

Greek Mythology

The Story of Medusa

Once upon a time, in the far-away land of Greece, there lived a beautiful maiden named Medusa. She believed that she was the most beautiful maiden in all of Athens.

One day when she was fetching water for her father, she became so distracted by her reflection that she forgot the water completely!

Medusa, though very beautiful, had few friends. Many would grow tired of her boasting and felt that she might draw the wrath of the gods, should she continue. As they were in Athens, the goddess Athena enjoyed listening in on her people.

"I'm as beautiful as a goddess," said Medusa, one morning to an old woman sitting on a stone bench feeding some birds.
