Seville A Cultural History Cityscapes:

Seville, Córdoba, and Granada Elizabeth Nash, 2005-10-13 Spain's southern city of Seville basks in romantic myths and legends evoking the scent of jasmine and orange blossom. But there is an ascetic core to its sybaritic spirit. For all their fame as passionate performers, the poet Unamuno called Sevillanos finos y frios, refined and cool. Once Europe's most cosmopolitan metropolis bridging cultures of East and West and hub of a sea-borne empire, Seville was defined by Spain's great seventeenth-century playwright Lope de Vega as port and gateway to the Indies. The city retains both the swagger of its seafaring heyday and the sensual flavor of Moorish al-Andalus. Seville produced Spain's lowest ruffians, grandest grandees, and a seductive gypsy culture that colors our wider perception of Spain. Elizabeth Nash explores the palaces, the mosques, the patios, fountains, and wrought-iron balconies of Seville. Córdoba and Granada, cities celebrated for centuries by Europe's finest painters, poets, satirists, and travel writers for their voluptuous beauty and vibrant cultural mix. Seville, Cordoba, and Granada: A Cultural History Elizabeth Nash, 2005-10-13 Spain's southern city of Seville basks in romantic myths and legends evoking the scent of jasmine and orange blossom. It tends to view them as mere backdrops for events or social relations, or to study them as material constructions, the fruit of urban planning, but largely vacant of inhabitants. Examining people and streets in tandem the contributors to this volume strive towards more integrated urban history They discuss the social and political processes of early modern street life and the discursive play in which streets figured Six chapters based in Sweden Finland England Portugal Italy and Transylvania discuss the subtle interplay of the material and immaterial public and private planned order and versatility spontaneous invention control and resistance all matters central to how streets worked Contributors are Emese Balint Maria Helena Barreiros Elizabeth S Cohen Thomas V Cohen Alexander Cowan Anu Korhonen Riitta Laitinen and Dag Lindström

War and Photography Caroline Brothers, 2013-03-07 Drawing on the work of Barthes Eco Foucault Baudrillard Burgin and Tagg and on the historians of mentalities War and Photography presents a theoretical approach to the understanding of press photography in its historical and contemporary context Brothers applies her argument with special reference to French and British newspaper images of the Spanish Civil War a selection of which is presented in the book Rejecting analyses based upon the content of the images alone she argues that photographic meaning is largely predetermined by its institutional and cultural context Acting as witnesses despite themselves photographs convey a wealth of information not about any objective reality but about the collective attitudes and beliefs particular to the culture in which they operate Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright, 2025-10-27 This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre Modern Islamic world These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins vessels and books to major constructions including mosques tombs castles dams and canal systems The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record Object based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period To demonstrate these points each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned made used adapted and exchanged The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects employing perspectives from the fields of art history archaeology numismatics ethnography and epigraphy Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction an extensive glossary a timeline and guide for further reading the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political economic social cultural religious and intellectual histories of the Islamic world

Circulations in the Global History of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, Catherine Dossin, Béatrice Joyeux-Prunel, 2016-03-03 The project of global art history calls for balanced treatment of artifacts and a unified approach This volume emphasizes questions of transcultural encounters and exchanges as circulations It presents a strategy that highlights the processes and connections among cultures and also responds to the dynamics at work in the current globalized art world The editors introduction provides an account of the historical background to this approach to global art history stresses the inseparable bond of theory and practice and suggests a revaluation of materialist historicism as an underlying premise Individual contributions to the book provide an overview of current reflection and research on issues of circulation in relation to global art history and the globalization of art past and present They offer a variety of methods and approaches to the treatment of different periods regions and objects surveying both questions of historiography and methodology and presenting individual case studies An Afterword by James Elkins gives a critique of the present project The book thus deliberately leaves discussion open inviting future responses to the large questions it poses Admiration and Awe Antonio

Urquizar-Herrera, 2017-04-28 This book offers the first systematic analysis of the cultural and religious appropriation of Andalusian architecture by Spanish historians during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries To date this process of Christian appropriation has generally been discussed as a phenomenon of architectural hybridisation However this was a period in which the construction of a Spanish national identity became a key focus of historical discourse As a result cultural hybridity encountered partial opposition from those seeking to establish cultural and religious homogeneity Spain's Islamic past became a major concern in this period and historical writing served as the site for a complex negotiation of identity. Historians and antiquarians used a range of strategies to re appropriate the meaning of medieval Islamic heritage as befitted the new identity of Spain as a Catholic monarchy and empire. On the one hand the monuments Islamic origin was subjected to historical revisions and re identified as Roman or Phoenician. On the other hand religious forgeries were invented that staked claims for buildings and cities having been founded by Christians prior to the arrival of the Muslims in Spain. Islamic stones were used as core evidence in debates that shaped the early development of archaeology and they also became the centre of a historical controversy about the origin of Spain as a nation as well as its ecclesiastical history.

City Codes

Hana Wirth-Nesher,1996-01-26 City Codes is a study of the representation of the city in the modern novel that takes difference as its point of departure so that cities are read according to the cultural and social position of the urbanite. These urban narratives are analysed in the context of a cultural repertoire of city codes from the architectural features of window and street to the social and historical signs of the landmark and the passer by with the emphasis on the subject s construction of his or her place as shaped by history politics nationality gender class and race. The study moves from boundaries inscribed onto the cityscape to distances experienced by the city dwellers. Its real and textual cities are Warsaw Jerusalem New York Chicago Paris London and Dublin. The novels discussed are by Isaac Bashevis Singer Amos Oz Theodore Dreiser Ralph Ellison Henry James Henry Roth James Joyce and Virginia Woolf.

Handbook of Urban Studies Ronan Paddison,2001 The Handbook of Urban Studies provides the first comprehensive up to date account of the urban condition relevant to a wide readership from academics to researchers and policymakers. It provides a theoretically and empirically informed account embracing all the different disciplines contributing to urban studies. Leading authors identify key issues and questions and future trends for further research and present their findings so that where appropriate they are relevant to the needs of policymakers. Using the city as a unifying structure the Handbook provides an holistic appreciation of urban structure and change and of the theories by which we understand the structure development and changing character of cities.
