Shirley Baker And The King Of Tonga The Pasifika Library:

Shirley Baker and the King of Tonga Noel Rutherford, 1996-06-01 Of all the Pacific nations only Tonga has retained a complete and lasting political independence Find out how the shrewd determined King of Tonga Tupou I teamed up with Wesleyan missionary and opportunist Shirley Baker to bring this about Shirley Baker and the King of Tonga Noel Leprosy and Stigma in the South Pacific Dorothy McMenamin, 2011-10-10 The long lasting effects of leprosy are still evident in various parts of the world This book details the personal experiences of people in Fiji New Caledonia Samoa Tonga and Vanuatu the majority of whom contracted leprosy as children It recounts how the victims were subject to prolonged isolation in various leprosaria as the first effective cure for leprosy only became available after 1949 Oral histories are utilized and verbatim extracts demonstrate the level of stigma experienced by these young people Topics covered include the exact nature of the diagnosis removal from one s family the experience of isolation and the reaction of family and villages upon the individual s return to community life Telling Pacific Lives Vicki Luker, Brij V. Lal, 2008-06-01 This volume of essays is an exploration of the way in which scholars from different disciplines standpoints and theoretical orientations attempt to write life stories in the Pacific It is the product of a conference organised by the Division of Pacific and Asian History at The Australian National University in December 2005 The aim of the conference was to explore ways in which Pacific lives are read and constructed through a variety of media films fiction faction history under four overarching themes The first Framing Lives sought to explore various ways of constructing a life from a classic western perspective of birth formation experiences and death of an individual to other ways for example life as secondary to a longer genealogical entity life as a symbol of collective experience individual lives captured and fragmented in a mosaic of others lives made meaningful by their implication in a particular historical or cultural web the underlying values and world views that inform one or another approach to framing a life The second theme the Stuff of Life looked at materials methods and collaborative arrangements with which the biographer autobiographer and recorder work their objectives constraints inspirations challenges and tricks The third section Story Lines focused on formats and genres such as edited diaries collections of writings voice recordings genres of biography autobiography truth and fiction verse dance novels and the varieties and different advantages of narrative shapes that crystallise the telling of a life The final section Telling Lives Changing Lives focused on biography autobiography and the consciousness of identity history purpose lives as witness and windows telling lives as change for those involved in the tale the telling the listening The overall aim was to bring out both the generic or universal challenges of telling lives as well as to highlight the particular tendencies and trends in the Pacific Yet these four themes which seemed analytically promising at the outset proved in practice difficult to disentangle from the presentations at the workshop Provided by publisher Paradise Past Robert W. Kirk, 2012-11-07 In the 400 years from Magellan's entrance into Pacific waters to 1920 the lives of the people of the South Pacific were utterly transformed Exotic diseases from Europe and America particularly the worldwide influenza pandemic were deadly for islanders Ardent missionaries changed the belief systems and lives of nearly all Polynesians Aborigines and those Papuans and Melanesians living in areas accessible to westerners By 1920 every island and atoll in the South Seas had been claimed as a colony or protectorate of a power such as Britain France or the United States Factors aiding this imperial sweep included European outposts such as Sydney advances in maritime technology the work of missionaries a desire to profit from the area's relatively sparse resources and international rivalry that led to the scramble for colonies The coming of westerners as this book points out was not entirely negative as head hunting cannibalism chronic warfare human sacrifice and other practices were diminished but whole cultures were irreversibly changed or even eradicated Gentle People: Into the Heart of Vava'u, Kingdom of Tonga: 1781-1973 Donna Gerstle, 1973 This book is written for Tongans and any other curious beings who are interested in what people history have said about Vava u from the accounts of early explorations up through present day thoughts Far from presuming to be a complete history or scholarly analysis of Vava u this is merely a compilation of the observations of some explorers missionaries whalers traders and others who went there and then recorded their impressions Ocean Damon Salesa, 2023-11-01 The Pacific's Indigenous times are not just smaller sections of larger histories but dimensions of their own Histories of our Pacific world are richly rendered in these essays by Damon Salesa From the first Indigenous civilisations that flourished in Oceania to the colonial encounters of the nineteenth century and on to the complex contemporary relationships between New Zealand and the Pacific Salesa offers new perspectives on this vast ocean its people its cultures its pasts and its future Spanning a wide range of topics from race and migration to Pacific studies and empire these essays demonstrate Salesa's remarkable scholarship Bridging the gap between academic disciplines and cultural traditions Salesa locates Pacific peoples always at the centre of their stories An Indigenous Ocean is a pivotal contribution to understanding the history and culture of Oceania New Zealand Books in Print ,1999 Library of The Journal of the Polynesian Society Polynesian Society (N.Z.), 1981 Vols Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1976 for 1892 1941 contain the transactions and proceedings of the society Tonga Martin Daly,2009-02-04 Praise for the first edition Tonga is unique among bibliographies in its perception and understanding and in its affection for Tonga and its people Daly's work stands on exceptionally sound foundations His summaries are excellent indeed but Daly writes always with the authority of first hand knowledge with a keen eye for the essential and the ability to interpret and clarify obscurities A trustworthy introduction to Tonga in all its diversity a splendid point de d part for all layman or scholar needing a reliable guide to the essential literature about this remarkable Polynesian kingdom Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies The book is so arranged that it is easy to locate any of the items listed I found myself spending pleasant hours perusing Daly's comments on the different publications I hope the rumor of a second revised edition of this bibliography is true Journal of the Polynesian Society Tonga is a fascinating and subtle combination of a traditional Polynesian kingdom the only one to survive the impact of colonization in the nineteenth century and remain independent and a thoroughly Christian country This comprehensive bibliography is a selective guide to the most significant and accessible English language books papers and articles on every aspect of the kingdom's history culture arts politics environment and economy It is a much updated and expanded edition of the original version that was published in 1999 as part of the World Bibliographical Series with the addition of more than 200 new entries Each of the approximately 600 described and annotated items is organized under broad subject headings and indexed by author title and subject In addition and new to this edition all known Ph D theses although not annotated are shown within their appropriate subject categories and indexed Also new is a section on the most important Tonga related websites A general introduction describes the Tongan kingdom its history and society and its current situation Tonga A New Bibliography will be an invaluable resource for anyone with a serious interest in Tonga and an indispensable volume for academic libraries reference collections and policy makers focused on the Pacific islands Margaret Hixon, 2000 Queen Salote ascended the throne of Tonga in 1918 at the age of 18 to lead this Pacific nation through the hazards of the 20th century until her death in 1965 This biography paints an intimate portrait of Salote from her childhood through her education and her years as gueen drawing on oral histories personal papers and newspaper accounts Includes black and white historical and personal photographs Hixon has produced a number of works documenting life in traditional communities She was encouraged to write this book by the Tongan royal family Germany in the Pacific and Far East, 1870-1914 John Anthony Moses, Paul M.
