Literature. 2nd Edition , A Short History of English Literature Harry Blamires, 2020-09-23 This book guides through some six centuries of English literature beginning with Chaucer's time and goes on to analyse the background interconnections and major achievements of individual writers in each period. It is useful to the student of English literature and to the general reader.

The English Novel, 1700-1740 Robert Letellier, 2003-02-28 The English novel written between 1700 and 1740 remains a comparatively neglected area. In addition to Daniel Defoe whose Robinson Crusoe and Moll Flanders are landmarks in the history of English fiction many other authors were at work. These included such women as Penelope Aubin, Jane Barker, Mary Davys and Eliza Haywood who made a considerable contribution to widening the range of emotional responses in fiction. These authors and many others continued writing in the genres inherited from the previous century such as criminal biographies, the Utopian novel, the science-fictional voyage and the epistolary novel. This annotated bibliography includes entries for these works and for critical materials pertinent to them. The volume first seeks to establish the existing studies of the era along with anthologies. It then provides entries for a wide-ranging selection of works which cover fictional, theoretical, historical, political and cultural topics to provide a comprehensive background to the unfolding and understanding of prose fiction in the early 18th century. This is followed by an alphabetical listing of novels, their editions and any critical material available on each. The next section provides a chronological record of significant and enduring works of fiction composed or translated in this period. The volume concludes with extensive indexes.

English Novel in History, 1895-1920 David Trotter, 2003-10 Written especially for students and assuming no prior knowledge of the subject, this book aims to provide a comprehensive introduction to early 20th-century fiction.

A Short History of Modern English Literature Edmund Gosse, 2011-11-03 Written by well-established critic Edmund Gosse, this 1898 work traces the history of English literature from Chaucer to Tennyson.
