

Philippine Labour Migration

James A. Tyner

Philippine Labour Migration:

Philippine Labour Migration Joaquin Lucero Gonzalez, 1998 There are currently more than six million Filipino workers in over 120 countries in jobs ranging from maids to managers The Philippine Government has encouraged the manpower exodus to absorb the country's surplus labour and to bring foreign exchange earnings into the Philippine economy However non governmental organizations have argued that social dysfunctions associated with working abroad have not been adequately addressed Using an analytical framework that blends multiple stakeholders perspectives the author assesses the historical demographic economic social and political dimensions of Philippine labour migration policy from the early 1900s to the late 1990s Focusing on recent issues he provides an integrated evaluation from a public policy perspective balancing both state and societal viewpoints A separate soft cover edition is available from De La Salle University Press for customers in the Philippines only

Philippine Labor Migration Scalabrini Migration Center, 1992 Iraq, Terror, and the Philippines' Will to War James A. Tyner, 2005-04-20 After September 11 2001 United States President George W Bush put together a Coalition of the Willing From the very beginning this coalition included the Philippines a willing participant in the U S led invasion and occupation of Iraq and the larger War on Terror This timely and persuasive book argues that the Philippines recent foreign policy must be understood by considering three factors the crucial role of overseas employment to the Philippine economy the mendicant relationship between the Philippines and the United States and the Catholicism of Philippine President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo Between September 11 and August 4 2004 the Philippine State identified itself as a loyal and supportive member of the Coalition of the Willing in part to take advantage of the labor opportunities in the reconstruction efforts of Iraq However in the face of mounting violence and instability in the war torn country the Philippines became increasingly reluctant to actively participate in the coalition When Angelo de la Cruz a Filipino truck driver was kidnapped the Philippine government withdrew its forces from Iraq This decision can only be understood in the context of Macapagal Arroyo's political fundamentalism Specifically Macapagal Arroyo believed that it was God's will to spare the life of de la Cruz This study of the Philippines recent foreign policy examines the interconnections of international relations transnational labor migration military conflict theology and terrorism It is unique in its explicit examination of peripheral states participation in the War on Terror the invasion of Iraq and the Coalition of the Willing as well as its willingness to discuss the religious context of a state's foreign policy

Made in the Philippines James A. Tyner, 2004-08-02 The Philippines is the world's largest exporter of temporary contract labor with a huge 800 000 workers a year being deployed on either six month or two year contracts This labor migration is highly regulated by the government private and non governmental non private organizations Tyner argues that migrants are socially constructed or made by these parties and that migrants in turn become political resources Employing a post structural feminist perspective Tyner questions the very ontology of migration

commercialisation of domestic and care work through private agencies that organise transnational care arrangements by brokering migrant workers The book focuses on the emergence of private for profit home care agencies following the 2011 extension of the Free Movement of Workers to Eastern European Countries agreement in Switzerland The agencies recruit migrant women from these countries and place them in private households for elderly care This book explores how circular labour migration for these care workers is facilitated In the form of a mobile ethnography it traces their journey from Eastern European countries to Switzerland from when care workers find employment and are recruited by agencies to when they arrive at their designated households From the agencies analytical standpoint the book examines the recruitment and placement practices of the home care agencies and their role in facilitating migration Brokering Labour Migration offers an understanding of new migration patterns and highlights fundamental changes in migration control with the extension of free movement of workers in Switzerland to lower wage countries in Eastern Europe It will be an invaluable resource for academics and scholars of geography anthropology sociology and gender and migration Migration Politics across the World Katharina Natter, Hélène Thiollet, 2023-12-04 This book breaks new ground in scholarship on the politics of migration The edited volume brings together in depth case studies from Argentina Tunisia Japan South Korea the United States Australia the Philippines China and Saudi Arabia to showcase the complex interplay between migration politics and broader dynamics of regime change state formation and nation state ideology Challenging conventional wisdom we reveal that political systems whether liberal or illiberal democratic or authoritarian do not rigidly dictate migration politics Instead migration politics and political regimes co produce one another Our exploration delves into the roles of civil society legal actors employers and international norms across diverse political contexts and bridges conversations around immigration and emigration politics Uncovering unexpected similarities in migration policies across different political regimes at a time when states are increasingly adopting illiberal practices this collection is essential for political scientists sociologists and migration scholars seeking a fresh perspective Migration Politics Across the World offers an ideal vantage point for understanding the role of migration in state transformations and political changes around the world The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations , 2013-05-02 Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations connects the 19th and 20th century labor migrations and migration systems in global transcultural perspective It emphasizes macro regional internal continuities or discontinuities and interactions between and within macro regions The essays look at migrant workers experiences in constraining frames and the options they seize or constraints they circumvent It traces the development from 19th century proletarian migrations to industries and plantations across the globe to 20th and 21st century domestics and caregiver migrations It integrates male and female migration and shows how women have always been present in mass migrations Studies on historical development over time are supplemented by case studies on present migrations in Asia and from Asia A systems approach is combined

