Bulletin of the Osterhout Free Library Osterhout Free Library,1914      A Short History of Ancient Times Philip Van Ness Myers,1906      In the Beginning Joel Hoffman,2004-08-01 Decodes the long history of Hebrew and its influential place as the ancestor of many modern written languages Hebrew as a language is just over 3 000 years old and the story of its alphabet is unique among the languages of the world Hebrew set the stage for almost every modern alphabet and was arguably the first written language simple enough for everyone not just scribes to learn making it possible to make a written record available to the masses for the first time Written language has existed for so many years since around 3500 BCE that most of us take it for granted But as Hoffman reveals in this entertaining and informative work even the idea that speech can be divided into units called words and that these words can be represented with marks on a page had to be discovered As Hoffman points out almost every modern system of writing descends from Hebrew by studying the history of this language we can learn a good deal about how we express ourselves today Hoffman follows and decodes the adventure that is the history of Hebrew illuminating how the written record has survived the significance of the Dead Sea Scrolls and ancient translations and attempts to determine how the language actually sounded He places these developments into a historical context and shows their continuing impact on the modern world This sweeping history traces Hebrew s development as one of the first languages to make use of vowels Hoffman also covers the dramatic story of the rebirth of Hebrew as a modern spoken language Packed with lively information about language and linguistics and history In the Beginning is essential reading for both newcomers and scholars interested in learning more about Hebrew and languages in general      Journal of Theological Studies ,1902      American Jewish Year Book Cyrus Adler,Henrietta Szold,1923 Issues for 1900 01 include report of the 12th year of the Jewish Publication Society of America 1890 1900 issued also separately in some year issues for 1908 09 include Report of the American Jewish Committee for 1906 08 issued also separately in some years      A Short History of Western Civilization John Baugham Harrison,Richard Eugene Sullivan,1960      *History of the Hebrew Commonwealth, Translated from the German of John Jahn, D.D. Edward Wright Associate Professor of Hebrew Bible and Early Judaism University of Arizona,1999-12-13 When we think of heaven we generally conjure up positive blissful images Heaven is after all where God

is and where good people go after death to receive their reward But how and why did Western cultures come to imagine the heavenly realm in such terms Why is heaven usually thought to be up there far beyond the visible sky And what is the source of the idea that the post mortem abode of the righteous is in this heavenly realm with God Seeking to discover the roots of these familiar notions this volume traces the backgrounds origin and development of early Jewish and Christian speculation about the heavenly realm where it is what it looks like and who its inhabitants are Wright begins his study with an examination of the beliefs of ancient Israel s neighbors Egypt and Mesopotamia reconstructing the intellectual context in which the earliest biblical images of heaven arose A detailed analysis of the Hebrew biblical texts themselves then reveals that the Israelites were deeply influenced by images drawn from the surrounding cultures Wright goes on to examine Persian and Greco Roman beliefs thus setting the stage for his consideration of early Jewish and Christian images which he shows to have been formed in the struggle to integrate traditional biblical imagery with the newer Hellenistic ideas about the cosmos In a final chapter Wright offers a brief survey of how later Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions envisioned the heavenly realms Accessible to a wide range of readers this provocative book will interest anyone who is curious about the origins of this extraordinarily pervasive and influential idea

Celebrating the Humanities Michael Nelson, 1996 During the past fifty years most students at Rhodes College formerly Southwestern at Memphis have taken what has come to be known as the Search course a two year twelve hour interdisciplinary study of the ideas beliefs and historical developments that have shaped Western civilization over the past 5 000 years The course grew out of developments in the humanities in the 1940s and has continued to address feminism postmodernism educational technology and other new developments in that intellectually vibrant field ever since
