Pake Writings By Chinese In Hawaii:

Paké Eric Edward Chock, Darrell H. Y. Lum, 1989 Re/collecting Early Asian America Josephine D. Lee, Imogene L. Lim, Yuko Matsukawa, 2002 Defining the early period as spanning the nineteenth century to the 1960s the essays address the Asian American individuals and communities that have been omitted from official histories trace the roots of persistent racial stereotypes and myths and retrieve artistic production that raises questions of what counts as art or as Asian American By reconsidering the political cultural and material history written in the past three decades contributes to a new understanding of Asian America's past and relationship to the present Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J. Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J. Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A. Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G. Cawelti Robert F. Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister The BIG Hawaii Reproducible Activity Book Carole Marsh, 2011-03-01 The Big Hawaii Activity Book 100 activities from Kindergarten easy to Fourth Fifth challenging This big activity book has a wide range of reproducible activities including coloring dot to dot mazes matching word search and many other creative activities that will entice any student to learn more about Hawaii Activities touch on history geography people places fictional characters animals holidays festivals legends lore and more Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang, 2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok lin Lim Toshio Mori

and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading What Is in a Rim? Arif Dirlik, 1998-03-05 This pathbreaking multidisciplinary work challenges our unthinking acceptance of such terms as Asia Pacific and Pacific Rim Clarifying the hidden power relationships and hegemonic struggles that are disguised by ideological constructions of the region the contributors uncover fundamental contradictions_including the human costs and consequences_that underlie the much celebrated economic boom In evaluating the idea of Asia Pacific the book shifts our focus from abstract relationships between capital and commodities to the human interactions that have played a formative part in the region s constitution The contributors agree that it is these interactions that constitute the region rather than the physical boundaries of the Pacific This revised and updated edition brings in additional essays focusing on conceptualizations of the Pacific considers more fully interactions among countries and strongly emphasizes peoples within the Pacific who are routinely ignored in most discussions of the Rim

Through a blend of personal narrative cultural and literary analysis and discussions about teaching Minor Re Visions Asian American Literacy Narratives as a Rhetoric of Citizenship shows how people of color use reading and writing to develop and articulate notions of citizenship Morris Young begins with a narration of his own literacy experiences to illustrate the complicated relationship among literacy race and citizenship and to reveal the tensions that exist between competing beliefs and uses of literacy among those who are part of dominant American culture and those who are positioned as minorities Influenced by the literacy narratives of other writers of color Young theorizes an Asian American rhetoric by examining the rhetorical construction of American citizenship in works such as Richard Rodriguez's Hunger for Memory Victor Villanueva's Bootstraps From an American Academic of Color Carlos Bulosan's America Is in the Heart and Maxine Hong Kingston's Song for a Barbarian Reed Pipe from Woman Warrior These narratives Young shows tell stories of transformation through education the acquisition of literacy and cultural assimilation and resistance They also offer an important revision to the American story by inserting the minor and creating a tension amid dominant discourses about literacy race and citizenship Through a consideration of the literacy narratives of Hawai'i Young also provides a context for reading literacy narratives as responses to racism linguistic discrimination and attempts at othering in a particular region As we are faced with dominant discourses that construct race and citizenship in problematic ways and as official institutions become even more powerful and prevalent in silencing minor voices Minor Re Visions reveals the critical need for revising minority and dominant discourses Young's observations and conclusions have important implications for the ways rhetoricians and compositionists read teach and assign literacy narratives

David W. Forbes, 2003-02-28 The fourth and final volume of the Hawaiian National Bibliography 1780 1900 records the most volatile period in Hawaii's history American business interests and the desire for a constitutional monarchy were pitted against the desire of the monarchs King Kalikau and Queen Liliuokalani to strengthen the power of the throne The convulsions of the 1887 and 1889 revolutions were succeeded by the overthrow of the monarchy on January 17 1893 Documents revealing the struggle over annexation beginning in 1893 and the counterrevolution of 1895 are an important component of this volume Annexation in 1898 was followed by a two year period during which functions of government and laws were altered to conform to those of the United States After the organic act became effective in 1900 vestiges of monarchical Hawaii disappeared and the history of the Territory of Hawaii unfolded As with the previous volumes Volume 4 is a record of printed works touching on some aspect of the political religious cultural or social history of the Hawaiian Islands A valuable component of this series is the inclusion of newspaper and periodical accounts and single sheet publications such as broadsides circulars playbills and handbills Entries are extensively annotated and also provided for each are exact title date of publication size of volume collation of pages number and type of plates and maps references and location of copies People and Cultures of Hawaii John F. Maretzki, 2011-04-30 This is a significant update to the highly influential text People and Cultures of Hawaii A Psychocultural Profile Since its publication in 1980 the immigrant groups it discusses in depth have matured and new ones have been added to the mix The present work tracks the course of these changes over the past twenty years constructing a historical understanding of each group as it evolved from race to ethnicity to culture Individual chapters begin with an overview of one of fifteen groups Following the development of its unique ethnocultural identity distinctive character traits such as temperament and emotional expression are explored as well as ethnic stereotypes Also discussed are modifications to the group s ethnocultural identity over time and generational change which traits may have changed over generations and which are more hardwired or enduring An important feature of each chapter is the focus on the group s family social structure generational and gender roles power distribution and central values and life goals Readers will also find a description of the group s own internal social class structure social and political strategies and occupational and educational patterns Finally contributors consider how a particular ethnic group has blended into Hawai i s culturally sensitive society People and Cultures of Hawai i The Evolution of Culture and Ethnicity will like its predecessor fill an important niche in understanding the history of different ethnic groups in Hawai i Chinese America: History and Perspectives 1988 , Prize Essays on Leprosy ,1897 The Volcano Is Our Home Alan Robert Akana,2014-03-18 The Volcano Is Our Home When Alan Akana realized he had missed the gift of hearing many of his familys stories his search for his history became a gift to all his readers The Volcano is Our Home introduces us in a very personal way to the influences that shaped Hawaii from an isolated group of islands inhabited by remarkable people with a unique and beautiful culture into the tourist mecca known today by travelers from all over the world The author takes you to the real Hawaii so that you may walk these islands with new understanding of the lost way of life of those who have gone before You will journey over 250 years with a Hawaiian family guided by their connection to the land each other and a rich spiritual realm You will join them on the slopes of Kilauea Volcano as they confront the arrival of each new wave of changefrom Captain Cook to the missionaries to the overthrow of the kingdom to the 50th State to the 21st century Alan Akana is one of the current generation of Hawaiians who has perfected the art of talking story Gail Larsen Founder of Real Speaking and Author of Transformational Speaking If You Want to Change the World Tell a Better Story An Excerpt from the Book My ancestors simply could not ignore the goddess who lived among them and continued to appear in their midst As the culture changed dramatically Pele was a constant presence from generation to generation While villages disappeared species became extinct churches were established and governments were stolen the relationship between the people who lived on the slopes of Kilauea and Pele remained firm as ever and the people continued to make sacrifices and prayers to her in the same way as their ancestors did centuries before them