Aguilar Jr.,2014-04-11 Since the 1960s overseas migration had become a major factor in the economy of the Philippines It has also profoundly influenced the sense of nationhood of both migrants and nonmigrants Migrant workers learned to view their home country as part of a plural world of nations and they shaped a new sort of Filipino identity while appropriating the modernity of the outside world where at least for a while they operated as insiders The global nomadism of Filipino workers brought about some fundamental reorientations It revolutionized Philippine society reignited a sense of nationhood imposed new demands on the state reconfigured the class structure and transnationalized class and other social relations even as it deterritorialized the state and impacted the destinations of migrant workers Philippine foreign policy now takes surprising turns in consideration of migrant workers and Filipinos living abroad Many tertiary education institutions aim deliberately at the overseas employability of local graduates And the Fil foreign offspring of unions with partners from other nationalities add a new inflection to Filipino identity Labour in Southeast Asia Becky Elmhirst,Ratna Saptari,2004-05-07 In seeking to provoke debate the book reveals the variety of experiences evident in countries and regions marked by capitalist and post socialist regulatory frameworks and contrasting labour regimes histories and cultures The contributions show the importance of critically examining both the complex nature of global local links and the particular ways economic processes are around the themes of labour regimes labour processes labour mobility and labour communities the essays show how economic development is not only shaped by market forces but is also interlocked in systems of meaning Anthropologica ,1997

Relocating Global Cities M Mark Amen,M Martin Bosman,Kevin Archer,2006-04-27 Drawing on eight case studies from key cities on the periphery of global cities literature Relocating Global Cities argues that all cities are globalizing in important ways Case studies of Frankfurt Johannesburg Bangkok Manila Tampa Sydney Brussels and Caracas provide the basis for an alternative theoretical approach to global city formation Reconciling a market based understanding and an agency based understanding of global cities this book proposes that globalization and cities are mutually constituted by the global political economy engaging with transnational and local agents The volume proposes an alternate theoretical approach to the literature of globalization while remaining grounded in concrete discussions of key cities Its expert contributors reconcile the conflicting ways in which two dominant paradigms one emphasizing market forces and the other the unique actions of individuals and groups embody our understanding of global cities This book will be of interest to students and researchers alike and is a perfect complement to texts in Urban Studies and Globalization Anthropologica ,1997

offers wide ranging insights into the organising capacities of workers in Asia today Nine case studies examine workers responses to class relations through independent unions non government organisations NGOs and more dis organised struggles Countering the notion that globalisation holds entirely negative consequences for labour organisation the authors reveal some of the openings for local activism which can arise from transnational production arrangements The volume covers the second tier industrializers China Thailand Malaysia the Philippines Indonesia India and Bangladesh Interdisciplinary in nature it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Asian studies development studies and international labour studies

Philippine Politics and Society in the Twentieth Century Eva-Lotta E. Hedman, John Thayer Sidel, 2000 This work addresses key topics which should be of interest to the academic and non academic reader such as the national level electoral politics economic growth the Philippine Chinese law and order opposition the Left and local and ethnic politics

Anthropologica, 2004

Aspirations with Limitations Ulla Fionna, Siwage Dharma Negara, Deasy Simandjuntak, 2018-06-29 As the first directly elected Indonesian president Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono SBY served at a crucial juncture in Indonesia s history Succeeding the three short presidencies of BJ Habibie Abdurrahman Wahid and Megawati Sukarnoputri his presidency had a lot to prove While critical assessment of SBY s domestic policies have been undertaken less attention has been paid to his foreign policy This volume seeks to fill this gap by examining key foreign policy issues during SBY s tenure including bilateral relations Indonesia s involvement in international organizations and pivotal issues such as international labour and terrorism The book provides an assessment of the direction of his foreign policy and management style paying particular attention to his concerns over Indonesia s territorial integrity and sovereignty the significance of international institutions and Indonesia s right to lead

Contesting the Philippines Steven Rood, Veronica L Taylor, 2024-05-09 The Duterte administration 2016-22 marked the return of an authoritarian style of rule in the Philippines It was also accompanied by an economic recovery that was better than many expected at least until the onset of the COVID 19 pandemic Both during and following the Duterte period the country was buffeted by a series of internal and external shocks that called into question the state s legal and social policy contract with its citizens This period of contesting the Philippines was an intense normative and practical struggle to shape or reshape some of the Philippines most critical institutions the Constitution the presidency the Supreme Court and the rule of law the free press regional autonomy and independent regulatory institutions These developments energized many domestic policy actors technocrats the business sector civil society organizations the police and the military armed groups and religious leaders across the spectrum of Filipino politics This volume considers some key sites of contestation between and among domestic policy actors including the executive during this eventful period for political and legal institutions in the Philippines

Human Geopolitics Alan Gamlen, 2019-05-02 Human geopolitics the competition for population rather than territory is an essential but weakly understood dimension of world politics today Such competition has preceded violent conflict throughout history but has been muted since the Treaties of Westphalia laid the territorial foundations of the modern international system in the mid seventeenth century Today however human geopolitics is being resurrected in unanticipated ways as governments are enabled and encouraged to engage their emigrant diasporas How and why is this happening Until now these questions have been difficult to answer The majority of research attention has focused on questions of immigration policy in a handful of wealthy migrant destination countries largely ignoring the emigration policies that preoccupy the worlds many migrant origin states This book addresses that research imbalance by focusing on the overlooked sending side of migration policy Drawing on data covering all UN members across the post WWII period and fieldwork with high level policy makers across 60 states and a dozen international organisations the book charts the re emergence of human geopolitics through the global spread of diaspora institutions government ministries and offices dedicated to emigrants and their descendants It calls for the development of stronger guiding principles and evaluation frameworks to govern these new state diaspora relations in an era of unprecedented global interdependence
