Trafton, 2018-02-04 Excerpt from Methods of Attracting Birds The importance of attracting birds around our homes was first impressed upon the author through his experience with children in connection with the work in nature study in the public schools This was encouraged chiefly from the child's standpoint on account of the educative value of this kind of work on the child Further more from the standpoint of the birds this means of encouraging and protecting them is a very efficient one which may be applied by all bird lovers adults as well as children Hence this book has been written from two view points that of birds and that of human beings for the protection of the former and the pleasure of the latter The author has not attempted to restrict himself to his own experiences but has drawn freely upon the experiences of any who could be reached And indeed the chief value of these pages lies in the fact that they represent the results of so many observers giving a brief summary of the work that is being done throughout the country About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
