Handing Down the Faith Christian Smith, Amy Adamczyk, 2020-07-02 A new examination of how and why American religious parents seek to pass on religion to their children The most important influence shaping the religious and spiritual lives of children youth and teenagers is their parents A myriad of studies show that the parents of American youth play the leading role in shaping the character of their religious and spiritual lives even well after they leave home and often for the rest of their lives We know a lot about the importance of parents in faith transmission However we know much less about the actual beliefs feelings and activities of the parents themselves what Christian Smith and Amy Adamczyk call the intergenerational transmission of religious faith and practice To address that gap this book reports the findings of a new national study of religious parents in the United States The findings and conclusions in Handing Down the Faith are based on 215 in depth personal interviews with religious parents from many traditions and different parts of the country and sophisticated analyses of two nationally representative surveys of American parents about their religious parenting Handing Down the Faith explores the background beliefs informing how and why religious parents seek to pass on religion to their children examines how parenting styles interact with parent religiousness to shape effective religious transmission shows how parents have been influenced by their experiences as children influenced by their own parents reveals how religious parents view their congregations and what they most seek out in a local church synagogue temple or mosque explores the experiences and outlooks of immigrant parents including Latino Catholics East Asian Buddhists South Asian Muslims and Indian Hindus Smith and Adamczyk step back to consider how American religion has transformed over the last 100 years and to explain why parents today shoulder such a huge responsibility in transmitting religious faith and practice to their children The book is rich in empirical evidence and unique in many of the topics it explores and explains providing a variety of sometimes counterintuitive findings that will interest scholars of religion social scientists interested in the family parenting and socialization clergy and religious educators and leaders and religious parents themselves

Holroyd,2015-05-26 Andrew was a son of a powerful sub king His father wanted twelve sons each to be named after one of the twelve holy men he had learned about from an itinerant preacher When tragedy struck and the kings wife died giving birth to a sixth brother all talk of faith died with her The kings eyes turned solely to the defense of his lands The teachings which were tied to a God whom he thought had failed him were not to be part of the picture These were rough times Vikings were raiding the shore areas taking what they wanted and leaving destruction There was strife closer to home as well as stronger families tried to grasp more land from weaker families Andrew knew the direction that his life would be taking When he became old enough he would start weapons training He would learn the ways of the warrior and he would join his fathers war band and defend his land from the invading Vikings Life however does not always meet expectations Another traveling preacher visits the land and talks to Andrew about a different path to follow a path that does not parallel the ways of a warrior Which path will Andrew follow Do You Know for Sure God the Father Has Your Back? Reza Mohseni,2024-09-10 In today s complicated world it is really important to identify the truth especially when facing challenges As God s children it s our responsibility to steer our loved ones toward what truly matters guided by biblical wisdom Imagine a world where everyone understands that following God s teachings leads to a fulfilling life Emulating Jesus by adhering to the Holy Spirit and God s principles brings joy Since Jesus came into my life I discovered the key to joy True joy goes beyond happiness it stays with us even during tough times Happiness depends on external things and is temporary but joy lasts because it comes from having God in our hearts When we seek God every day we find contentment Seeing God s impact during uncertain times and understanding the future He has for us brings us joy My book Do You Know for Sure if God the Father Has Your Back shares my life changing encounter with Christ and how it can impact others It explores faith kindness love and discovering purpose through believing in Christ It serves as a testament highlighting the greatness of our God and affirming His faithfulness during tough times It highlights that God is with us showing us the way and leading us into His light through His Word love and grace This is true for anyone who is seeking Him Often society tells us that pursuing wealth and fame is paramount However life's path determines our destination Psalm 1 reminds us that following Christ's way is vital to avoid going astray Jesus's words in Matthew 7:24-25 emphasize the importance of building our foundation on solid ground What we allow into our lives shapes our output This book extends an invitation to embrace God's love and discover purpose and tranquility through faith God the Father Has Your Back is more than a book it's a heartfelt message for those seeking a meaningful life a Faithful Servant of God Genesis 6 13 22 In the Book of Genesis the purpose for which God created us is contained When architects design a building or artists draw a painting they first conceive the work that would be completed in their minds before they actually begin working on their project Just like this our God also had our salvation of mankind in His mind even before He created the heavens and the earth and He made Adam and Eve with this purpose in mind And God needed to explain to us the domain of Heaven which is not seen by our eyes of the flesh by drawing an analogy to the domain of the earth that we can all see and understand Even before the foundation of the world God wanted to save mankind perfectly by giving the gospel of the water and the Spirit to everyone s heart So although all human beings were made out of dust they must learn and know the gospel Truth of the water and the Spirit to benefit their own souls If people continue to live without knowing the dominion of Heaven they will lose not only the things of the earth but also everything that belongs to Heaven
