Rural Economy Of England:

The Rural Economy of England, Scotland, and Ireland Léonce de Lavergne, 1855 A General View of the Rural Economy of England, 1538-1840 Ann Kussmaul, 1990 Changes in economic activities across 542 parishes from the beginning of national marriage registration in 1538 The Rural Economy of the West of England William Marshall (Agricultural Writer.), 1805 The Rural Economy of the West of England William Humphrey Marshall, 2023-07-18 This book offers an in depth analysis of the rural economy in the West of England during the 19th century Marshall's work sheds light on the complex economic and social structures that shaped the lives of rural communities during this period This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Potential of England's Rural Economy Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Committee, 2008 This is the 11th report from the Environment Food and Rural Affairs Committee HCP 544 I session 2007 08 ISBN 9780215524201 and focuses on the potential of England's rural economy A report from the Rural Advocate to the Prime Minister in June 2008 <http://www.ruralcommunities.gov.uk/files/CRC74.pdf> estimated the untapped potential from rural business as between 236 billion and 347 billion per annum The Department for Environment Food and Rural Affairs DEFRA has not commented on these figures but the Committee believes that if the figures are accurate tackling the factors that inhibit growth of businesses in rural areas could make a substantial difference to the performance of England's economy as a whole The Committee states that DEFRA should produce its own estimate and that the Department's present approach to the rural economy will not deliver the tailored solutions that rural business needs DEFRA's new Departmental Strategic Objective DSO does not convince the Committee that this will identify the factors inhibiting economic growth The DSO is split into two intermediate outcomes i that the needs of rural people are met through mainstream policy ii by supporting economic growth in rural areas with the lowest levels of performance Both these outcomes are directed towards the objective of developing Strong Rural Communities For the Committee DEFRA should focus on achieving economic growth across rural areas as a whole and not exclusively concentrate on areas of the lowest performance and that the indicators obtained from the DSOs are incomplete because they do not include transport communications planning and further education Also there is no distinction between different types and sizes of rural community The Committee further states that DEFRA needs to consult with the Commission for Rural Communities on whether the indicators represent the best way of identifying problems The delivery of the DSO's will also depend heavily on other Departments Regional Development Agencies and local authorities and DEFRA needs to produce a delivery plan setting out what assistance it needs from these bodies The Rural Economy of England Joan Thirsk,1984-01-01 No one has done more to emphasise the significance of the land in early modern England than Joan Thirsk whose writings are both an important contribution to its history and point the way for future research The subjects of this collection include the origin and nature of the common fields Tudor enclosures the Commonwealth confiscation of Royalist land and its subsequent return after the Restoration inheritance customs and the role of industries in the rural economy among them stocking knitting
