Rural Education In Pursuit Of Excellence:

Rural Education Society for the Provision of Education in Rural Australia. National Conference, 1993 Rural Education, 1993 Resources in Education, 1998 The Education of Children in Geographically Remote Regions Through Distance Education Tom O'Donoghue, Elaine Lopes, Marnie O'Neill, 2011-06-01 Australia is a vast sparsely populated land and from an early date this created problems in terms of providing educational facilities As part of the solution the nation has had a long tradition of using distance education methods to provide an education for its isolated primary and secondary school students Western Australia epitomises the problems inherent in having a large land area with a highly urbanised population and a small but scattered rural one Initially the State established a Correspondence School in 1918 There have been various developments since then culminating in the establishment of the Schools of Isolated and Distance Education SIDE in 1995 Since then the staff at SIDE have investigated and developed ways of providing their students with innovative educational materials in an effort to ensure that the best possible services are provided Despite its innovative nature very little research has been conducted on SIDE The research project reported in this book is one contribution to rectifying the deficit It had three main aims The first was to develop an understanding of the emergence of SIDE Secondly an understanding of the key functions of SIDE was sought The third aim was to develop an understanding of the issues which present themselves for those working at SIDE Implications for policy practice and future research in relation to the education of children in geographically remote regions through distance education are deduced and not just in relation to the state of Western Australia but internationally Rural Education, 1981 Rural Education Frank Darnell, Patricia M. Simpson, 1981 Rural Education Frank Darnell, 1981 Research in Rural Education, 1986 Proceedings, 1994 A Systems Approach To Social Impact Assessment Lawrence A. Palinkas, Bruce Murray Harris, John S. Petterson, 2019-04-11 This book provides two case studies that demonstrate the use of systems analysis to forecast the often far reaching consequences of government policies and economic development for the social relations and cultural values of different communities The case studies examine the potential effects of oil development in two rural Alaskan communities co Education, Research and Perspectives, 1985 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1984 Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents, 1984 Data Culture and the Organisation of Teachers' Work Nerida Spina, 2020-05-31 Data Culture and the Organisation of Teachers Work provides an in depth look at how the political and media scrutiny of teachers pupils and schools now organises teaching and learning Spina also examines how educational data is used in schools and where it fails to take account of the everyday experiences of school leaders teachers and students Drawing on primary research and discussing practice in relation to the National Assessment Programme Literacy and Numeracy NAPLAN this book discusses the strengths and weaknesses of a data driven approach the restrictions this can impose and how to navigate them as a teacher Ideal for scholars and postgraduate students of education this book provides a comprehensive institutional ethnographic look into the daily lived experiences of teachers and the effects of standardised testing

How Educational Ideologies Are Shaping Global Society Joel Spring, 2014-04-08 In this book Joel Spring explores three major international educational ideologies that are shaping global society neo liberal educational ideology human rights education and environmentalism Neo liberal ideology reflects a rethinking of nationalist forms of education as the nation state slowly erodes under the power of a growing global civil society Traditional nationalist education attempts to mold loyal and patriotic citizens who are emotionally attached to symbols of the state whereas the goal of neo liberal educational ideology is to change nationalist education to serve the needs of the global economy These changes are fueling a clash between the ideas of free market and consumer based neo liberals and those of human rights and environmental educators Human rights education is concerned with creating activist global citizens It is rooted in the idea that inherent in human rights doctrines is a collective responsibility to ensure the rights of all people Environmentalism is the most radical of the ideologies because it rejects the industrial and consumerist paradigm that has dominated most economic thought including capitalism and communism Spring synthesizes and analyzes the effect of these educational ideologies on shaping the future of the global society In the concluding section he compares the effect of these ideologies on global society with the possibility of a world divided between conflicting civilizations

How Educational Ideologies Are Shaping Global Society Intergovernmental Organizations NGOs and the Decline of the Nation State features a critical exploration of the transition of schooling from a function of the nation state to a globalized economic and political system a discussion of the major organizations and trading blocs shaping the future globalization of educational policies an analysis of the major competing global ideologies of education including national and corporate models that emphasize training workers for a competitive global free market the worldwide network of human rights and peace educators who are teaching a global set of ethics and the environmental movement's efforts to create a common set of educational standards for sustainable development and sustainable consumption and an exploration of the possible future of global educational policy and school organizations By integrating a wide range of previously scattered information within a bold new framework for understanding educational ideologies and their impact on the global society Spring raises important questions for researchers professionals and students in history and philosophy of education educational policy educational studies comparative education multicultural education curriculum studies critical media studies global studies human rights education and related areas
