Passions in Print Pamela S. Smith, Richard Polese, 2006 The starting place for anyone having family history ties to New Mexico Descendants of Spanish settlers beginning in 1598 are a major portion of the population of New Mexico A New Deal for Navajo Weaving Jennifer McLerran, 2022-05-10 A New Deal for Navajo Weaving provides a detailed history of early to mid twentieth century Din weaving projects by non Natives who sought to improve the quality and marketability of Navajo weaving but in so doing failed to understand the cultural significance of weaving and its role in the lives of Din women By the 1920s the durability and market value of Din weavings had declined dramatically Indian welfare advocates established projects aimed at improving the materials and techniques Private efforts served as models for federal programs instituted by New Deal administrators Historian Jennifer McLerran details how federal officials developed programs such as the Southwest Range and Sheep Breeding Laboratory at Fort Wingate in New Mexico and the Navajo Arts and Crafts Guild Other federal efforts included the publication of Native natural dye recipes the publication of portfolios of weaving designs to guide artisans and the education of consumers through the exhibition of weavings aiding them in their purchases and cultivating an upscale market McLerran details how government officials sought to use these programs to bring the Din into the national economy instead these federal tactics were ineffective because they marginalized Navajo women and ignored the important role weaving plays in the resilience and endurance of wider Din culture Santa Fe Elizabeth West, 2012 This question and answer book contains 400 reminders of what is known and what is sometimes forgotten or misunderstood about a city that was founded more than 400 years ago Not a traditional history book this group of questions is presented in an apparently random order and the answers occasionally meander off topic as if part of a casual conversation Literary Pilgrims Lynn Cline, 2007 Illuminates both the well and lesser known literary figures of New Mexico whose collaborative efforts created enduring literary colonies This book also discusses fifteen writers and concludes with walking and driving tours of Santa Fe and Taos The New Deal Kathryn Flynn, 2009-09 2008 marks the 75th anniversary of the New Deal the series of programs initiated by President Franklin Delano Roosevelt to help Americans recover during the Great Depression Programs such as the Civilian Conservation Corps the Civil Works Administration and the Works Progress Administration gave hope support and encouragement to millions of Americans Several New Deal programs including Social Security continue to help Americans today New Mexico Magazine , 2006-07 Ernest Thompson Seton David L. Witt, Ernest Thompson Seton, 2010 While this book stands on its own it also serves as the exhibition catalog for a nearly yearlong show at the New Mexico History Museum in Santa Fe Pref Walks In Literary Santa Fe Barbara Harrelson, 2007-04-13 In Walks in Literary Santa Fe you will explore the storytelling traditions and cultural history of New Mexico and familiar landmarks This guidebook reveals the stories of historical and legendary figures that have lived in and written about the Land of Enchantment and its storied capital city An entertaining reference on regional literature and culture for residents and visitors alike this volume includes a Southwest literary timeline Southwest literature bibliography a list of New Mexico s literary classics plus contact details for local literary organizations booksellers and publishers along with information on regional writers retreats and conferences
