The Names of God - Women's Bible Study Participant Workbook Melissa Spoelstra, 2020-08-04 Know God better through a study of His names. Today's culture and others' views even those of other Christians can present a distorted view of God. Some suggest God exudes qualities He does not possess such as being unloving or apathetic toward His creation. In a world where we find people creating God in their own image, studying God's names can remind us that we are created in His image. In fact, one of the best ways to know God's true character and grow closer to Him is to study His names. In The Names of God, Melissa Spoelstra leads women on an exploration of the many names of our triune God from El and Elohim to Yahweh and its many combinations to names such as Abba, Jesus, and Holy Spirit and many others. As women study the names of God, their ideas about God will become more grounded in what His names tell them and thus more personal, allowing a greater trust in Him to share the details of their lives. Whether having walked with God for many years or just starting out in a relationship with Him, by the end of this study, women will not only know more about God but will know Him better because through the discovery of God's names, they will discover Him. Components for this six-week Bible study each available separately include a Participant Workbook, a Leader Guide, a DVD with six 25-minute segments with closed captioning, and a boxed Leader Kit containing one of each component. This Bible Study Includes: A six-week study of the names of God. Inspires women to have a more personal and trusting relationship with God. DVD features dynamic, engaging teaching in six 25-minute segments. Strong, solid Bible study from popular Bible teacher and speaker Melissa Spoelstra. For Me to Live Is Christ Joel R.

Beeke, 2025-08-05 Since the time of the Reformation and especially during the era of the Puritans, Christians have derived great benefit from reading edifying sermons. Christians today would do well to imitate godly saints of the past by supplementing their devotional diet with preaching in print. As Joel R. Beeke says, "Though books of sermons do not tend to sell well today, unlike in Puritan times when nearly all their books were repackaged sermons, the reading of edifying sermons can still be a great blessing to God's children today." This book presents thirty-six choice sermons from a veteran preacher who has also spent his career training ministers to faithfully preach God's Word. These sermons cover a wide range of texts from Genesis to Revelation and treat a host of pertinent topics. Nevertheless, one grand theme resounds from each of them: Jesus Christ and how to live in Him, by Him, and out of Him. Each is spiritually beneficial, meant to help readers grow in spiritual maturation to the glory of the triune God. Like Paul, the goal of every faithful preacher is to proclaim nothing but Jesus Christ and Him crucified. 1 Cor 2:2. This volume is evidence that Beeke's two favorite things in life are to know Christ and to preach Christ. And as you read by the Spirit's grace, your love for Christ will deepen so that you shout from the heart: For me to live is Christ.

A Shepherd Looks at Psalm 23 L. B. Cowman, 2001-09. An updated version of one of the best-selling devotional books of all time. Streams in the Desert is now based on the NIV text and available in leather.

Life Beyond Your Parents' Mistakes David Powlison, 2005-03-24. What if your human parents were violent, deceptive, cold, or even just occasionally disappointing? Can their failures keep you from understanding God's love and having a growing relationship with your heavenly Father? Some say that you can't know God's love unless someone will stand in your parents' place, giving you a loving new image to use.

Traveling Light Deluxe Edition Max Lucado, 2013-04-01. We're all weighed down by loads we were never intended to carry. With New York Times bestselling author and pastor Max Lucado as your guide, Traveling Light invites you to release some of those heavy burdens and experience true rest. We've all seen weary travelers: everything they own crammed into their luggage, staggering through terminals and hotel lobbies with overstuffed suitcases, trunks, duffels, and backpacks. Backs ache. Feet burn. Eyelids droop. We've all seen people like that. At times, we all are people like that. If not with our physical luggage, then at least with our spiritual load. The suitcase of guilt. A sack of discontent. You drape a duffel bag of weariness on one shoulder and a hanging bag of grief on the other. Add on a backpack of doubt, an overnight bag of loneliness, and a trunk of fear. Pretty soon, you're pulling more stuff than a skycap. No wonder you're so tired at the end of the day. Lugging luggage is exhausting. Centered around the comforting, uplifting words of Psalm 23, Traveling Light will give you the encouragement and the tools you need to release the burdens of self-reliance, arrogance, hopelessness, disappointment, shame. There are certain weights in life that we simply aren't designed to carry, and Max reminds us that the Lord is asking you to set them down and trust Him. He is the Father at the baggage claim. When a dad sees his five-year-old son trying to drag the family trunk off the carousel, what does he say? The father will say to his son what God is saying to you: Set it down, child. I'll carry that one. What if we took God up on His offer? We just might find ourselves traveling a little lighter.
