventions to this cohort, expanding on coaches' abilities to influence adults' personal development as well as their own coach education through Masters Sport Readers and students of Coaching Physical Activity Health Psychology, Sport Leadership, and Exercise Science. It will gain valuable applied perspectives grounded in best practice research on how to coach one of the fastest growing sporting cohorts, to promote quality adult sport and to keep adult sports persons engaged and active as they age.

Man o' War Dorothy Ours, 2007-04-01

The riveting true story of one of the greatest racehorses who ever lived, researched meticulously and told brilliantly. Laura Hillenbrand, New York Times bestselling author of Seabiscuit. His trainer said that managing him was like holding a tiger by the tail. His owner compared him to chain lightning. His jockeys found their lives transformed by him in triumphant and distressing ways. Born in 1917, Man o' War grew from a rebellious youngster into perhaps the greatest racehorse of all time. He set such astonishing speed records that the New York Times called him a Speed Miracle. Often he won with so much energy in reserve that experts wondered how much faster he could have gone. Over the years, this and other mysteries would envelop the great Man o' War. The truth remained problematic. Even as Man o' War, known as Big Red, came to power, attracting record crowds and rave publicity, the colorful sport of Thoroughbred racing struggled for integrity. His lone defeat, suffered a few weeks before gamblers fixed the 1919 World Series, spawned lasting rumors that he too had been the victim of a fix. Tackling old beliefs with newly uncovered evidence, Man o' War: A Legend Like Lightning shows how human pressures collided with a natural phenomenon and brings new life to an American icon. The genuine courage of Man o' War, tribulations of his archrival Sir Barton, America's first Triple Crown winner, and temptations of their Hall of Fame jockeys and trainers reveal a long hidden tale of grace, disgrace, and elusive redemption. Uncovers the true reasons for Man o' War's early retirement; this is must reading for racing fans and it will reward anyone with an interest in the history of American sport Booklist starred review A
