Jackson Rushing,Kristin Makhholm,2013-08-08 The work of

Chippewa artist George Morrison 1919-2000 has enjoyed widespread critical acclaim. His paintings, drawings, prints, and sculptures have been displayed in numerous public and private exhibitions, and he is one of Minnesota's most cherished artists. Yet because Morrison's artwork typically does not include overt references to his Indian heritage, it has stirred debate about what it means to be a Native American artist. This stunning catalogue featuring 130 color and black and white images showcases Morrison's work across a spectrum of genres and media while also exploring the artist's identity as a modernist within the broader context of twentieth-century American and Native American art. Born and raised near the Grand Portage Indian Reservation in Minnesota, Morrison graduated from the Minnesota School of Art and the Art Students League in New York City. He spent his early career mainly on the East Coast, becoming one of the first Native American artists to exhibit his work extensively in New York. Best known for his landscape paintings and wood collages, he employed a variety of media: paint, wood, ink, and metal, paper, and canvas, and developed a unique style that combined elements of cubism, surrealism, and abstract expressionism. In her foreword to Modern Spirit, Cherokee artist Kay WalkingStick describes her personal association with Morrison and admiration for his authentic artistic vision. Kristin Makhholm, in her introduction to the volume, explores Morrison's ties to Minnesota and his legacy within the history of Minnesota art and culture. Then, drawing on extensive primary research and Morrison's own writings, W. Jackson Rushing III offers an in-depth analysis of Morrison's artistic evolution against the backdrop of evolving definitions of Indianness. By expanding our understanding of Morrison's singular vision, Modern Spirit invites readers to appreciate more deeply the beauty and complexity of his art.

Witch of the Midnight Blade: The Complete Series Kris Austen Radcliffe, 2019-07-25

Part One: You know what brings people's secrets to the surface? The end of the world. A blister opened in the sky, and now death rains down onto the Earth. No one expected the oldsters living at Paradise Homes to respond in any way, not me, and certainly not any of the other staff. But it turned out we're a home for retired super-beings, and now the only thing standing between me and a demon is a not-so-little old man and an old lady who speaks to Russian ghosts. For some weird reason, they think I'm going to save the world. When a second blister opens and floods Paradise Homes with hellhounds, we have no choice but to fight back. Now, to survive the hounds, so I can stop the apocalypse.

Part Two: I thought I had the end of the world under control. Closing the reality blister at Paradise Homes should have granted me a moment to breathe. No more hellhounds came through. We were somewhat safe. Finding our ghost's ring should have been a breeze. I didn't count on the super-soldiers. Or Nax's illness. Or that my sword's guiding voices might be something utterly malicious.

Part Three: I thought I'd reached pinnacle bad with the gaslighting spaceship. I was wrong. Multiverse level wrong. The Fate Progenitor stole my Midnight Blade. Then he stole Nax and Leif. And now that horrid ship, all the equally horrid human factions vying for control, and the terrifying dragons who invaded our planet, they all want mouthfuls of my mind. My body. My soul. Thing is, someone has to save the world. How much can I take before my psyche bleeds out? I was supposed to stop the apocalypse. I was supposed to be a hero. But sometimes we're only
