The Edwardians Roy Hattersley, 2015-09-01 A convincing account of a watershed epoch Hattersley's concise yet comprehensive history casts new light on a much misunderstood era Publishers Weekly Edwardian Britain has often been described as a golden sunlit afternoon personified by its genial and self indulgent King In fact modern Britain was born during the reign of Edward VII when politics science literature and the arts were turned upside down In Parliament the peers were crushed for the first time since Magna Carta Irish nationalists and suffragettes took politics out on to the streets Home Rule and Votes for Women were delayed not precipitated by the First World War Great parliamentary stars such as Lloyd George and Winston Churchill typified an era in which personalities dominated the headlines of the new tabloid newspapers It was the age of Rolls and Royce Scott and Shackleton Edward Elgar Shaw the Pankhursts and Mrs Alice Keppel whose social life was reported without mention of her relationship with the King The theater of ideas superseded drawing room dramas Novelists of genius from Henry James to D H Lawrence produced a masterpiece each year A London gallery caused a sensation with an exhibition of Postimpressionists Edward Elgar was the first English composer for two hundred years to stand comparison with the continental European masters In sport Victorian chivalry was replaced with unashamed

The Unusual Odyssey of an Octogenarian Paul Sutcliffe,2005-09 This Odyssey of an Octogenarian is certainly different From 1920 when at age 5 my first disastrous adventure occurred until the present time I have experienced moment after moment of unexpected surprises of traumatic panics of impossible coincidences and finally of idiotic decisions I made which somehow have always turned into very happy memories I know that most books are written for monetary profit At ninety years of age and without any close relatives my writing for profit is kind of ridiculous Of the two other choices I hope this effort will be construed as a labor of love rather than as an ego trip In any event I have arranged for any possible royalties to be donated to Bakersfield and other American worth while endeavors So please read and enjoy In any event I have arranged for any possible royalties to be set aside and donated directly to the Katrina Rita disaster fund
