Shipping And Ports In The Twenty First Century:

Shipping and Ports in the Twenty-first Century David Pinder, Brian Slack, 2004-05-20 Shipping and port systems are vital to societies and lifestyles around the world In the late twentieth century however assumptions concerning the robustness of these systems were severely shaken by economic shocks triggered by oil crises This volume explores how many of the consequent uncertainties have been resolved and how adapted systems have been shaped to meet the challenges of the new millennium To explore these issues contributors focus on issues such as economic integration of emerging economies in particular China sectors as diverse as the high speed ferry and offshore oil industries pollution problems generated by shipping Contributors investigations such as those into the homogenisation of the container industry and the port cluster concept and model vessels for the offshore oil industry make for a rewarding book that will be of interest to academics working in many fields including transport studies marine and coastal studies and economic geography Professional organizations and policy makers will also appreciate the book

Moving People, Goods and Information in the 21st Century Richard Hanley, 2004-08-02 Globalisation and technological innovation have changed the way people goods and information move through and about cities To remain or become economically and environmentally sustainable cities and their regions must adapt to these changes by creating cutting edge infrastructures that integrate advanced technologies communications and multiple modes of transportation The book defines cutting edge infrastructures details their importance to cities and their regions and addresses the obstacles to creating those infrastructures

Utilities Reform in Twenty-First Century Australia Malcolm Abbott, Bruce Cohen, 2021-07-01 Utilities Reform in 21st Century Australia Providing the Essentials traces the development and consequences of the economic reform measures undertaken in the utilities sector in Australia communications energy water wastewater services and transport in the last years of the 20th century and early decades of the 21st century In doing so it looks at the process of reform across industries and across the state and federal jurisdictions to identify what motivations the various governments had for pursuing reform how change varied across jurisdictions and what issues arose in the process Although by the mid 1990s all states and territories and the Australian Government were committed to reforming utilities as part of the National Competition Policy not all pursued this reform with the same degree of speed and breadth of action The broad trends of economic reform in Australia and abroad are also touched upon to provide an outline of the wider context in which the reform of the utilities occurred This book therefore explores the relationship between politics and society on the one hand and economic reform on the other as well on as the efforts of governments in Australia to promote economic growth and the wealth of Australians in an increasingly complex and challenging global economic climate      Shipping and Ports in the Twenty-first Century ,2004

Russia's Arctic Policy in the Twenty-First Century Maria L. Lagutina,2019-02-07 This book is devoted to the analysis of all aspects of the current Arctic policy of Russia the main strategic interests of Russia and the basics of the current Russian Policy in the region taking into account new global trends This monograph ambitions to compile in one comprehensive study domestic and international aspects of modern Russian Arctic policy based mainly on Russian sources that allowed the author to reveal the specifics of Russian approach to modern Arctic issues It raises a set of important research questions What are the main interests of Russia in the modern Arctic What areas are the priorities in the Russian Arctic policy Who governs the Russian Arctic How are decisions on the Arctic made in Russia What kind of problems is faced the Russian Arctic in global epoch How do bilateral and multilateral relations between Russia and other Arctic states impact regional developments in the Arctic How is Russia dealing with non Arctic states and non state Arctic actors How are Russia s domestic and foreign policy in the Arctic interrelated How is Russia s Arctic policy likely to evolve in the future in a changing global context The book argues that nowadays the Arctic vector is one of the main priorities for Russia s domestic and foreign policies and undoubtedly Russia s future is connected with development of the Arctic a region occupying a large part of the country s territory On the one hand the main purpose of the current Arctic policy of Russia is the re development and modernization of the Arctic zone of the Russian Federation AZRF after the period of following the breakup of the USSR that was detrimental to the Russian Arctic policies Moreover today the re development of the Arctic is the most important prerequisite of the restoration of Russia s great power status On the other hand it is obvious that current Russia s Arctic strategy should be duly adapted to the new global realities not only the ones formed in the wake of the breakup of the USSR and the end of the Cold War but also to the latest developments as globalization      Future Challenges for the Port and Shipping Sector
