Rural Malay Women In Tradition And Transition:

Rural Malay Women in Tradition and Transition Heather Strange, 1981 The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen, 1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia Part II provides the setting of space and time Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order Women and the Politics of Representation in Southeast Asia Adeline Koh, Yu-Mei Balasingamchow, 2015-06-03 Singapore and Malaysia are rapidly modernising globalising Asian states which although being distinct nations since 1965 share common elements in the on going struggle over the meaning of gender and sexuality in their societies This is the first book to discuss a range of discourses around gender in these two countries Women and the Politics of Representation in Southeast Asia Engendering Discourse in Singapore and Malaysia seeks to give an overview of how gender and representation come together in various configurations in the history and contemporary culture of both nations It examines the discursive construction of gender sexuality and representation in a variety of areas including the politics of everyday life education popular culture literature film theatre and photography Chapters examine a range of tropes such as the Orientalist Sarong Party Girl the iconic Singapore Girl of Singapore Airlines and the figure of pious Muslim femininity celebrated by Malaysian NGO IMAN all of which play important roles in delineating limitations for gender roles The collection also draws attention to resistance to these gender boundaries in theatre film blogs and social media and pedagogy Bringing together research from a variety of humanistic and social science fields such as film material culture semiotics literature and pedagogy the book is a comprehensive feminist survey that will be of use for students and scholars of Women s Studies and Asian Studies as well as on courses on gender media and popular culture in Asia Routledge

Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia Meredith Weiss, 2014-10-17 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia offers a broad analytical survey of Malaysia It provides a comprehensive survey of significant topics in Malaysian politics economy and society today focussing on issues institutions and trends It is divided into four thematic sections which are all introduced by the editor Domestic politics Economics Social policy and social development International relations and security The volume brings together an international team of experts an interdisciplinary mix of forty contributors from Malaysia and elsewhere including many of the leading specialists on Malaysian affairs The chapters included in the volume form an accessible and fascinating window onto contemporary Malaysia They each introduce a different aspect of the Malaysian polity economy or society offering both historical perspective and a current assessment or investigation Designed for general readers and specialists alike chapters may be read individually each stands on its own or conjointly Up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous the Handbook will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Malaysian politics economics and society Islam, Modernity and Entrepreneurship among the Malays P. Sloane,1998-11-23 The book is based on original research on the entrepreneurial leaders in the Malay community and on the author's own participation in Malay business ventures Sloane draws on her experience of working in Wall Street to analyse the ironies and contradictions in both the prevailing Western Asian and Malay definitions of entrepreneurship and the heroes of competing styles of capitalism Elite Malay Polygamy Miriam Koktvedgaard Zeitzen,2018-09-14 Elite Malay women's polygamy narratives are multiple and varied and their sentiments regarding the practice are conflicted as they are often torn between personal and religious convictions This volume explores the ways in which this increasingly prominent practice impacts Malay gender relations As Muslims elite Malay women may be forced to accept polygamy but they mostly condemn it as women and wives as it forces them to manage their lives and loves under the threat of polygamy from a husband able to marry another woman without their knowledge or consent a husband that is married but available Muslim Women (RLE Women and Religion) Freda Hussain,2020-07-26 The history of Islam and the changing role performance of Muslim women given the various interpretations of the belief system of Islam are described It is the contention of the authors that it is these various interpretations which have given rise to the conflict between the ideal and contextual realities This book also includes papers which investigate the problems of feminism and employment for Muslim women as well as the educational and legal aspects of their lives in contemporary Islamic society First published in 1984 Women in Agriculture, 1979-July 1987 Jerry Rafats,1987 Religion, Values, and Development in Southeast Asia Bruce Matthews,Judith A. Nagata,1986 This volume contains ten papers presented at the joint Conference of the Canadian Council for Southeast Asian Studies and the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Singapore in 1982 The contributors are each specialists in their given fields and teach in either Canada or Southeast Asia The essays cover a wide range of issues related to traditional and contemporary Southeast Asia They include anthropological economic linguistic legal and historical perspectives and focus on Malaysia the Philippines Thailand and Burma Women, Islam and Everyday Life Nina Nurmila,2009-06-10 This book examines Islam and women's everyday life focusing in particular on the highly controversial issue of polygamy It discusses the competing interpretations of the Qur'anic verses that are at the heart of Muslim controversies over polygamy with some groups believing that Islam enshrines polygamy as a male right others seeing it as permitted but discouraged in favour of monogamy and other groups arguing that Islam implicitly prohibits polygamy Based on detailed fieldwork conducted in Indonesia it provides an empirically based account of women's lived experiences in polygamous marriages describing the different perceptions of the practice and strategies in dealing with it It also considers the impact of changing public policy in particular Indonesia's 1974 Marriage Law which restricted the practice of polygamy It shows that in fact this law has not resulted in widespread adherence and considers how public policy could be modified to increase its effectiveness in affecting behaviour in everyday life Overall the book argues that polygamy has been a source of injustice towards women and children that this is against Islamic teaching and that a just Islamic law would need to call for the abolition of polygamy Kelantan Malay and Traditional Chinese Perspectives on Middle-aged Women Douglas Raybeck,1983 Women Among Women Jeanette Dickerson-Putman,Judith K. Brown,1998 Cross cultural in nature the volume looks at relationships between women of different age groups in a village in Taiwan a town in central Sudan a rural setting in western Kenya an Andean peasant community a horticultural village in Melanesia and an Aboriginal community in Australia Adding an interspecies perspective is a study of two age groups of Japanese macaque monkeys Included is an ethnographic bibliography that lists books with a wealth of information on women in sixty societies Women and Politics in Southeast Asia Theresa W Devasahayam,2018-11-01 This book aims to contribute to the discourse on women and politics in Southeast Asia The chapters covering Indonesia Myanmar the Philippines Timor Leste and Singapore analyse the asymmetrical power relationships between the sexes and how power differentials between men and women play out in the realm of politics are a reflection of the power contestations women face with men in other spheres of everyday life Each chapter seeks to ask a different question in terms of where women viz men stand in the political landscape of their countries in an effort to answer the question of Where are the women in the gender trope in Asian politics While the chapters are primarily empirical as they delve into the challenges contradictions and conflicts Southeast Asian women encounter the main assertion is that womens struggles in the realm of politics are a result of having to operate within power structures created principally by men thereby producing barriers for women to enter politics on the one hand and to increase their numbers and widen their sphere of influence on the other Recognizing that Asian politics is dominated by men the question of how women have negotiated a value system that is inherently male centred and male controlled is also discussed The implicit narrative demonstrated in this book is that the political arena should not be considered in isolation from other arenas but instead is essentially a mirror of other arenas whether the home workplace nation and or global spaces each marked by power contestations between men and women and having a spill over effect on the other as well as shaping womens experiences in the political realm Feminism Undaunted: 50 Years As A Muslim Feminist Wazir Jahan Karim,2025-06-12 Wazir Jahan engages the reader in absorbing stories from her childhood to retirement against a backdrop of events in Malaysia cultural academic and political which elucidates the complexities of being a Muslim feminist in a divisive Asian society Her narrative demonstrates that each woman can successfully negotiate the boundaries between patriarchy family and modernity if they believe that being a woman is synonymous with being a feminist that institutions which obstruct women s path to freedom can be challenged through recognising the power of individualism Jahan believes that once a woman understands what can work well for her within the limitations of her own achievements and resources she could be able to rise above these intimidations of life and actively engage in pursuing her dreams For Jahan femininity and feminism are complementary forms of activism which enabled her to gain acceptance and legitimacy for her work with disadvantaged and minority women

Her frank and refreshing confessions of success and failures in her work on women and gender demonstrates confidence individuality and charisma a catharsis in the journey to discovering the power of womanhood

