Shifting Spaces Women Citizenship And Migration Within The European Union:

Shifting Spaces Louise Ackers, 1998 This text traces the development of European citizenship through an examination of the gender dimension of internal migration for example what are the effects of internal migration within the European Union on the lives of women immigrants Women, Migration and Citizenship Alexandra Dobrowolsky, 2016-02-17 Given the recent and rapid changes to migration patterns and citizenship processes this volume provides a timely compelling empirical and theoretical study of the gendered implications of such developments More specifically it draws out the multiple connections between migration and citizenship concerns and practices for women The collection features original research that examines women's diverse immigrant and refugee experiences and exposes how gender ideologies and practices organize migrant citizenship in its various dimensions at the local national and transnational levels The volume contributes to theoretical debates on gender migration and citizenship and provides new insights into their interrelation It includes rich case studies that range from the Philippines and Somalia to the Caribbean and from Australasia to Canada and Britain Designed to have a multidisciplinary appeal it is suitable for courses on migration diversity gender race ethnicity law and public policy comparative politics and international relations Migration, Work and Citizenship in the Enlarged European Union Samantha Currie, 2016-04-22 Drawing upon socio legal research this insightful book considers labour migration within the context of eastward European Union enlargement Specifically this volume explores the legal rights of accession nationals to access employment their experiences once in work and their engagement with broader family and social entitlement By combining analysis of the legal framework governing free movement related rights with analysis of qualitative data gained from interviews with Polish migrants this volume is able to speculate on the significance the status of Union citizenship holds for nationals of the recently acceded CEE Member States Citizenship is conceptualised not merely as rights but as a practice a real lived experience The citizenship status of migrants from the CEE Member States is shaped by formal legal entitlement law in action as it is implemented by the Member States and accessed by the migrants and social and cultural perceptions and experiences on the ground Migration and Mobility in Europe Heinz Fassmann, Dr. Max Haller, David Stuart Lane, 2009-01-01 The papers presented in this volume form a homogeneous body of knowledge with many facets The topics researched present a wide variety This volume offers solid research on a variety of issues in the study of migration Theodore P Lianos South Eastern Europe Journal of Economics The enlargement of the European Union has had an enormous impact on migration within Europe This book addresses the form of these effects outlining the social political and economic problems created by the free movement of people within the European Union The eminent European contributors to this book explore the ways in which nation states and the EU seek to promote the benefits of migration but at the same time counter threats arising from dislocation The advantages and costs of migration are considered as is the crucial problem of who gains and loses from migration Underpinning the analysis are studies on retirement migrants in Turkey and migrant workers in countries including Austria Finland Norway Portugal Spain and the UK which highlight the impact of immigration in the host states the motivation for migration within the EU as well as the issues of societal integration of migrants and the need for control as a consequence of growing levels of migration This timely and relevant study will strongly appeal to scholars and researchers in a wide range of fields including European studies migration studies social policy human geography international relations and sociology EU Migrant Workers, Brexit and Precarity Eva A.

Duda-Mikulín,2019-03-29 How has the Brexit vote affected EU migrants to the UK This book presents a female Polish perspective using findings from research carried out with migrants interviewed before and after the Brexit vote voices of real people who made their home in the UK It looks at how migrants view Brexit and what it means for them how their experiences compare pre and post Brexit vote and their future plans as well as considering the wider implications of the migrant experience in relation to precarity and the British paid labour market Immigration and Homelessness in Europe

Edgar, Bill,Doherty, Joe,Henk Meert,2004-11-23 Includes statistics International Handbook of Migration, Minorities and Education Zvi Bekerman,Thomas Geisen,2011-10-06 Migrants and minorities are always at risk of being caught in essentialized cultural definitions and being denied the right to express their cultural preferences because they are perceived as threats to social cohesion Migrants and minorities respond to these difficulties in multiple ways as active agents in the pedagogical political social and scientific processes that position them in this or that cultural sphere On the one hand they reject ascribed cultural attributes while striving towards integration in a variety of social spheres e g school and workplace in order to achieve social mobility On the other hand they articulate demands for cultural self determination This discursive duality is met with suspicion by the majority culture For societies with high levels of migration or with substantial minority cultures questions related to the meaning of cultural heterogeneity and the social and cultural limits of learning and communication e g migration education or critical multiculturalism are very important It is precisely here where the chances for new beginnings and new trials become of great importance for educational theorizing which urgently needs to find answers to current questions about individual freedom community cultural affiliations and social and democratic cohesion Answers to these questions must account for both political and learning perspectives at the macro mezzo and micro contextual levels The contributions of this edited volume enhance the knowledge in the field of migrant minority education with a special emphasis on the meaning of culture and social learning for educational processes Money Matters in Migration Tesseltje de Lange,Willem Maas,Annette Schrauwen,2021-11-18 Money shapes all aspects of migration This book explains how and why focusing on policy participation and citizenship Gender and International Migration in Europe Eleonore Kofman,Annie Phizacklea,Parvati Raghuram,Rosemary Sales,2005-06-20 Gender and International Migration in Europe is a unique work which introduces a gender dimension into theories of contemporary migrations As the European Union seeks to extend equal opportunities increasingly restrictionist immigration policies and the persistence of racism deny autonomy and choice to migrant women This work demonstrates how processes of globalisation and change in state policies on employment and welfare have maintained a demand for diverse forms of gendered immigration The authors examine state and European Union policies of immigration control family reunion refugees and the management of immigrant and ethnic minority communities Most importantly this work considers the opportunities created for political activity by migrant women and the extent to which they are able to influence and participate in mainstream policy making This volume will be essential reading for anyone involved in or interested in modern European immigration policy Women Migrants From East to West

