Live the Light Larry Davies, 2007-03

Infancy to IC Theophilus Huang, 2025-08-04 Congratulations to us we are now parents Just like many others before us we scour the Internet and bookshops hoping to find a guide that can tell us how to be good parents Well at the very least we should avoid messing up our parental duties There is a problem we are based in Singapore While this is a great place to live and work it's quite a different story for the kids Singapore has been consistently ranked among the top countries in the world by the OECD's Program for International Student Assessment PISA for some time. If parenting is difficult enough as it is, imagine doing it in a country with the smartest kids in the world, which is what PISA is telling us. This book describes our journey as parents in Singapore from infancy to pre-school to the Gifted Education Program to Raffles Institution to getting offers from top universities: Imperial College, University College NUS, College Nanyang Technological University, Waseda University, among others. It is my hope that this journey will provide a guideline to other parents so that they can do the same or better.

The Little Engine That Could Easy to Read Watty Piper, 1998-07. Based on Piper's original story, this board book tells the story of how the Little Engine That Could helps all the friends and neighbors she meets as she chugs through town. Shaped like the engine herself, this large board book is ideal for little hands. Full color.

Inside Coma Pierre Morin M.D., Gary Reiss Ph.D., 2010-07-15. Offering a new view and a fascinating understanding of coma states, this hope-filled work explains technology-driven insights and describes practices with which family members and caregivers can help promote recovery. Exciting scientific discoveries are validating what coma therapists Dr. Pierre Morin and Dr. Gary Reiss have been teaching for years: that coma patients' awareness is both detailed and complex, and their chances of significant recovery are much greater than previously thought. Inside Coma: A New View of Awareness, Healing, and Hope describes practical, body-centered ways of communicating with coma patients, showing family members and caregivers how to enter the patient's inner world of experience to engage their will and power to heal. Advocating for a new ethical sensitivity that gives patients in remote and comatose states a right to exist, the authors explain the newest developments in the cutting-edge treatment of coma patients through a mind-body approach to medicine and healing, placing these developments in the context of the changing field of consciousness studies. They teach, challenge, and inspire readers to a new level of understanding, compassion, and intervention, offering basic tools with which health care professionals and family members alike can begin this remarkably effective work.

Celebrating Art Debbie Trulson, Darrel Trulson, 1994. Kindergarten students will develop basic art skills as they complete this workbook. Each action-filled workbook presents arts/crafts activities that include complete instruction for the teacher. Grade K. Zell Richard Hyatt, 1997. Hope Arkansas gave us Bill Clinton, but Zell Miller gave Georgia both hope and HOPE: a scholarship program he established. According to journalist Hyatt, Columbus Ledger Enquirer, Hyatt traces Governor Miller's career from mountain boy, Marine history professor to memorable Give 'em hell Zell keynote speaker at the 1992 Democratic Convention. Includes selected speeches and black and white photos.

Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc., Portland, OR. Motivation Lambert Deckers, 2018-01-29. This textbook provides a complete overview of motivation and emotion using an overarching organizational scheme of how biological, psychological, and environmental sources become motivation, the inducement of behavior, feelings, and cognition. It combines classic studies with current research and uses numerous real-world examples to engage the student and make often difficult theoretical concepts come to life. By understanding and applying the principles of motivation described in the text, students will not only discover insights into what motivates their own behavior but also how to instigate self change Thoroughly revised and updated throughout this fifth edition provides a major review of recent research with over 225 new references including expansion in the areas of goal motivation and emotion psychology Other updated topics include new findings and interpretations on how evolution affects our preferences how personality traits determine motivation and how self control depends on a cost benefit analysis The addition of individual chapter glossaries and an increased number of links to additional resources supplement student learning This textbook is suitable as a primary text for courses on motivation For additional resources please consult the companion website at www.routledge.com/cw/deckers
