The Awakener Helen Weaver,2014-01-05 The Awakener is Helen Weaver's long awaited memoir of her adventures with Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg Lenny Bruce and other wild characters from the New York City of the fifties and sixties The sheltered but rebellious daughter of bookish Midwestern parents Weaver survived a repressive upbringing in the wealthy suburbs of Scarsdale and an early divorce to land in Greenwich Village just in time for the birth of rock n roll and the counterculture movement known as the Beat Generation Shortly after her arrival Kerouac Ginsberg and company old friends of her roommate arrive on their doorstep after a non stop drive from Mexico Weaver and Kerouac fall in love on sight and Kerouac moves in Weaver paints a romantic picture of Greenwich Village in the 1950s and 60s when she worked in publishing and hung out with Allen Ginsberg and the poet Richard Howard and was wild and loose getting high and falling into bed almost immediately with her crushes including Lenny Bruce Her descriptions of the Village are evocative recalling a time when she wore long skirts Capezio ballet shoes and black stockings and used to sit in the Bagatelle and have sweet vermouth on the rocks with a twist of lemon Early on she quotes Pasternak You in others this is your soul Kerouac's soul lives on through many people Joyce Johnson for one but few have been as adept as Weaver at capturing both him and the New York bohemia of the time He was lucky to have met her Tara McKelvey The New York Times Book Review There is a tendency for memoirs written by women about The Great Man to be self abnegating exercises in a kind of inverted narcissism the author seeking to prove her worth as muse as consort as chosen one Not so with Helen Weaver's beautiful plainspoken elegy for her time spent with Jack Kerouac who suddenly appeared at her door in the West Village one white frosty morning with Allen Ginsberg who knew Weaver's roommate in tow New York Post Helen Weaver's book was a revelation to me This is the most graphic honest shameless and moving documentary of what the newly liberated women in cities got up to how they lived loved and created Who knew It is time they did And here's how Carolyn Cassady Weaver recreates the excitement of a time when things were radically changing and shows us what it was like living with an eccentric genius at the turning point of his life Eventually she asks Jack to leave but they remain friends and over the years her respect for his writing grows even as Kerouac's reputation undergoes a gradual transition from enfant terrible to American icon She comes to realize that by writing On the Road he woke America up along with her from the long dream of the fifties And the Buddhist philosophy that once struck her as Jack's excuse for doing whatever he liked because nothing is real it's all a dream eventually becomes her own Helen Weaver's memoir is a riveting account of her love affair and friendship with Jack Kerouac She is both clear eyed and passionate about him and writes with truly amazing grace Ann Charters Helen Weaver has translated over fifty books
