Native American writers and works as well as writers who concentrate on women s and gay and lesbian issues Literary Research and the American Modernist Era Robert N. Matuozzi,Elizabeth B. Lindsay,2008-07-31 Characterized by its move away from Romanticism and toward mundane every day subjects as well as incorporating such ideas as metanarrative stream of consciousness and disjointed timelines the American Modernist Era was at its heyday during the years 1914 1949 It produced such great authors as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner and F Scott Fitzgerald and memorable works like As I Lay Dying and The Great Gatsby Literary Research and the American Modernist Era offers the scholar and researcher a clear introduction to the best contemporary library resources and practices for researching American modernist writing Graduate students advanced undergraduates researchers and scholars specializing in American modernist writing will improve their information skills and fluency whether in the real or the virtual library Even those lacking access to some of the resources described here can profit from this overview of literary research because it will help them frame questions indicate where to go for answers and demonstrate useful connections between many of the secondary scholarly sources This guide offers a coherent account of how contemporary research skills and resources can complement one another in helping the scholar effectively deal with typical challenges they encounter in their work Women's Utopias in British and American Fiction Nan Bowman Albinski,2019-11-21 Utopian writing offers a fascinating panorama of social visions and the related forms of dystopia and anti utopian satire extend this into the range of social nightmares Originally published in 1988 this comparative study of utopian fiction by British and American women writers demonstrates the continuity of a well established but little known tradition emphasising its range and diversity and providing ample evidence of women s aspirations and documenting the restrictions and exclusions in private and public life that their novels challenge Historically the growth of each national tradition is traced in relation to social and political movements particularly the suffrage movement and contemporary feminism Comparatively the quite different responses of British and American women to what are in many instances the same social problems are examine in the light of changing expectations Definitions of human nature and gender relationships are assessed on a nature culture continuum as a means of understanding this change Women s attitudes to their social and political roles their working lives to sexuality marriage and the family are reflected in their visions of fruitful change and so also is the impact of two world wars socialism and fascism the debate on peaceful uses of nuclear energy and fears of a nuclear holocaust Bibliographic Index ,2010 Index to American Reference Books Annual, 1990-1994 D Aviva Rothschild,1994-07-15 The annuals to which this is the index are cited in Sheehy and BCL3 This five year index gives access to 8771 reviews of references reviewed in ARBA volumes 16 through 20 American Reference Books Annual ARBA is an essential tool not only for libraries but for reference book publishers as well we at Book News would not be without it and is cited in BCL3 Sheehy and Walford This five year cumulative index provides access by subject title and author to reviews of the 9 284 reference works covered in the last five volumes of ARBA In addition to being used to locate reviews the index also serves as an anlytical tool for collection evaluation and development and acquisitions Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Romantic Women Writers Reviewed, Part II vol 4 Ann R Hawkins,Stephanie Eckroth,2020-04-02 This multi volume reset collection will address a significant shortfall in scholarly work offering contemporary reviews of the work of Romantic women writers to a wider audience The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson,1940 Reference Sources for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries Jack O'Gorman,2014-02-25 Focusing on new reference sources published since 2008 and reference titles that have retained their relevance this new edition brings O Gorman s complete and authoritative guide to the best reference sources for small and medium sized academic and public libraries fully up to date Literary Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period Linda L. Stein,Peter J. Lehu,2008-12-12 The American Realism and Naturalism literary period lasted from roughly 1861 to 1914 It was characterized by its response to the political economic and technological changes that transformed the nation during the Civil War and postbellum years Some of the most well known authors in American history wrote during this time including Mark Twain Henry James Edith Wharton Charles W Chesnutt and Upton Sinclair Literary Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period Strategies and Sources will help those interested in researching this era Authors Linda L Stein and Peter J Lehu emphasize research methodology and outline the best practices for the research process paying attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting studies of national literature Each chapter covers a different type of resource general and literary reference books library catalogs print and online bibliographies scholarly journals publishing history sources contemporary journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscript and archival material and websites The book offers a coherent account of how contemporary research skills and resources can complement one another in helping scholars effectively deal with typical challenges they encounter in their work Art and Commerce in the British Short Story, 1880–1950 Dean Baldwin,2015-10-06 The short story was a commercial phenomenon which took off in the late nineteenth century and lasted through to the rise of television and film Baldwin uses a wide variety of sources to show how economic factors helped to dictate how and what a wide variety of authors wrote The Postmodern Short Story Farhat Iftekharrudin,Joseph Boyden,Mary Rohrberger,Jaie Claudet,2003-12-30 Short stories are usually defined in terms of characteristics of modernism in which the story begins in the middle develops according to a truncated plot and ends with an epiphany This approach tends to ignore postmodernism a movement often characterized by a negation of objective reality where plots are seemingly abandoned surfaces are extraordinary and symbols turn inward on themselves This book examines postmodern forms and characteristic themes by analyzing a group of short stories that make use of postmodern narrative strategies including nonfictional fiction gender profiling and death as an image The volume begins with a discussion of the blurred lines between fiction and nonfiction in the short story and imaginative personal essay It then looks at the role of women in works by such authors as Sandra Cisneros Leslie Marmon Silko Joyce Carol Oates and Lorrie Moore This is followed by a section of chapters on postmodern masculinity and short fiction The next section focuses on death as an image and theme in works by Richard Ford Richard Brautigan and James Joyce The final set of chapters considers postmodern short fiction from South Africa and Canada   Feminist Collections ,1993
