

An Orientalist painting by Eugène Delacroix, 'The Women of Algiers (Version O)'. The painting depicts a harem scene with two women in the foreground, their faces partially veiled, looking out from their alcoves. The background shows a view of the city of Algiers, with the sea and distant buildings visible. The style is characterized by vibrant colors and dramatic lighting.

The Oriental Mirage, 1997 Multiple Wives, Multiple Pleasures Joan DelPlato, 2002 This is a critical study of French and British art and written texts poetry literature travel accounts art criticism orientalist works about the harem produced in the period from 1800 1875 Original readings are provided for over 150 harem pictures from well known salon paintings to rarely published erotic popular prints and book illustrations Multiple Wives Multiple Pleasures examines these works closely often establishing fresh contexts for many of the more well known nineteenth century harem pictures and often providing a consideration of lesser known harem pictures that have been rarely published until now Orientalism, 1998

Imagining Arab Womanhood A. Jarmakani, 2008-03-31 A fascinating demonstration of how U S representations of veils harems and belly dancers have operated as nostalgic and exotic symbols to help rationalize dominant U S narratives about power and progress A Female Poetics of Empire Julia Kuehn, 2013-10-30 Many well known male writers produced fictions about colonial spaces and discussed the advantages of realism over romance and vice versa in the art of fiction debate of the 1880s but how did female writers contribute to colonial fiction This volume links fictional non fictional and pictorial representations of a colonial otherness with the late nineteenth century artistic concerns about representational conventions and possibilities The author explores these texts and images through the postcolonial framework of exoticism arguing that the epistemological dilemma of a self encountering an other results in the interrelated predicament to find poetic modalities mimetic realistic and documentary on the one hand romantic fantastic and picturesque on the other that befit an exotic representation Thus women writers did not only participate in the making of colonial fictions but also in the late nineteenth century artistic debate about the nature of fiction This book maps the epistemological concerns of exoticism and of difference self and other home and away familiarity and strangeness onto the representational modes of realism and romance The author focuses exclusively on female novelists travel writers and painters of the turn of the century exotic and especially on neglected authors of academically under researched genres such as the bestselling novel and the travelogue All Things Arabia, 2020-11-16 By employing the innovative lenses of thing theory and material culture studies this collection brings together essays focused on the role played by Arabia's things from cultural objects to commodities to historical and ethnographic artifacts to imaginary things in creating an Arabian identity over time The Arabian identity that we convey here comprises both a fabulous Arabia that has haunted the European imagination for the past three hundred years and a real Arabia that has had its unique history culture and traditions outside the Orientalized narratives of the West All Things Arabia

Orientalist Aesthetics Roger Benjamin, 2003-02-03 Lavishly illustrated with exotic images ranging from Renoir's forgotten Algerian oeuvre to the abstract vision of Matisse's Morocco and beyond this book is the first history of Orientalist art during the period of high modernism Roger Benjamin drawing on a decade of research in untapped archives introduces many unfamiliar paintings posters miniatures and panoramas and discovers an art movement closely bound to French colonial expansion Orientalist Aesthetics approaches the visual culture of exoticism by ranging across the decorative arts colonial museums traveling scholarships and art criticism in the Salons of Paris and Algiers Benjamin's rediscovery of the important Society of French Orientalist Painters provides a critical context for understanding a lush body of work including that of indigenous Algerian artists never before discussed in English The painter critic Eugène Fromentin tackled the unfamiliar atmospheric conditions of the desert Etienne Dinet sought a more truthful mode of ethnographic painting by converting to Islam and Mohammed Racim melded the Persian miniature with Western perspective Benjamin considers armchair Orientalists concocting dreams from studio bric à brac naturalists who spent years living in the oases of the Sahara and Fauve and Cubist travelers who transposed the discoveries of the Parisian Salons to create decors of indigenous figures and tropical plants The network that linked these artists with writers and museum curators was influenced by a complex web of tourism rapid travel across the Mediterranean and the march of modernity into a colonized culture Orientalist Aesthetics shows how colonial policy affected aesthetics how Europeans visualized cultural difference and how indigenous artists in turn manipulated Western visual languages