Male and Female in Developing South-East Asia Karim Wazir Wazir, 2021-03-10 This provocative book seeks to redress inaccuracies in Western perceptions of gender relations in Southeast Asia by bringing to the fore the area's ethnic and cultural variance and showing how women and men explain the informal and psychological dimensions of relationships as vital in holding family neighbourhood and kinship ties together Although there are differences between male and female perceptions of sex roles in society women perceive their situation as disadvantaged rather than less significant Male female interpretations of power and status tend to converge usually towards the understanding that the contributions of men and women are equally important in the formation of family and society

Reason and Passion Michael G. Peletz, 2023-11-15 This book provides a historical and ethnographic examination of gender relations in Malay society in particular in the well known state of Negeri Sembilan famous for its unusual mixture of Islam and matrilineal descent Peletz analyzes the diverse ways in which the evocative heavily gendered symbols of reason and passion are deployed by Malay Muslims Unlike many studies of gender this book elucidates the cultural and political processes implicated in the constitution of both feminine and masculine identity It also scrutinizes the relationship between gender and kinship and weighs the role of ideology in everyday life Peletz insists on the importance of examining gender systems not as social isolates but in relation to other patterns of hierarchy and social difference His study is historical and comparative it also explores the political economy of contested symbols and meanings More than a treatise on gender and social change in a Malay society this book presents a valuable and deeply interesting model for the analysis of gender and culture by addressing issues of hegemony and cultural domination at the heart of contemporary cultural studies This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996

Women in Asia Barbara N. Ramusack, Sharon L. Sievers, 1999-06-22 Barbara N Ramusack writes on South and Southeast Asia surveying both the prescriptive roles and the lived experiences of women as well as the construction of gender from early states to the 1990s Although both regions are home to Hindu Buddhist and Muslim religious traditions and had extended trade relations they reveal striking differences in the status and roles of women and the processes of cultural adaptation Sharon Sievers presents an overview of women's participation in the histories of China Japan and Korea from prehistory to the modern period that provides a framework for incorporating women into world history classrooms It offers analyses on major issues derived from recent research and discusses such stereotypical cultural practices as footbinding long seen as exotic in the West in the context of women's lives

Book jacket Asian Futures, Asian Traditions Edwina Palmer, 2021-10-01 To what extent are our futures likely to be determined by our traditions from the past Asian Futures Asian Traditions is a collection of conference papers by scholars of Asian Studies who explore the topics of continuity and change in Asian societies through essays in history politics gender studies language literature film performance and music Recurring among the themes of the book are the invention and reinvention of tradition nostalgia issues of national and ethnic identity colonial heritage nationalism reform and the effects of globalizing economies Both the power and the precariousness of several Asian economies are revealed in studies of the Asian Economic Crisis of the late 1990s and the conversion of some communist states to market socialism Submitting to God Sylva Frisk,2009 This study of the everyday religious practice of pious women within Kuala Lumpur s affluent Malay middle class reveals that women play an active part in the Islamization process by organizing and participating in public programs of religious education transforming the traditionally male dominated space of the mosque and breaking men s monopoly over positions of religious authority Sylva Frisk is a lecturer in the School of Global Studies at Gothenburg University Sweden

Changing Marriage Patterns in Southeast Asia Gavin W. Jones, Terence H. Hull, Maznah Mohamad, 2015-08-04 Various forms of partnering such as officially registered marriages cohabiting relationships and other kinds of relatively stable relationships are crucial in the formation of families throughout the world Although today forms of partnering in the region are not restricted to formal marriage the norm remains for couples to marry to establish a new family and to accept the cultural requirement to have children This book provides a comprehensive and up to date picture of partnerships and marriage in the Southeast Asian region using quantitative data alongside qualitative approaches Through the research of demographers sociologists and anthropologists it examines the way trends in the formation and dissolution of marriages are related to changes in the region s economy and society illuminating both the broad forces affecting marriage patterns and the way these forces work out at the individual and family level Presenting the variety of contemporary marriage patterns in the region with an emphasis on the ways in which marriage issues impinge on the welfare of those concerned this book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Southeast Asia and the sociology of the family