Luisa Passerini, 2007-11 Based on the oral histories of eighty migrant women and thirty additional interviews with native women in the receiving countries this volume documents the contemporary phenomenon of the feminisation of migration through an exploration of the lives of women who have moved from Bulgaria and Hungary to Italy and the Netherlands It assumes migrants to be active subjects creating possibilities and taking decisions in their own lives as well as being subject to legal and political regulation and the book analyses the new forms of subjectivity that come about through mobility Part I is a largely conceptual exploration of subjectivity mobility and gender in Europe The chapters in Part II focus on love work home communication and food themes which emerged from the migrant women's accounts In Part III based on the interviews with native women employers friends or in associations relevant to migrant women the chapters analyse their representations of migrants and the book goes on to explore forms of intersubjectivity between European women of different cultural origins A major contribution of this book is to consider how the movement of people across Europe is changing the cultural and social landscape with implications for how we think about what Europe means Cover image Painting by Carla Accardi Reproduced with the kind permission of Luca Barsi of the Galleria Accademia Via Accademia Albertina 3 e 10123 Torino Moving People and Knowledge Louise Ackers, Bryony Gill, 2009-01-01 The book can be seen as a welcomed contribution to this field of study it raises some important questions and problems of scientific mobility

Henni Kals Hansen Papers in Regional Science This is a very timely book looking at East West migration which has recently become a hot political issue in various West European countries It does an excellent job in laying out the intricacies of mobility that affect different groups particularly knowledge migrants The book successfully shows that knowledge migrants follow different motivational routes than other groups of migrants in their choice of mobility between institutes and nations It makes a valuable contribution to a growing body of research that seeks to change established thinking and rhetoric about migration and to shift it from a dualistic thinking of migration in terms of economic vs non economic migrants What this book shows is that the professional identity of people often supersedes their nationalities in relation to why and where they move Sami Mahroum NESTA UK Based on excellent empirical research on migrating scientists from Poland and Bulgaria to the UK and Germany this book follows an innovative agenda which is crucial to the world today the movement of people and the movement of knowledge It achieves this by a creative blend of analysing personal stories embedded in their professional and family networks on the one hand and macro scale discussions of brain drain brain gain and national and European policy implications on the other Russell King University of Sussex UK This book makes a timely contribution to understanding the circulation of scientific knowledge via international mobility It skillfully combines an analysis of structural and institutional changes with a focus on individual circumstances life courses and motivations The outcome is a compelling account of the role of international migration in the transfer of knowledge across borders and in shaping the careers of individual scientists This places people and human mobility at the heart of the debate about how the knowledge economy is produced and reproduced Allan Williams London Metropolitan University UK Moving People and Knowledge provides a fresh examination of the processes of highly skilled science migration Focusing on intra European mobility and in particular on the new dynamics of East West migration the authors investigate the movement of Polish and Bulgarian researchers to and from the UK and Germany Key questions include who is moving how long for and why In addressing the motivations and experiences of mobile scientists and their families insights into professional and personal motivations are provided demonstrating how relationships networks and infrastructures shape decision making This book provides a useful perspective on the implications of increasing researcher mobility for both sending and receiving regions and the individuals concerned which is necessary for the construction of future policies on sustainable scientific development This empirical account provides a nuanced analysis of the duration and flow of scientific mobility showing the prevalence of repeat and shuttle moves in science careers It will be of particular interest to researchers in European social policy migration studies and EU law as well as policymakers in the field of highly skilled migration especially those working on the free movement of persons provisions and the European Research Area and European Area of Higher Education Global Migration and Education Leah Adams, Anna Kirova, 2007 Global Migration and Education makes a notable contribution to understanding the issues faced by immigrant children their parents and educators as they interact in school settings and to identifying the common challenges to and successes in educational institutions worldwide as they cope with these issues Global in scope there are chapters from 14 countries It will help educators and others involved in these complex processes to see beyond the notion of problems created and experienced by recently arrived young children Rather this volume provides many concrete suggestions deriving from the success stories and voices of teachers parents and students It also offers evidence that diversity can be a condition for learning that when understood embraced and supported leads to rich learning opportunities for all involved that would not exist without diversity All of the authors offer recommendations about educational policy and practices to address and ultimately improve the education of all children including immigrant children The book is organized around five themes Multiple Global Issues for Immigrant Children and the Schools They Attend They Are Here Newcomers in the Schools Views and Voices of Immigrant Children Far from Home With Fluctuating Hopes and Searching for New Ways to Belong Intended for researchers students school professionals and educational policymakers and analysts around the world in the fields of multicultural

