Avery, 2016-02-09 The Chinese Dream: China, I Love You is an omnibus edition with three short novels and a short story all about love featuring a Canadian doctor who changes his name to Bethune and goes to China taking a cure for cancer with him to make millions going against the mainstream Western medication establishment and saving millions while making millions. World Literature and Dissent Lorna Burns, Katie Muth, 2019-08-08 World Literature and Dissent reconsiders the role of dissent in contemporary global literature. Bringing together scholars of world and postcolonial literatures, the contributors explore the aesthetics of resistance through concepts including the epistemology of ignorance, the rhetoric of innocence, the subversion of paying attention, and the radical potential of everydayness. Addressing a broad range of examples from the Maghrebian humanist Ibn Khaldun to India's Facebook poets and examining writers such as Langston Hughes, Ben Okri, Sara Uribe, and Merle Collins, this highly relevant book reframes the field of world literature in relation to dissenting politics and aesthetic. It asks the urgent question: how critical practice might cultivate radical thought further social justice and value human expression. The New Human in Literature Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2013-09-26 Twentieth-century literature changed understandings of what it meant to be human. Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, in this historical overview, presents a record of literature's changing ideas of mankind, questioning the degree to which literature records and creates visions of the new human. Grounded in the theory of Niklas Luhmann and drawing on canonical works, Thomsen uses literary changes in the mind, body, and society to define the new human. He begins with the modernist minds of Virginia Woolf, Williams, Carlos Williams, and Louis Ferdinand Celine, discusses the society-changing concepts envisioned by Chinua Achebe, Mo Yan, and Orhan Pamuk. He concludes with science fiction, discussing Don DeLillo and Michel Houellebecq's ideas of revolutionizing man through biotechnology. This is a study about imagination, aesthetics, and ethics that demonstrates literature's capacity to not only imagine the future but portray the conflicting desires between individual and various collectives better than any other media. A study that heightens reflections on human evolution and posthumanism. A Subversive Voice in China Shelley W. Chan, 2010 China's Transformations Lionel M. Jensen, Timothy B.

Weston, 2006-12-21 This successor volume to China beyond the Headlines takes the reader even farther beyond the front stage to explore a China few Westerners have seen. The contributors argue that the great gap between what specialists understand and the general public believes has led to distorted and potentially dangerous misunderstandings of the most powerful emerging player on the global stage. Seeking to bridge that gap, a group of prominent scholars, journalists, and activists challenge readers to move past the typical images of China presented by the media and to think about the common problems shared by China and the United States In an entirely new set of essays they explore such critical issues as environmental degradation nationalism unemployment film and literature news reporting the Internet sex tourism and the costs of the economic boom to vividly portray the complexity of life in contemporary China and how surprisingly often it speaks to the American experience Contributions by Bei Dao Susan D Blum Timothy Cheek Martin Fackler John Gittings Howard Goldblatt Peter Hays Gries Sandra Teresa Hyde Lionel M Jensen Tong Lam Sylvia Li chun Lin Jonathan Noble Tim Oakes David Ownby Judith Shapiro Timothy B Weston and Xiao Qiang     Magical Realism and Literature Christopher Warnes, Kim Anderson Sasser, 2020-11-12 Magical realism can lay claim to being one of most recognizable genres of prose writing It mingles the probable and improbable the real and the fantastic and it provided the late twentieth century novel with an infusion of creative energy in Latin America Africa Asia and beyond Writers such as Alejo Carpentier Gabriel Garc a M rquez Isabel Allende Salman Rushdie Ben Okri and many others harnessed the resources of narrative realism to the representation of folklore belief and fantasy This book sheds new light on magical realism exploring in detail its global origins and development It offers new perspectives of the history of the ideas behind this literary tradition including magic realism otherness primitivism ethnography indigeneity and space and time     Economy, Emotion, and Ethics in Chinese Cinema David Leiwei Li, 2016-02-05 The First and Second Comings of capitalism are conceptual shorthands used to capture the radical changes in global geopolitics from the Opium War to the end of the Cold War and beyond Centring the role of capitalism in the Chinese everyday the framework can be employed to comprehend contemporary Chinese culture in general and as in this study Chinese cinema in particular This book investigates major Chinese language films from mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong in order to unpack a hyper compressed capitalist modernity with distinctive Chinese characteristics As a dialogue between the film genre as a mediation of microscopic social life and the narrative of economic development as a macroscopic political abstraction it engages the two otherwise remotely related worlds illustrating how the State and the Subject are reconstituted cinematically in late capitalism A deeply cultural determinedly historical and deliberately interdisciplinary study it approaches culture anthropologically as a way of life emanating from the everyday and aesthetically as imaginative forms and creative expressions Economy Emotion and Ethics in Chinese Cinema will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese cinema cultural studies Asian studies and interdisciplinary studies of politics and culture     Screen World 2003 John Willis, 2004-02-01 Screen World Movie fans eagerly await each year s new edition of Screen World the definitive record of the cinema since 1949 Volume 54 provides an illustrated listing of every American and foreign film released in the United States in 2002 all documented with more than 1000 photographs The 2003 edition of Screen World features such notable films as Chicago the Academy Award winner for Best Picture Martin Scorsese s Academy Award nominated Gangs of New York The Pianist featuring the surprise Academy Award winners Adrien Brody for Best Actor and
