Russell Grimwade:

Russell Grimwade John Poynter,1967-01-01 Biography of an extraordinarily diverse Australian industrialist the founder of the bequest which endows the Miegunyah imprint In his private interests no less than in his public life Russell Grimwade was a man of extraordinary diversity Active in some of the largest and most enterprising business concerns in Australia prominent in such bodies as the National Museum and the University of Melbourne he yet found time to pursue hobbies such as wood working and produced with his own hands cabinet work of exquisite perfection He designed golf clubs did research into the Australian eucalypts and pioneered motoring in a country whose roads hitherto had known only horses and bullocks He was the son of F S Grimwade an Englishman who settled in Victoria in 1863 In partnership with Alfred Felton F S Grimwade established firms which developed eventually into components of some of the largest industrial undertakings in Australia such as Drug Houses of Australia and Australian Consolidated Industries In the growth of such concerns Russell s part was an important and constructive one Thus Sir Russell Grimwade s biographer was obliged to traverse many fields from industrial gas production to forestry from CSIRO to the collection of rare books and prints In doing so he illuminates not merely the life of Russell Grimwade as an individual but also his class his generation and his country This book was the first title published in the Miegunyah Press series the establishment of which was made possible by a bequest under the will of Sir Russell Grimwade Miegunyah was the home of Mab and Russell Grimwade from the year 1911 Russell Grimwade John Riddoch Poynter,1967 Transforming Biology Juliet Flesch,2015-04-01 Transforming Biology opens a window on the lives and work of the scientists teachers and students who have contributed to the achievements of the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology at the University of Melbourne Established in 1938 the department teaches and undertakes research in a discipline that links chemistry physiology genetics microbiology virology and physics and has championed new techniques and biotechnology innovations that reverberate around the world Highlighting the successful careers of many of its alumni and staff including the influential Victor Trikojus and the impact of benefactors such as Russell Grimwade Juliet Flesch tells the story of the evolution of a department engaged in fundamental biomolecular science as well as the translation of discoveries to industry and the clinic It has been one of the most important national and international bodies engaged in transforming biology MUP Stuart Kells,2023-02-07 Australia s oldest university press is also one of our best known and most trusted publishers Founded in 1921 as a bookshop for students at the University of Melbourne Melbourne University Press was soon publishing important works that contained the best of national scholarship Landmark MUP books and series include The Australian Dictionary of Biography Manning Clark s History of Australia The Encyclopaedia of New Guinea and the journal Meanjin These and other MUP publications helped shape how Australians perceived themselves and how they talked about literature politics race the Pacific the world wars and public policy From its inception MUP grappled with hard questions How should a university press be governed To what extent should such a press

be concerned with political polemical and radical works And can a university press be financially self sustaining if it focuses on books that commercial publishers overlook The respective leaders of MUP answered these questions in ways that regularly led the press into controversy Using a century of MUP publications and archives Stuart Kells has written a rich and fascinating history of an invaluable Australian institution one that is widely seen as public property and whose ups and downs have always been news From the Ruins of Colonialism Chris Healy,1997-03-27 This book throws fresh light on the history of memory forgetting and colonialism It considers key moments of historical imagination and analyses the strange ensemble of elements that constitute Australian History It is an innovative and stimulating investigation of historical cultures and narratives Cubism & Australian Art Lesley Harding,Sue Cramer,2009 Cubism was a movement that changed fundamentally the course of twentieth century art It had far reaching effects both conceptual and stylistic which are still being felt today Described in 1912 by French poet and commentator Guillaume Apollinaire as not an art of imitation but an art of conception Cubism irreversibly altered art s relationship to visual reality I paint things as I think them not as I see them Picasso said Cubism and Australian Art examines for the first time the impact of this transformative art movement on the work of Australian artists from the early 1920s to the present day The authors argue that by its very nature Cubism was characterised by variation and change that the idea of a pure or original Cubism was short lived and that its appearance in Australian art parallels its uptake and re interpretation by artists internationally In the words of French artist Andr Lhote mentor to several Australians who studied at his Academy in Paris There are a thousand definitions of Cubism because there are a thousand painters practising it More than eighty international and Australian artists are showcased with over 300 works featuring Sam Atyeo Ralph Balson Grace Crowley Frank Hinder Roger Kemp Godfrey Miller Stephen Bram and Daniel Crooks as well as Pablo Picasso Georges Braque and Fernand L ger Russell Grimwade Sir Russell Grimwade,19??