Taran, European Committee on Migration, 2009-01-01 In the final declaration of their 8th conference the European ministers responsible for migration affairs committed to promoting and protecting the human rights of migrants with special attention to gender equality and the rights of women to strengthening dialogue and co operation between receiving transit and origin countries particularly within Europe and to promoting coherence at all levels international national regional and local between migration development and integration policies The ministers also agreed to manage economic migration with a view to promoting economic and social progress in receiving transit and origin countries to enhance social cohesion by improving the integration of migrants and persons of immigrant background and the re integration of migrants who return to their countries of origin and to strengthen the contribution of migrants and persons of immigrant background to development in receiving and origin countries and their involvement in co development programmes This report was prepared to support the ministerial debate during the conference It presents the main aspects and characteristics of migration in the member states of the Council of Europe analyses policy challenges raised by contemporary migration and identifies an integrated policy agenda Irregular Migration And Human Rights Barbara Bogusz, 2004-01-01 This collection of essays is the outcome of an international conference on Irregular Migration and Human Rights which gathered together prominent scholars policy makers and practitioners working in the migration and human rights field The objective of the book in contrast to the prevailing political approach which focuses almost solely on prevention is to discuss the human rights dimensions of irregular migration from theoretical European and international perspectives Gender and Migration in 21st Century Europe Samantha Currie, 2016-04-15 Providing interdisciplinary and empirically grounded insights into the issues surrounding gender and migration into and within Europe this work presents a comprehensive and critical overview of the historical legal policy and cultural framework underpinning different types of European migration Analysing the impact of migration on women's careers the impact of migration on family life and gender perspectives on forced migration the authors also examine the consequences of EU enlargement for women's migration opportunities and practices as well as the impact of new regulatory mechanisms at EU level in addressing issues of forced migration and cross national family breakdown Recent interdisciplinary research also offers a new insight into the issue of skilled migration and the gendering of previously male dominated sectors of the labour market The Transnational Family Deborah Bryceson, Ulla Vuorela, 2020-12-16 Migrant networks in the form of families associational ties and social organizations stretch across the globe connecting cultures and bridging national boundaries The effects of this global networking are vast This book is the first to stand back and explore the impact Families living outside of their original national boundaries have had and continue to have a profound influence over the flow of people goods money and information More in depth perspectives reveal how immigrants face troubling issues of cultural identity economic change political uncertainty and social welfare From an examination of nineteenth century transnational families emigrating from Europe to the Ghanaian Pentecostal diaspora in Europe today this book combines broadly based analysis with more unusual case studies to reveal the complexities that immigrants and refugees must contend with in their daily lives What are the experiences of migrant Turkish women living in Germany In what ways has religion been hybridized amongst West African Muslim migrants in Paris What are the gender relations and transnational ties amongst Bosnian refugees Never has such a topic been more relevant Problems relating to immigrants and refugees situations in their adopted countries continue to grow This book wide ranging in its geographical and thematic scope is a highly important and timely addition to debates on transnational families immigrants and refugees European

Citizenship through the Lens of EU Values Gaëlle Marti, 2025-03-14 Is EU citizenship compatible with European values In the wake of the Convention on the Future of Europe and against the backdrop of the many challenges facing the EU security economic migration health climate digital etc this book aims to take stock of the scope and content of European citizenship and its capacity to embody the values of the Union Seen as the culmination of a political project EU citizenship is also regularly criticised as a mere market citizenship whose rights only benefit the mobile and wealthy The first part of the book therefore focuses on assessing the values of the Union in the light of European citizenship with an emphasis on dignity equality democracy and respect for human rights while the second part analyses the ways in which European citizenship can truly embody the values of the Union The aim is to rethink the Union's capacity to ensure the effective dissemination of the values underlying the European social contract and to anchor them in a democratic project underpinned by European
