Shiatsu For Dogs:

Dog Shiatsu Little Arfin Eddie, 2017-10-22 Dog Shiatsu is a complete illustrated step by step how to book which will give you the expertise to give your dog the healthful benefit of the ancient tried and true technique of the art of acupressure which is called Shiatsu. The Shiatsu technique uses the principles of acupuncture without employing needles. Instead of needles the fingers of each hand are used to put painless pressure on the points of the dog's nervous system's meridians or locations which are located throughout the canine body. This is widely believed to allow the dog's life force to flow unimpeded hence restoring full energy and vitality. Truly a win win book concerning your dog's health and happiness. Shiatsu for Dogs Pamela Hannay, 1998 The Shiatsu treatments illustrated in this book will enable any dog owner to give their animal a complete body treatment that will relax improve circulation and relieve strains and stiffness. Shiatsu builds mutual confidence and communication and is of particular benefit to the older dog. Massage for Dogs... a Personal Journey Typhaine Pautrel,2017-05-28 Having been a musician for many years there came a time when I finally felt like changing my job and so I turned towards Shiatsu that I had discovered in Japan and which was given by blind people who had an extreme sensitivity regarding the sense of touch The act of touching fascinates me In music everything is a matter of cognition through this sense it is universal I studied Shiatsu for three years at the school of Andr Nahum in Paris and then set up my own company of Shiatsu for human beings after having graduated from the school with full certification I one day decided that I would like to try massaging my dog Cookie a 3 year old Golden Retriever So to learn more about this new approach I entered a specific dog massage school in Paris Chien Zen managed by Pauline Arnt This brought me some unexpected benefits For this new adventure I chose to massage 3 dogs from a boarding kennel which was located alongside a forest near Paris Seeing the reaction of dogs to a massage without knowing the therapist was quite challenging For these sessions I just gave massages without any Shiatsu I realized that with proper manipulations and the intention of doing good to your beloved dog you can improve his mood as well as his well being These moments are something rare in your relationship with him After hesitating over the way of presenting this material I finally decided to start by giving you some of my own definitions of the words I use Some explicit pictures of the manipulations on different dogs will help to illustrate my strange words Then I describe the massage entirely with my own impressions followed by all the photos of the session Some pictures about specific moments with my comments follow immediately afterwards I chose to show you my work on 3 specific types of dogs the first one is Sangha medium size with long fur the second is Nanouche a small dog Yorkshire and the third one is Elvis a big dog with short hair After all Sangha s sessions I do the same work for Nanouche and Elvis You can see the evolution of their acceptance from the very first massage to the last one Finally I will give you my version of an ideal dog massage which is completely personal I sincerely hope you will enjoy reading this book I d like to know the music to which my dog s tail beats the time Yvan Audouard
