Shopping For Buddhas:

Shopping for Buddhas Jeff Greenwald, 2014-07-21 Jeff Greenwald's classic travelogue follows his quest for the perfect Buddha statue. At turns hilarious and moving, his quest features a cast of amazing characters from a passionate palmist to a flying lama who provide unforgettable glimpses into the daily life and culture of the former kingdom, including a wild ride on Kathmandu's very first escalator. Greenwald doesn't shy away from Shangri-la's darker side. Along with colorful descriptions of Hindu and Buddhist mythology, the book tells of the rampant corruption, art smuggling, assassination attempts, and human rights abuses that would ignite Nepal's violent People Power Revolution in April 1990. A new afterword by the author recounts Nepal's tumultuous recent history, including the massacre of the royal family in vivid detail. And a new preface introduces this 25th anniversary edition with some thoughts about how Nepal and travel writing have evolved since the book's first publication. Shopping for Buddhas remains a must read for anyone who has visited or plans to visit Nepal.

A Sense of Place Michael Shapiro, 2009-05-01 In A Sense of Place, journalist, travel writer Michael Shapiro goes on a pilgrimage to visit the world's great travel writers on their home turf to get their views on their careers, the writer's craft, and most importantly, why they chose to live where they do and what that place means to them. The book chronicles a young writer's conversations with his heroes: writers he's read for years who inspired him both to pack his bags to travel and to pick up a pen and write. Michael skillfully coaxes a collective portrait through his interviews, allowing the authors to speak intimately about the writer's life and how place influences their work and perceptions. In each chapter, Michael sets the scene by describing the writer's surroundings, placing the reader squarely in the locale, whether it be Simon Winchester's Massachusetts, Redmond O'Hanlon's London, or Frances Mayes's Tuscany. He then lets the writer speak about life and the world, and through quiet probing, draws out fascinating commentary from these remarkable people. For Michael, it's a dream come true to meet his mentors; for readers, it's an engaging window onto the twin landscapes of great travel writers and the world in which they live      Documentary Across Platforms Patricia R.
