The Return of Holy Russia Gary Lachman, 2020-05-12 A history of how mystical and spiritual influences have shaped Russia's identity and politics and what it means for the future of world civilization Examines Russia's spiritual history from its pagan origins and Eastern Orthodox mysticism to secret societies Rasputin Roerich Blavatsky and Dostoyevsky Explains the visionary writings of the spiritual philosophers of Russia's Silver Age which greatly influence Putin today Explores what Russia's unique identity and its history of messianic politics and apocalyptic thought mean for its future on the world stage At the turn of the 20th century a period

known as the Silver Age Russia was undergoing a powerful spiritual and cultural rebirth. It was a time of magic and mysticism that saw a vital resurgence of interest in the occult and a creative intensity not seen in the West since the Renaissance. This was the time of the God Seekers, pilgrims of the soul and explorers of the spirit who sought the salvation of the world through art and ideas. These sages and their visions of Holy Russia are returning to prominence now through Russian president Vladimir Putin who inspired by their ideas envisions a new Eurasian civilization with Russia as its leader. Exploring Russia's long history of mysticism and apocalyptic thought, Gary Lachman examines Russia's unique position between East and West and its potential role in the future of the world. Lachman discusses Russia's original Slavic paganism and its eager adoption of mystical and apocalyptic Eastern Orthodox Christianity. He explores the Silver Age and its occult revival with a look at Rasputin's prophecies, Blavatsky's Theosophy, Roerich's Red Shambhala and the philosophies of Berdyaev and Solovyov. He looks at Russian Rosicrucianism, the Illuminati, Secret Russian Freemasonry and the rise of other secret societies in Russia. He explores the Russian character as that of the holy fool as seen in the great Russian literature of the 19th century, especially Dostoyevsky. He also examines the psychic research performed by the Russian government throughout the 20th century and the influence of Evola and the esoteric right on the spiritual and political milieu in Russia. Through in-depth exploration of the philosophies that inspire Putin's political regime and a look at Russia's unique cultural identity, Lachman ponders what they will mean for the future of Russia and the world. What drives the Russian soul to pursue the apocalypse? Will these philosophers lead Russia to dominate the world or will they lead it into a new cultural epoch centered on spiritual power and mystical wisdom?

Genocide, Ethnonationalism, and the United Nations Hannibal Travis, 2013-01-17

Genocide, Ethnonationalism, and the United Nations examines a series of related crises in human civilization growing out of conflicts between powerful states or empires and indigenous or stateless peoples. This is the first book to attempt to explore the causes of genocide and other mass killing by a detailed exploration of UN archives covering the period spanning from 1945 through 2011. Hannibal Travis argues that large states and empires disproportionately committed or facilitated genocide and other mass killings between 1945 and 2011. His research incorporates data concerning factors linked to the scale of mass killing and recent findings in human rights, political science and legal theory. Turning to potential solutions, he argues that the concept of genocide imagines a future system of global governance under which the nation state itself is made subject to law. The United Nations, however, has deflected the possibility of such a cosmopolitical law. It selectively condemns genocide and has established an institutional structure that denies most peoples subjected to genocide of a realistic possibility of global justice. It lacks a robust international criminal tribunal or UN army and even encourages security cooperation among states that have proven to be destructive of peoples in the past. Questions raised include: What have been the causes of mass killing during the period since the United Nations Charter entered into force in 1945? How does mass killing spread across international borders and what is the role of resource wealth, the arms trade and external interference in this process Have the United Nations or the International Criminal Court faced up to the problem of genocide and other forms of mass killing as is their mandate Encyclopedia of Modern Dictators Frank J.
