Shopping for God James B. Twitchell, 2007-09-18 Not so long ago religion was a personal matter that was seldom discussed in public No longer Today religion is everywhere from books to movies to television to the internet to say nothing about politics Now religion is marketed and advertised like any other product or service How did this happen And what does it mean for religion and for our culture Just as we shop for goods and services we shop for church A couple of generations ago Americans remained in the faith they were born into Today many Americans change their denomination or religion sometimes several times Churches that know how to appeal to those shopping for God are thriving Think megachurches Churches that don't know how to do this or don't bother are fading away Think mainline Protestant churches Religion is now celebrated and shown off like a fashion accessory We can wear our religious affiliation like a designer logo But says James Twitchell this isn't because Americans are undergoing another Great Awakening rather it's a sign that religion providers that is churches have learned how to market themselves There is more competition among churches than ever in our history Filling the pew is an exercise in salesmanship and as with any marketing campaign it requires establishing a brand identity Successful pastors pastorpreneurs Twitchell calls them know how to speak the language of Madison Avenue as well as the language of the Bible In this witty engaging book Twitchell describes his own experiences trying out different churches to discover who knows how to do church well He takes readers into the land of karaoke Christianity where old style contemplative sedate religion has been transformed into a public interactive event with giant screen televisions generic iconography when there is any at all and ample parking Rarely has America's religious culture been examined so perceptively and so entertainingly Shopping for God does for religion what Fast Food Nation has done for food The Divine Supermarket Malise Ruthven, 1989 British journalist Malise Ruthven set out on a pilgrimage across America to visit places of religious significance He wanted to see how what and why Americans worship He reveals the religious soul of America in a perceptive witty and sometimes frightening study Shopping for God Jesus For Sinners, 2009-08-01 Shopping for Time (Redesign) Carolyn Mahaney, Nicole Mahaney Whitacre, Kristin Chesemore, Janelle Bradshaw, 2021-05-05 Finding Joy and Fulfillment in All God Has Called You To Do Overwhelmed Miserable Exhausted These are the words that women often use to describe their busy lifestyles How can you keep up with all the demands of work family and ministry Carolyn Mahaney and her three daughters offer biblical hope to women who truly desire to glorify God with their time These authors present five key practices to help you see that you really can do all that God has called you to do finding joy peace and rest in the One who has designed every season of your life What If God Wrote Your Shopping List? Jay Payleitner, 2019-09-03 How Do You Spend Your Time and Money Do you think there's no connection between your choices as a consumer and your priorities in life Think again The everyday items you buy or choose not to buy say A LOT about who you are as a person and what's important to you Consider bestselling author Jay Payleitner's creative ideas for purposeful purchases such as A shower curtain of the earth to remind you of God's love for the world Comfort food that evokes memories and connects generations The ubiquitous smartphone and whether you need the latest and greatest model Encounter these and 49 other finds on your way to realizing your shopping list from God isn't about acquiring more material goods but about living a good life filled with faith and wisdom

Shopping Malls and Other Sacred Spaces Jon Pahl, 2008-12-29 Christian historian Sidney Mead has observed In America space has played the part that time has played in older cultures of the world In Shopping Malls and Other Sacred Spaces Jon Pahl examines this provocative statement in conversation with what he calls the spatial character of American theology He argues that places are always imaginatively constructed by the human beings who inhabit them Sometimes this spatial theology works to our benefit other times it poses spiritual risks What happens when our banal clothing of the sacred violates our genuine need for comfort and intimacy Or when we remember that the fleeting pleasures of a shopping trip or a Disneyland escape are designed to fill someone else's pocket rather than the spiritual emptiness in our own hearts Pahl develops several ways to clothe the divine from within the Christian tradition He introduces a theology of place that reveals aspects of God's character through biblical metaphors drawn from physical spaces such as the true vine the rock and the living water Accessible and thought provoking this enlightening book provides a better grasp of our particularly American way of lending religious significance to spaces of all kinds

Doing Life God's Way David L. Beckwith,2011-05

God's Good Economy Andrew Hartropp,2019-08-15 The earth is the Lord s Ps 24 1 God states that He is the rightful owner of the earth and everything in it God wants people to enjoy material things but God must be the centre of our lives Christ s radical call to his followers includes the call to let him drive our economic and business life This means letting God s justice rule all our economic relationships treating people rightly a constant seeking of justice for especially the poor and needy working so that all participate in God s blessings including material blessings In Part 1 Andrew Hartropp looks at how Christ s followers are to do justice in our economic relationships as individuals as households in the workplace and as church communities Then moving outward in concentric circles Part 2 shows how Jesus s disciples can do justice in and through secular institutions including companies and firms banks and other financial institutions then government institutions and then in the international global context The epilogue is on the glorious vision of God s everlasting kingdom which both drives us and also keeps our efforts now in proper perspective

Understanding God's Ways Sylvia Rosa F. Flores,2012-10 This book started as an article I wrote to our local newspaper in 2007 titled What I Believe the newspaper was asking people s to write what they believe at the time I was a member of a church group and I tried to ask the members to write something that they think or believe we should do to better our group Nobody listened to me so I decided to write my own belief in life I sent it and early in 2008 I received a call from the newspaper asking if they could take my picture for the article The editor after reading and editing my work gave the heading Understanding God s Ways and it was published in May 2008 The heading inspired me to continue to help me guide and protect me I hope after reading my story you will be inspired to write what you believe and help you live what you believe