The Indian Forester ,1929 Life as Art Della Rowley,Lynn Buchanan,2021-07-02 My books are all in their different ways voyages of discovery I write books to learn to stretch my horizons These voyages of mine are full of risk and passion Hazel Rowley Hazel Rowley was an award winning biographer who was committed to telling the stories of people s lives This collection of short pieces journal articles essays talks diary entries provides a wonderful insight into her craft In these pages she talks honestly about the joys the challenges the highs and the lows of writing biography Much of the material is previously unpublished and reveals Rowley s lively ideas on a range of topics Before her untimely death in 2011 Rowley wrote four acclaimed biographies about Christina Stead Richard Wright Simone de Beauvoir and Jean Paul Sartre and Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt This new collection gives a rich store of reflections on biography and draws the reader into Rowley s passionate pursuit of stories and her search for new biographical subjects Della and Lynn along with Hazel s friend Irene Tomaszewski established the Hazel Rowley Literary Fellowship in her memory Vandemonians Janet McCalman,2021-09-28 It was meant to be Victoria the Free uncontaminated by the Convict Stain Yet they came in their tens of thousands as soon as they were cut free or able to bolt More than half of all those transported to Van Diemen s Land as convicts would one day settle or spend time in Victoria There they were demonised as Vandemonians Some could never go straight a few were the luckiest of gold diggers a handful founded families with distinguished descendants Most slipped into obscurity Burdened by their pasts and their shame their lives as free men and women even within their own families were forever shrouded in secrets and lies Only now are we discovering their stories and Victoria s place in the nation s convict history As Janet McCalman examines this transported population of men women and children from the cradle to the grave we can see them not just as prisoners but as children young people workers mothers fathers and colonists From the author of Struggletown and Journeyings this rich study of the lives of unwilling colonisers is an original and confronting new history of our convict past the repressed history of colonial Victoria

H.M. Bark Endeavour: Updated Edition Ray Parkin,2020-05-19 Here in one accessible volume is Ray Parkin s highly acclaimed and multi award winning study of Captain James Cook s Endeavour This incomparable book is a unique account of a great journey Endeavour s voyage up the east coast of Australia in 1770 and a remarkable re creation of the experience of being on board ship Parkin draws on meticulous research to reveal what the Endeavour looked like how it sailed how it smelled what daily life would have been like for those on board How many strands of yarn were in the ship s cable 954 Did the ship have a lightning conductor Yes What was the diameter of her main mast 21 inches These details are illustrated by plans and figures depicting the ship s architecture and construction its deck plan rigging sails armament boats cables anchors and accommodation all beautifully drawn by Parkin A composite log of Endeavour s voyage extracts from journals kept by those on board is supplemented by an interpretive commentary and explanatory charts H M Bark Endeavour is an absorbing book discursive erudite at times poetic full of wisdom insight and information

Cannon Fire Michael Cannon,2022-11-01 Michael Cannon is best known as the author of landmark and popular works of Australian history including The Land Boomers 1966 and as the founding editor of Historical Records of Victoria But Cannon the child and grandchild of important figures in Australian independent journalism developed a fascination with print media early in his life and had a long and colourful career in printing publishing and editing books newspapers and magazines In Cannon Fire he brings to life many notable personalities with whom he worked including Keith and Rupert Murdoch and recreates the ink stained cigarette smoke filled and always well lubricated worlds of publishing across Melbourne and Sydney in the second half of the twentieth century More than this Cannon s intimate account of a life that began in the 1920s fascinates as both a personal story of unusual courage in the face of challenge and heartache and as a tale of times now passing from memory

Architecture of Devotion Jaynie Anderson,Max Vodola,Shane Carmody,2021-11-30 The Architecture of Devotion James Goold and His Legacies in Colonial Melbourne honours the life and cultural contribution of Archbishop James Alipius Goold 1812 1886 Goold arrived in 1848 as the first Catholic bishop of the newly created diocese of Melbourne and quickly adapted to Australian colonial conditions setting about establishing an extraordinary network of schools churches and welfare institutions across Victoria Beyond the immediate task of building bluestone bricks and mortar Goold carried a grand vision sensing that Melbourne was on its way to becoming a grand international metropolis A collector and man of refined taste Goold not only adorned religious institutions with quality Baroque artwork but he also amassed a unique book collection and private library that showcased his European cultural sensibilities A companion to The Invention of Melbourne A Baroque Archbishop and a Gothic Architect 2019 The Architecture of Devotion brings Goold to life as we follow him around the colony and witness how he shaped the fabric of Victorian suburbs and towns These volumes have been supported by the Australian Research Council which has recognised them as among the best research projects in Australia The Invention of Melbourne was commended in the Victorian Community History Award History Publication Award 2020

