The Shifting Balance of World Forces 1898-1945, 1968 The Shifting Balance of World Forces, 1898-1945 Mowat C. W., 1968 The New Cambridge Modern History: Volume 12, The Shifting Balance of World Forces, 1898-1945 C. L. Mowat, 1968-11-01 This volume of the The New Cambridge Modern History examines the shifting balance of world forces from 1898 to 1945 A History of the World from the 20th to the 21st Century John Ashley Soames Grenville, 2005 Provides a comprehensive survey of the key events and personalities of this period The New Cambridge Modern History Charles Loch Mowat, 1968 The Shifting Balance of World Forces, 1898-1945. A Second Edition of ... "The Era of Violence". Edited by C.L. Mowat Charles Loch MOWAT, 1968 The New Cambridge Modern History, 1980 The New Cambridge Modern History, 1962 The new Cambridge modern history: The shifting balance of world forces 1898-1945, ed. by C.L. Mowat, 1967 Europe 1880-1945 J.M. Roberts, 2013-09-13 Suitable for 19th and 20th century Europe modern Europe undergraduate courses This well established and immensely successful book provides a standard introduction to the subject by one of Britain's most popular historians Social economic and social history are skillfully integrated within a framework of political narrative history World Political Systems after Polarity Nerses Kopalyan, 2017-06-14 What will the current global political order look like when American unipolarity ends Historically the power configurations of world political systems have been defined by four structures multipolarity tripolarity bipolarity and unipolarity These concepts inform both the formulation and the analysis of short term policies and long term grand strategies of powerful actors in the world political order and may be of profound importance to the future peace and stability of the global system The concept of nonpolarity however has never been addressed as a possible or a potential structural formulation in the nomenclature of global political systems This book provides a coherent conceptualization of nonpolarity and how diplomacy will operate in a more collective age and fits into the ongoing discussion about the nature of the political world order as we approach the end of the American century The New Cambridge Modern History: Volume 3, Counter-Reformation and Price Revolution, 1559-1610 R. B. Wernham, 1957 This volume examines the period of history which looks at counter reformation and the price revolution 1559 1610 Failed Imagination? Andrew J. Williams, 1998 Francisco Gomez de Sandoval Duke of Lerma 1553 1625 is the last major unknown statesman in modern European history Patrick Williams brings him dramatically to life and challenges the assumptions that historians have made about him and about Spanish history at a time of profound crisis inviting a re evaluation of the phenomenon of government by favourites in this seminal period of European history Lerma served Philip III as his favourite and first minister between 1598 and 1618 His power dazzled contemporaries one petitioner telling Philip that he had come to see him because I could not get an appointment with the Duke of Lerma Within a decade of assuming office Lerma had raised his family from humiliating poverty to great riches and was the greatest patron of the arts in Europe His use of power provoked intense debate about the nature of corruption in government Yet Lerma remained deeply ambivalent about his position Determined to follow family tradition and retire into religious life to secure the salvation of his soul he secured a cardinalate in 1617 ending his life as a prince of the Church

Air Power and the Evacuation of Dunkirk Harry Raffal,2021-07-15 The evacuation of Dunkirk has been immortalised in books prints and films narrated as a story of an outnumbered inexperienced RAF defeating the battle hardened Luftwaffe and protecting the evacuation This book revives the historiography by analysing the air operations during the evacuation Raffal draws from German and English sources many for the first time in the context of Operation DYNAMO to argue that both sides suffered a defeat over Dunkirk This work examines the resources and tactics of both sides during DYNAMO and challenges the traditional view that the Luftwaffe held the advantage The success that the Luftwaffe achieved during DYNAMO including halting daylight evacuations on 1 June is evaluated and the supporting role of RAF Bomber and Coastal Command is explored in detail for the first time Concluding that the RAF was not responsible for the Luftwaffe's failure to prevent the evacuation Raffal demonstrates that the reasons lay elsewhere

Positional Realism Wei Song,2022-11-30 This book adopts the rationalist research path to bring forward an innovative theory of foreign policy and the central question is How can we define the overall national interests of great powers appropriately and thus help states make consistent and rational grand strategies The answer can't be found among existing Foreign Policy Analysis and other theoretical research In this book Positional Realism is proposed as a new theory to define the overall national interests from the power position and order position perspectives and specify the four kinds of positional interests of hegemonic states contending states potential contending states and non contending states Different great powers have different positional power and order objectives Based on these positional interests Positional Realism brings different foreign policy hypotheses and suggestions The book also examines the six great powers in the nineteenth century to verify these hypotheses and finds that Positional Realism can not only convincingly explain the success or failure of their acts but also give useful and important directions for strategy making of great powers

The Rise of Global Powers Anthony D'Agostino,2011-11-17 Does a system of great powers necessarily imply a struggle for world primacy Do great states merely hold onto what is theirs or do they reach for more Anthony D Agostino offers a fascinating new answer to these questions through a fundamental reassessment of the international history of the first half of the twentieth century From the spatial limits of a purely European great power politics the book looks out to the new horizon of world politics From the time limits of 1914 to 1945 it considers the interface with nineteenth century imperialism at one end and the impact of the world wars on the Cold War at the other This is a global retelling of the expansion of Europe coming up against its limits in the most violent conflicts and explosive social movements yet known to history the two world wars the Great Depression and the Russian and Chinese revolutions

Osthandel and Ostpolitik Robert Mark Spaulding,1997-06-01 Eclipsed by the scope of the Atlantic economy obscured by Anglo German rivalry and nearly destroyed by the post 1945 division of Europe the flow of goods across East

Central Europe has been nonetheless an immensely significant pattern of European economic exchange For Germany the Osthandel Eastern trade was both a blessing and a curse its bounty provided much of the raw material for the rise of German economic and political power in Europe while its lure tantalized German ambitions to the point of madness Despite the enduring importance of this commerce no monograph has yet made this pattern of trade the centerpiece of its treatment of German East European relations This study puts this important pattern of German East European trade into the center of discussion and views an extended period of German foreign policy toward Eastern Europe through this lens The Landings at Suvla Bay, 1915 Michael J. Mortlock, 2015-03-21 This work is an extensive analysis of the 1915 British landing at Suvla Bay one of the most mismanaged and ineffective operations of World War I Chapters examine the events that led to the landings on the Gallipoli peninsula provide a comprehensive report on the landings themselves and analyze the events and decisions contributing to their failure Appendices provide first hand accounts of the landings from period news articles military documents and personal correspondence China and the Great War Guoqi Xu, 2005-02-24 Publisher Description
