Short Fiction By Women 4:

Faulkner's Short Fiction James Ferguson,1991 This comprehensive overview of William Faulkner s short fiction is a systematic study of this body of work which Faulkner produced over a period of forty years The author examines Faulkner s struggle to master the special problems posed by the genre The book is organized topically A chronological survey of Faulkner s career as a writer of short fiction is followed by chapters devoted to aspects of Faulkner s craft thematic patterns points of view and other technical and formal patterns The author offers a frank assessment of Faulkner s failures and successes as a writer of short fiction Writing for the Women's Magazines , The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Ramsby,2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Ramsby documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Linguistics and Culture (ICLC-4 2023) Muhammad Hasyim,2024-05-22 This is an open access book Research and teaching activities in the fields of language literature and culture are still being carried out even during the Covid 19 era that hit the world It is undeniable that the results of research and learning of language literature and culture at this time were a bit hindered because most activities were carried out from home During the Covid 19 period which started in early 2020 practically more activities were done at home Likewise institutions during the Covid 19 era were carried out online For example the Language Agency continues to carry out activities but it is carried out online such as online webinars that contribute to the wider community in accordance with the duties and functions of the Language Agency carried out using a hybrid method or completely online Various events are packaged creatively and innovatively to produce a new spirit in speaking Research and teaching of language literature and culture during the Covid 19 period resulted in many amazing innovations and creativity in line with technological developments Covid 19 has inspired many in research on language literature and culture In the field of language you can see research on the language used in Covid 19 such as said cases of suspected respiratory tract infection ODP People Under Monitoring confirmed cases a person who is late known to be infected with Covid 19 etc That s the content Content on YouTube about the use of language is a hot object of research to research In terms of culture the Government is making various efforts to break the chain of the spread of the Covid 19 pandemic in a massive and systematic manner Covid 19 is not only a deadly virus but has a domino effect that is also terrible One of the policies used by the government in preventing and controlling the spread of Covid 19 is implementing the Large Scale Social Restrictions PSBB policy As an investment culture also requires strategies and enablers so that it is able to achieve the target of the happiness and welfare of the Indonesian people This strategy is implemented through providing for a diversity of cultural expressions developing cultural practices utilizing cultural promotion objects accelerating institutional reform and increasing the government s role as a facilitator Teaching issues especially teaching methods of language literature and culture need to be highlighted in terms of IT based innovation and creativity after Covid 19 How especially teaching methods in applying the material Research on learning methods has also been carried out a lot especially methods that focus on students entering the new normal era or the new era after Covid 19 with innovative research and learning of language literature and culture It is interesting to reveal a major event namely the 3rd International Conference on Linguistics and Cultural Studies sponsored by the Faculty of Cultural Sciences Hasanuddin University Makassar Henry James The Shorter Fiction N.H. Reeve,1997-05-13 Eleven essays representing a fresh engagement from a variety of critical positions with the tales and nouvelles of Henry James The collection contains new studies of well known stories such as Daisy Miller and The Aspern Papers and explorations of neglected areas for example James s earliest signed stories from the 1860s and such strikingly individual works as Glasses and The Great Good Place The contributors include several of today s most prominent Jamesians among them Tony Tanner Barbara Hardy Millicent Bell and Adrian Poole The Short Story Ailsa Cox,2009-03-26 Long regarded as an undervalued and marginalised genre the short story is undergoing a renaissance The Short Story celebrates its unique appeal Practitioners and scholars address the issues facing short story criticism in the 21st century Author A L Kennedy shares the pleasures and frustrations of writing the short story in the literary marketplace This is followed by an assessment of recent attempts to promote short story readership in the UK Other contributors look at forms such as the short short and the short story sequence The range of authors discussed includes Martin Amis Anita Desai Salman Rushdie and James Joyce The short story is the most international of genres this is reflected in chapters on Jorge Luis Borges and Italo Calvino and on Japanese short fiction Postcolonial and translation theory are combined with the close reading of specific texts Neglected authors such as the Welsh writer Dorothy Edwards and the colonial figure Frank Swettenham are re evaluated and we also consider genre writing with chapters on crime fiction and Ray Bradbury s Martian Chronicles Integrating theory and practice The Short Story will appeal both to writers and to students of literary criticism Legacies

and Lifespans in Contemporary Women's Writing Gina Wisker, Leanne Bibby, Heidi Yeandle, 2023-07-03 This book examines the connections and conversations between women writers from the twentieth century and the twenty first century The essays consider the ways in which twenty first century women writers look back and respond to their predecessors within the field of contemporary women s writing The book looks back to the foundations of contemporary women s writing and also considers how this category may be defined in future decades We ask how writers and readers have interpreted the contemporary a moving target and an often contentious term especially in light of feminist theory and criticism of the late twentieth century Writing about the relationships between women s writings is an always vital ongoing political project with a rich history These essays argue that establishing and defining the contemporary is for women writers another ongoing political project to which this collection of essays aims in part to contribute

Author and Journalist, 1921 Austerity and Irish Women's Writing and Culture, 1980-2020 Deirdre Flynn, Ciara L. Murphy, 2022-07-18 Austerity and Irish Women s Writing and Culture 1980 2020 focuses on the under represented relationship between austerity and Irish women s writing across the last four decades Taking a wide focus across cultural mediums this collection of essays from leading scholars in Irish studies considers how economic policies impacted on and are represented in Irish women s writing during critical junctures in recent Irish history Through an investigation of cultural production north and south of the border this collection analyses women s writing using a multimediuim approach through four distinct lenses austerity feminism and conflict arts and austerity race and austerity and spaces of austerity This collection asks two questions what sort of cultural output does austerity produce And if the effects of austerity are gendered then what are the gender specific responses to financial insecurity both national and domestic By investigating how austerity is treated in women s writing and culture from 1980 to 2020 this collection provides a much needed analysis of the gendered experience of economic crisis and specifically of Ireland s consistent relationship with cycles of boom and bust Thirteen chapters which focus on fiction drama poetry women s life writing and women s cultural contributions examine these questions This volume takes the reader on a journey across decades and forms as a means of interrogating the growth of the economic divide between the rich and the poor since the 1980s through the voices of Irish women

Resources in Women's Educational Equity, 1979-05 Cultural Criticism in Egyptian Women's Writing Caroline Seymour-Jorn, 2011-12-23 The five influential women writers discussed in Seymour Jorn s timely work Salwa Bakr Nemat el Behairy Radwa Ashour Etidal Osman and Ibtihal Salem all emerged on the literary scene in the late 1970s and early 1980s They came of age at a time when women s writing was attracting critical attention and more venues for publication were opening up This widening platform enabled these writers to develop and mature as cultural critics resulting in the creation of a successful blend of politically and socially committed literature with artistically innovative literary techniques Artfully combining literary analysis with ethnographic research Seymour Jorn explores the ways in which these writers generate new patterns of thinking and talking about women society and social change She describes how the writers conceive of their role as authors particularly as female authors and how they refigure the Arabic language to express themselves as women By examining these authors works and lives Seymour Jorn illuminates the extent to which writing brings women into the public sphere an arena in which they have traditionally had limited access to positions of power and authority
