Sherpas Reflections On Change In Himal:

Sherpas James F. Fisher,1990 James Fisher combines the strengths of technical anthropology literary memoir and striking photography in this telling study of rapid social change in Himalayan Nepal The author first visited the Sherpas of Nepal when he accompanied Sir Edmund Hilary on the Himalayan Schoolhouse Expedition of 1964 Returning to the Everest region several times during the 1970s and 1980s he discovered that the construction of the schools had far less impact than one of the by products of their building a short take off and landing airstrip By reducing the time it took to travel between Kathmandu and the Everest region from a hike of several days to a 45 minute flight the airstrip made a rapid increase in tourism possible Beginning with his impressions of Sherpa society in pre tourist days Fisher traces the trajectory of contemporary Sherpa society reeling under the impact of modern education and mass tourism and assesses the Sherpa s concerns for their future and how they believe these problems should be and eventually will be resolved Sherpas:

Reflections on Change in Himalayan Nepal Fisher James F,1990 The Sherpas of the Himalayas Manis Kumar Raha,Palash Chandra Coomar,Sudip Bhui,2016-01-01 The present book is a detailed first of its kind study of the Sherpas inhabiting Darjeeling District of West Bengal and South District of Sikkim This ethnographic study among the Sherpas of these two areas was undertaken by the authors because firstly the Sherpas here have very interesting culture and secondly these people here are very little known All detailed studies so far published are on the Sherpas of Nepal So people know about the Sherpas of Nepal but not about them living in Darjeeling and Sikkim From this detailed study the readers of this book particularly those who are interested about the people of the Himalayas and of North East India will get a comprehensive idea about the life and activities of these inhabitants of the Himalayas Moreover in this book a comparison between their society and culture and those of their congeners in Nepal has also been made As a result the readers will get a complete life sketch of these people from this book This book will also help in formulating and undertaking development programmes among them and also in the areas they live