William Cooper Bain Attwood, 2021-11-02 William Cooper's passionate struggle against the dispossession of Aboriginal people and the denial of their rights and his heroic fight for them to become citizens in their own country has been widely commemorated and celebrated By carefully reconstructing the historical losses his Yorta Yorta people suffered and endured William Cooper An Aboriginal Life Story reveals how the first seventy years of Cooper's life inspired the remarkable political work he undertook in the 1930s Focusing on Cooper's most important campaigns his famous petition to the British king George for an Aboriginal representative in the Australian parliament his call for a day of mourning after 150 years of colonisation the walk off of the Yorta Yorta people from Cumeroogunga reserve in 1939 and his opposition to the establishment of an Aboriginal regiment in the Second World War this carefully researched study sheds important new light on the long struggle that Indigenous people have fought to have the truth about Australia's black history heard and win representation in Australia's political order

Letters to a Critic Rodney James, 2023-11-14 Described as arguably the most influential Australian art critic of the last half of the twentieth century Alan McCulloch's work as illustrator critic gallery director and author reflected on and documented much of this era of visual art in Australia As critic for the Melbourne Herald from 1951 to 1982 McCulloch was fundamental in the nascent careers of those who were to become some of Australia's most famous artists His monumental Encyclopedia of Australia Art first published in 1968 and still in print today has been acknowledged as the single most important reference work on Australian art ever published In Letters to a Critic curator and author Rodney James has mined the rich archival treasure of the McCulloch Papers to create a lively combination of biography and illustrated book of letters Witty irreverent profound and heartfelt these previously unpublished letters critical essays illustrations and works of art provide a unique insight into the art and lives of Australia's most famed art personalities as they simultaneously reveal McCulloch's role as critic gallery director and mentor

My Forests Janine Burke, 2021-05-04 The narratives in My Forests are a pleasure to read like strolling down a meandering track through the trees you never quite know what you'll discover around that next bend Travel the ancient Incense Road with the Biblical Magi Enjoy the dancing Olive groves of Tuscany and read of sleeping Silver Birches Witness the spectacular tree houses of the Korowai of West Papua Visit tree sitter Miranda Gibson whose 449 day protest against clearfelling in Tasmania's Tyenna Valley led to a World Heritage listing In this enlightening and entertaining book Janine Burke invites you to accompany her through forests art and writing cities and parks deserts and gardens rainforests and wetlands exploring the connections between trees and civilisations past and present My Forests Travels with Trees presents the role of trees in contemporary life in a world where most people don't live in the wild and their acquaintance with nature comes from many sources

Colonial Kangaroo Hunt Ken Gelder, Rachael Weaver, 2020-03-03 From the arrival of Captain James Cook in 1770 to classic children's tale Dot and the Kangaroo Ken Gelder and Rachael Weaver examine hunting narratives in novels visual art and memoirs to discover how the kangaroo became a favourite quarry a relished food source an object of scientific fascination and a source of violent conflict between settlers and Aboriginal people The kangaroo hunt worked as a rite of passage and an expression of settler domination over native species and land But it also enabled settlers to begin to comprehend the complexity of bush ecology raising early concerns about species extinction and the need for conservation and the preservation of habitat

My Grandfather's Clock Graeme Davison, 2023-09-05 A great aunt's bequest a 200 year old grandfather clock sends historian Graeme Davison on a journey deep into his father's family's past From their tribal homeland in the Scottish Borders he follows them to the garrison town of Carlisle from industrial Birmingham to Edwardian Australia and from the Great War to his own suburban childhood This is the story of an ordinary family's journey from frontier warfare and dispossession through economic turmoil and emigration to modest prosperity At each step we are led to reflect on the puzzles of personal identity and the mystery of time Based on a lifetime of creative scholarship My Grandfather's Clock is a moving testament to the power of family history to illuminate the present

Convent Stuart Kells, 2020-03-03 What was behind the wall and the wire The local people knew fine courtyards an old swimming pool dilapidated tennis courts and a remnant garden now wild and sprawling The Abbotsford Convent was this haunted place left to languish for years after the last of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd had gone In its prime it had been a school a refuge a retreat a workhouse and a prison the single largest charitable institution in the southern hemisphere In the late 1990s a proposed high density development threatened the idyllic riverside location sparking outrage in the local community and further afield Years of protesting negotiating and fundraising followed and the convent now on Australia's National Heritage List has started a new life as a vibrant centre for art and culture The Convent A City Finds its Heart tells the story of the site's rich history and the efforts to preserve it It is an uplifting tale of community activism a tangible reminder that the magic of the past can endure and what people power can achieve
