Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1984 Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,1985 Desert Entanglements Gabriele Volpato,2025-01-01 The Sahrawi refugees in southwestern Algeria have struggled from exile for fifty years to reconfigure the animated desert they call badiya They recovered camel husbandry and access to part of the former rangeland and wove it back as seasonal nomadism Desert Entanglements analyzes this process as an act of place making premised on refugees agency Nine Faces Of Kenya Elspeth Huxley,2011-06-30 In this marvelous anthology Elspeth Huxley our best and most popular writer on Africa has drawn on her unparalleled knowledge of Kenya and its literature to present a fully rounded portrait of one of the most fascinating countries in the world In nine sections focusing on exploration travel settlement war hunting wildlife environment life styles and legend and poetry using only first hand accounts she guides the reader through the story of Kenya from AD100 to the present with her characteristic candour and directness The ... Political Risk Yearbook ,1997 International African Bibliography ,1985 Wajibu ,1989 Cabin Will Jones,2023-10-17 A beautifully illustrated guide to building a cabin in the wilderness packed with practical advice and insights into of the history of cabin culture around the world Throughout history people around the world have built cabins as homes retreats and even follies In recent times many have been drawn to cabin building by a yearning to connect with nature and spend time in the wilderness From the homes of Indigenous peoples and the settlers in North America to contemporary Nordic summer homes and artists retreats everywhere the emotive lure of cabin building has deep roots and shows no sign of abating In 2010 journalist and author Will Jones gave up London life to move to rural Canada with his young family His dream was to build a remote cabin in the woods that would be a silent retreat from the world Cabin is the story of how he created the ultimate hideaway inspired by cabin building practices from around the world In this book Jones explores the history and romance of cabin building and delves into the architectural styles vernacular idiosyncrasies and tools and techniques of historical and modern builders Weaving the personal story of his cabin build with illustrated practical know how on everything from deciding on site and orientation to foundations and interior design Jones s essential book is full of inspirational ideas The urge to escape the city and live in nature has never been stronger Part story part history and part practical guide this is the ultimate read for anyone dreaming of building a cabin of their own Includes Black and White Illustrations New People ,1999 L'outillage Lithique en Contextes Ethnoarchéologiques Xavier Terradas,2005 Arguing that flint tools alone reveal little about prehistoric societies these eight papers use ethnological data to reconstruct the cultural economic and social context of these tools Taken from Symposium 1 Art ,1982 Peoples on the Move David J. Phillips,2001 This is the most comprehensive source of information on all the nomadic peoples of the world Maps help you to locate these nomadic people groups many of them unevangelized black and white photographs enable you to visualize them and people profiles and bibliographic data facilitate research Back cover Life Before the Drought Earl Scott, 2024-04-03 Little attention had been paid to the realities of life in the Savanna Sahel of West Africa before the drought of 1968-74 but this book originally published in 1984 provides a set of authoritative accounts of the way in which the inhabitants cope with what outsiders perceive as a harsh environment The peoples of the Savanna Sahel are shown to be developers of strategies and technologies to manage their resources Their understanding of the environment enables them to contribute substantially to any plans for economic and ecological recovery in the region Their cooperative modes of life lead to greater social complexity and capacity for survival Geographers anthropologists and social historians should find the interdisciplinary human ecological approach of the book appealing Development economists and rural planners will find the chapters on land use patterns and resource use particularly valuable Catalog of the Library of the National Museum of African Art Branch of the Smithsonian Institution Libraries Smithsonian Institution. Libraries. National Museum of African Art Branch, 1991 Christianity Among the Nomads Paolo Tablino, 2004 Daily Life of Women Colleen Boyett, H. Micheal Tarver, Mildred Diane Gleason, 2020-12-07 Indispensable for the student or researcher studying women's history this book draws upon a wide array of cultural settings and time periods in which women displayed agency by carrying out their daily economic familial artistic and religious obligations Since record keeping began history has been written by a relatively few elite men Insights into women's history are left to be gleaned by scholars who undertake careful readings of ancient literature examine archaeological artifacts and study popular culture such as folktales musical traditions and art For some historical periods and geographic regions this is the only way to develop some sense of what daily life might have been like for women in a particular time and place This reference explores the daily life of women across civilizations The work is organized in sections on different civilizations from around the world arranged chronologically Within each society the encyclopedia highlights the roles of women within five broad thematic categories the arts economics and work family and community life recreation and social customs and religious life Included are numerous sidebars containing additional information document excerpts images and suggestions for further reading When Men are Women John Colman Wood, 1999 In this fascinating exploration of the cultural models of manhood When Men Are Women examines the unique world of the nomadic Gabra people a camel herding society in northern Kenya Gabra men denigrate women and feminine things yet regard their most prestigious men as women As they grow older all Gabra men become dabella or ritual experts who have feminine identities Wood's study draws from structuralism psychoanalytic theory and anthropology to probe the meaning of opposition and ambivalence in Gabra society When Men Are Women provides a multifaceted view of gender as a cultural construction independent of sex but nevertheless fundamentally related to it By turning men into women the Gabra confront the dilemmas and ambiguities of social life Wood demonstrates that the Gabra can provide illuminating insight into our own culture's understanding of gender and its function in society
