Keesing, 1992-12 Anthropologists and students of anthropology may read this book because it is a superior ethnography detailed and enriched by theoretical insights But at the heart of this book is a moral tale a simple but powerful story about an indigenous people who were wronged who resisted for more than 100 years and who may yet prevail This message ultimately lends the book its true meaning and value William Rodman Anthropologica A major contribution to the ethnography and history of Malaita and Melanesia and to the growing literature on cultural resistance But above all his humane and painful analysis of the meeting of peoples living in different worlds and constructing their agendas and moralities on incommensurate and apparently equally arbitrary principles represents a major contribution and challenge to anthropological thought addressing the basic issue of what it is to be human Fredrik Barth DelCorso's Gallery Philip Caputo, 2012-06-13 A classic novel of Vietnam and its aftermath from Philip Caputo whose Pulitzer Prize winning memoir A Rumor of War is widely considered among the best ever written about the experience of war At thirty three Nick DelCorso is an award winning war photographer who has seen action and dodged bullets all over the world most notably in Vietnam where he served as an Army photographer and recorded combat scenes whose horrors have not yet faded in his memory When he is called back to Vietnam on assignment during a North Vietnamese attempt to take Saigon he is faced with a defining choice should he honor the commitment he has made to his wife not to place himself in any more danger for the sake of his career or follow his ambition back to the war torn land that still haunts his dreams What follows is a riveting story of war on two fronts Saigon and Beirut that will test DelCorso's faith not only in himself but in the nobler instincts of men

Running Out of Time (Color Interior) Robert Prah, Jr., 2022-04-22 Running Out of Time Chasing Red White and Blue Color Interior By Robert Prah Jr Originally created for his daughter to detail his run for public office Running Out of Time Chasing Red White and Blue chronicles this pursuit by Robert Prah Jr during a very challenging time in a district that has been historically blue forever It details his personal story of running for the Pennsylvania state legislature and all of the challenges that he faced especially from previous relationships and social media It talks about being the underdog running against a lifelong Democrat turned Republican where according to many polls Prah was favored to win the special election The author also highlights how several committee members past candidates and elected officials have changed their political affiliation in recent years This story is interesting in the sense that Prah ran in three elections Special Election in March 2020 Primary in June 2020 General in November 2020 all during a global pandemic It shares the ups and downs of running for office and how the pandemic and social media impacted the outcome of many races in November 2020 The author hopes that readers take away that social media has had an impact on our lives both positive and negative and especially in politics and elections We tend to not look at candidates individually but rather as a D or an R We need to do a better job of evaluating candidates and asking questions rather than what we see on social media The End of the Age Diego Koegler, 2025-01-07
