Shes Gonna Be:

Kututu Olivia Osborn, 2014-06-05 Life on a cattle station in Australia's unforgiving Northern Territory is rough. The extreme heat, humidity, insects, dust, isolation, and predators forge impenetrable bonds among those who can survive here. The people are just as hardened and just as unforgiving as the wild lands they fight to tame. In 1987, Clare Daine, a schoolteacher from Melbourne, takes up the job of governess to identical triplets at the Opium Creek station. She's shocked to discover that the homestead is little more than an old tin shed with limited electricity. Her employer, Jack Marlow, a narcissistic alcoholic, is extremely demanding, and the other men of the station are as raw around the edges as the station itself. Three years before Clare's arrival, the triplets' mother, Lily, disappeared during a brutal wet season storm. Now, doubt has left the close-knit community nervous, suspicious, and aggrieved. When Wanatjiti, Lily's renegade stallion, returns, old wounds are opened, and unanswered questions rise again. Ngunintja, the triplets' grandmother, has her own theories about what really happened during that fateful storm. And now, nightmares tear Clare's sleep apart. Her dedication to the children is the only thing that keeps her from fleeing the horrors of this life. Slowly, she comes to understand the love-hate relationship they all share with each other and with the land itself. Clare's single-minded determination to discover the truth behind Lily's disappearance puts her own safety at risk. How far will she go to solve the mystery?

The Conscious Hours Stephen Lissberger, 2005-10

Represented in this novel is a microcosm of what lies beneath the civilized facade of a New York society, and what lies are fed to gullible believers. Any facsimile to real persons or events may or may not be coincidental. That primarily depends on the point of view of the guilty as well as the innocent and how they perceive themselves. Eric Soloman represents an effort to coerce the mind's eye to focus on two perspectives at the same time: that of the participant and that of the observer. The insurmountable anxieties throttling his ambition and the community in which he lives comprise the collisions that drive him to the point of inevitable madness. The contagious complacency of a self-serving society is the only thing separating him from possible acceptance. His struggles reflect the natural instincts of survival. His heart houses two windows: one through which he sees COURAGE, the other COWARDICE, in his uncertain quest for life's elusive meaning.