The Cultural Politics of Art in Iran Katrin Nahidi, 2023-09-21 Modernist Iranian art represents a highly diverse field of cultural production deeply involved in discussing questions of modernity and modernization as practiced in Iran This book investigates how artistic production and art criticism reflected upon the discourse about gharbzadegi westoxification the most substantial critique of Iran's adaptation of Western modernity and ultimately proved to be a laboratory for the negotiation of an anti colonial concept of an Iranian artistic modernity which artists and critics envisioned as a significant other to Western colonial modernity In this book Katrin Nahidi revisits Iranian modernist art aiming to explore a political and contextualized interpretation of modernism Based on extensive fieldwork interviews and archival research Nahidi provides a history of modernist art production since the 1950s and reveals the complex political agency underlying art historiographical processes Offering a key contribution to postcolonial art history Nahidi shows how Iranian artistic modernity was used to flesh out anti colonial concepts and ideas around Iranian national identity

Beyond the Frame Deborah Cherry, 2012-11-12 Beyond the Frame rewrites the history of Victorian art to explore the relationships between feminism and visual culture in a period of heady excitement and political struggle Artists were caught up in campaigns for women s enfranchisement education and paid work and many were drawn into controversies about sexuality This richly documented and compelling study considers painting sculpture prints photography embroidery and comic drawings as well as major styles such as Pre Raphaelitism Neo Classicism and Orientalism Drawing on critical theory and post colonial studies to analyse the links between visual media modernity and imperialism Deborah Cherry argues that visual culture and feminism were intimately connected to the relations of power Feminist Postcolonial Theory Reina Lewis,Sara Mills,2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Icons of War and Terror John Tulloch,R. Warwick Blood,2012-07-26 This book explores the ideas of key thinkers and media practitioners who have examined images and icons of war and terror Icons of War and Terror explores theories of iconic images of war and terror not as received pieties but as challenging uncertainties in doing so it engages with both critical discourse and conventional image making The authors draw on these theories to re investigate the media global context of some of the most iconic representations of war and terror in the international risk society Among these photojournalistic images are Nick Ut s Pulitzer Prize winning photograph of a naked girl Kim Phuc running burned from a napalm attack in Vietnam in June 1972 a quintessential ethnic cleansing image of massacred Kosovar Albanian villagers at Racak on January 15 1999 which finally propelled a hesitant Western alliance into the first of the new humanitarian wars Luis Simco s photograph of marine James Blake Miller the Marlboro Man at Fallujah Iraq 2004 the iconic toppling of the World Trade Centre towers in New York by planes on September 11 2001 and the Falling Man icon one of the most controversial images of 9 11 the image of one of the authors of this book as close up victim of the 7 7 terrorist attack on London which the media quickly labelled iconic This book will be of great interest to students of media and war sociology communications studies cultural studies terrorism studies and security studies in general Australia and the Middle East Fethi Mansouri,2006-08-25 What is the history behind Australia s relations with the Muslim world and the Middle East in particular which led Australia to be described as a frontline of the so called War on Terror Australia s encounters with the Middle East have historically been defined through the British Empire the Commonwealth and more recently through its close strategic ties with the US This book traces the nature of the Australia Middle East relationship from an insular White Australia ideology through to the ongoing global impact of September 11 and the decision to send troops to Iraq and Afghanistan Comprehensive analysis of these complex ties provides an essential basis for understanding past encounters evaluating present policies and developing a framework for future interactions Australia and the Middle East draws together the various dimensions and themes of this relationship from trade and migration to increasing strategic interest and military involvement in the region Empires of Vision Martin Jay,Sumathi Ramaswamy,2014-03-14 Combining visual culture and postcolonial studies this reader shows that an appreciation of the role of visual experience is necessary for understanding how colonialism worked and how colonized subjects spoke to imperial rulers Empire and Culture M. Evans, 2004-07-30 By 1931 the time of the huge Colonial Exhibition in Paris France had the second largest empire in the world extending to the four corners of the globe Yet intriguingly the multi various impact of the empire upon French culture and society has been largely ignored by historians This volume aims to redress this balance and will explore how the idea of empire was expressed in film photography painting and monuments It analyzes how the image of the universal civilising mission saturated French society during the first half of the Twentieth century In particular it examines how the subject peoples of the empire were represented in art and fiction In this way the volume underlines that there was not just one single image of empire but many ranging from the extreme right to the extreme left It contains an in depth consideration not just of the triumphalist images of empire but the oppositional ones most notably the surrealists which directly challenged the emergent colonial consensus
