Ferocious Ambition Robert Dance, 2023-10-12 Robert Dance's new evaluation of Joan Crawford looks at her entire career and while not ignoring her early years and tempestuous personal life focuses squarely on her achievements as an actress and as a woman who mastered the studio system with a rare combination of grit determination beauty and talent Crawford's remarkable forty five year motion picture career is one of the industry's longest Signing her first contract in 1925 she was crowned an MGM star four years later and by the mid 1930s was the most popular actress in America In the early 1940s Crawford's risky decision to move to Warner Bros was rewarded with an Oscar for Mildred Pierce This triumph launched a series of film noir classics In her fourth decade she teamed with rival Bette Davis in Whatever Happened to Baby Jane proving that Crawford whose career had begun by defining big screen glamour had matured into a superb dramatic actress Her last film was released in 1970 and two years later she made a final television appearance forty seven years after walking through the MGM gate for the first time Crawford made a successful transition into business during her later years notably in her long association with Pepsi Cola as a board member and the brand's leading ambassador Overlooked in previous biographies has been Crawford's fierce resolve in creating and then maintaining her star persona She let neither her age nor the passing of time block her unrivaled ambition and she continually reimagined herself noting once that for the right part she would play Wally Beery's grandmother But she was always the consummate star and at the time of her death in 1977 she was a motion picture legend and a twentieth century icon

Artifacts from American Fashion Heather Vaughan Lee, 2019-11-22 Clothing and fashion accessories can serve as valuable primary sources for learning about our history This unique book examines daily life in 20th century America through the lens of fashion and clothing This collection explores fashion artifacts from daily life to shed light on key aspects of the social life and culture of Americans in the 20th century Artifacts from American Fashion covers forty five essential articles of fashion or accessories chosen to illuminate significant areas of daily life and history including Politics World Events and War Transportation and Technology Home and Work Life Art and Entertainment Health Sport and Leisure and Alternative Cultures Youth Ethnic Queer and Counter Culture Through these artifacts readers can follow the major events social movements cultural shifts and technological developments that shaped our daily life in the U S A World War I soldier's helmet opens a vista onto the horrors of trench warfare during World War I while the dress of a typical 1920's flapper speaks volumes about America women's changing role during Prohibition and the Jazz Age Similarly a homemade feedsack dress illuminates the world of the Great Depression while the bikini ushers us into the Atomic Age Here such artifacts tell the story of twentieth century daily life in America

Teaching fashion. An introduction Romana Andò, 2020 This collection of contributions was created to prove both the complexity of the contemporary fashion system as well as the richness and openness of an interdisciplinary approach to the field that is the same that inspires the Master programme in Fashion Studies at Sapienza University of Rome All the authors either scholars or professionals in their fields are deeply involved in this educational project and they have conceived each contribution as a pedagogic tool for supporting students in better understanding the social cultural economic technological creative environmental aspects of fashion Therefore this collection aimed at providing readers with a kaleidoscopic approach a multitude of voices and perspectives a set of blended methodologies as well as theories that try to address the challenges of the permanent and accelerating transformations of the fashion system To understand the future of fashion we have to foster creative as well as critical thinking working on the knowledge we got from the past and identifying changes in advance in order to be ready and prepared for the challenges that are in front of us
