Field Report Covering Air-raid Protection and Allied Subjects in Kobe, Japan. Civilian Defence Division United States Strategic Bombing Survey, 1947 Founding Territorial Cults in Early Japan G. Domenig, 2023-12-11 The first book that deals with the territorial cults of early Japan by focusing on how such cults were founded in ownerless regions Numerous ancient Japanese myths and legends are discussed to show that the typical founding ritual was a two phase ritual that turned the territory into a horizontal microcosm complete with its own terrestrial heaven inhabited by local deities Reversing Mircea Eliade's popular thesis the author concludes that the concept of the human made horizontal microcosm is not a reflection but the source of the religious concept of the macrocosm with gods dwelling high up in the sky The open access publication of this book has been published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation 10,000 Chinese-Japanese Characters Jan Lodewijk Pierson, 1926 Great Britain and the Opening of Japan 1834-1858 William G Beasley, William G. in 1983 It also investigates K da Aya s Kimono and Flowing as well as Naruse Mikio s 1956 film adaptation of the latter Reading the Kimono additionally advances the study of women writers by discussing texts by Tsuboi Sakae and Miyao Tomiko authors often overlooked in scholarship despite their award winning bestselling stature Through her analysis of stories and their afterlives Suzuki offers a fresh view of the kimono as complex material to be read She asks broader questions about the act of interpretation what it means to explore both texts and textiles as inherently dynamic objects shaped by context and considered differently over time Reading the Kimono is at once an engaging history of the modern kimono and its representation and a significant study of twentieth century Japanese literature and film

Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend Dr Donna Coates, 2023-11-01 War is traditionally considered a male experience By extension the genre of war literature is a male dominated field and the tale of the battlefield remains the privileged and only canonised war story In Australia although women have written extensively about their wartime experiences their voices have been distinctively silenced Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend calls for a re definition of war literature to include the numerous voices of women writers and further recommends a re reading of Australian national literatures with women's war writing foregrounded to break the hold of a male dominated literary tradition and pass on a vital but unexplored women's tradition Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend examines the rich body of World Wars I and II and Vietnam War literature by Australian women providing the critical attention and treatment that they deserve Donna Coates records the reaction of Australian women writers to these conflicts illuminating the complex role of gender in the interpretation of war and in the cultural history of twentieth century Australia By visiting an astonishing number of unfamiliar non canonical texts Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend profoundly alters our understanding of how Australian women writers have interpreted war especially in a nation where the experience of colonising a frontier has spawned enduring myths of identity and statehood
