A Prayer for Kateřina Horovitzova Arnošt Lustig, 1985 Handbook of Polish, Czech, and Slovak Holocaust Fiction Elisa-Maria Hiemer, Jiří Holý, Agata Firlej, Hana Nichtburgerová, 2021-06-21

The Handbook of Polish Czech and Slovak Holocaust Fiction aims to increase the visibility and show the versatility of works from East Central European countries. It is the first encyclopedic work to bridge the gap between the literary production of countries that are considered to be main sites of the Holocaust and their recognition in international academic and public discourse. It contains over 100 entries offering not only facts about the content and motifs but also pointing out the characteristic fictional features of each work and its meaning for academic discourse and wider reception in the country of origin and abroad. The publication will appeal to the academic and broader public interested in the representation of the Holocaust anti-Semitism and World War II in literature and the arts. Besides prose it also considers poetry and theatrical plays from 1943 through 2018. An introduction to the historical events and cultural developments in Poland Czechoslovakia Czech and Slovak Republic and their impact on the artistic output helps to contextualise the motif changes and fictional strategies that authors have been applying for decades. The publication is the result of long term scholarly cooperation of specialists from four countries and several dozen academic centres.

Hasidic Tales of the Holocaust Yaffa Eliach, 2011-06-01

Derived by the author from interviews and oral histories these eighty nine original Hasidic tales about the Holocaust provide unprecedented witness in a traditional idiom to the victims inner experience of unspeakable suffering. This volume constitutes the first collection of original Hasidic tales to be published in a century. An important work of scholarship and a sudden clear window onto the heretofore sealed world of the Hasidic reaction to the Holocaust. Its true stories and fanciful miracle tales are a profound and often poignant insight into the souls of those who suffered terribly at the hands of the Nazis and who managed somehow to use that very suffering as the raw material for their renewed lives. Chaim Potok A beautiful collection. Saul Bellow Yaffa Eliach provides us with stories that are wonderful and terrible true myths. We learn how people when suffering dying and surviving can call forth their humanity with starkness and clarity. She employs her scholarly gifts only to connect the tellers of the tales who bear witness to the reader who is stunned and enriched. Robert J Lifton In the extensive literature on the Holocaust this is a unique book. Through it we can attain a glimpse of the victims inner life and spiritual resources. Yaffa Eliach has done a superb job. Jehuda Reinharz

The Holocaust and the Nonrepresentable David Patterson, 2018-05-23

Argues that Holocaust representation has ethical implications fundamentally linked to questions of good and evil. Many books focus on issues of Holocaust representation but few address why the Holocaust in particular poses such a representational problem. David Patterson draws from Emmanuel Levinas's contention that the Good cannot be represented. He argues that the assault on the Good is equally nonrepresentable and this nonrepresentable aspect of the Holocaust is its distinguishing feature. Utilizing Jewish religious thought Patterson examines how the literary word expresses the ineffable and how the photographic image manifests the invisible Where the Holocaust is concerned representation is a matter not of imagination but of ethical implication not of what it was like but of what must be done Ultimately Patterson provides a deeper understanding of why the Holocaust itself is indefinable not only as an evil but also as a fundamental assault on the very categories of good and evil affirmed over centuries of Jewish teaching and testimony This book commands respect both for the author s immense and intimate knowledge of what has become a vast body of work and for his unconditional commitment to the subject I am in awe of what I have just read Dorota Glowacka coeditor of Between Ethics and Aesthetics Crossing the Boundaries Narrating the Holocaust Andrea Reiter, Patrick Camiller, 2004-12-01 In this literary study of memoirs describing at first hand the horrors of German concentration camps the principal question asked is How did the survivors find the words to talk about experiences hitherto unknown even unimaginable Beyond being a mere analysis of discourse Narrating the Holocaust reflects the situations in camp that triggered these responses and shows how the professional authors adapted certain literary genres e g the travel story the Hassidic tale to serve as models for communication while the vast majority who were not trained as writers merely used the form of the report A comparison between these memoirs and the more frequently discussed camp novel identifies the different narrative strategies by which the two are determined Most of the 130 texts discussed here were published in German between 1934 and the present some famous Italian French and Polish texts have also been included for comparison Sparks Amidst the Ashes Byron L. Sherwin, 1997 Sherwin concludes with a controversial proposal for the future of Polish Jewish relations Literature of the Holocaust Alan Rosen, 2013-11-14 During and in the aftermath of the dark period of the Holocaust writers across Europe and America sought to express their feelings and experiences through their writings This book provides a comprehensive account of these writings through essays from expert scholars covering a wide geographic linguistic thematic and generic range of materials Such an overview is particularly appropriate at a time when the corpus of Holocaust literature has grown to immense proportions and when guidance is needed in determining a canon of essential readings a context to interpret them and a paradigm for the evolution of writing on the Holocaust The expert contributors to this volume who negotiate the literature in the original languages provide insight into the influence of national traditions and the importance of language especially but not exclusively Yiddish and Hebrew to the literary response arising from the Holocaust By Words Alone Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi, 2008-10-03 The creative literature that evolved from the Holocaust constitutes an unprecedented encounter between art and life Those who wrote about the Holocaust were forced to extend the limits of their imaginations to encompass unspeakably violent extremes of human behavior The result as Ezrahi shows in By Words Alone is a body of literature that transcends national and cultural boundaries and shares a spectrum of attitudes toward the concentration camps and the world beyond toward the past and the future Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 The Shriek of Silence David Patterson,2021-12-14 In the Holocaust novel silence is always a character and the word is always its subject matter So writes David Patterson in this profound and original study of more than thirty important writers Contrary to existing views he argues the Holocaust novel is not an attempt to depict an unimaginable reality or an ineffable horror It is rather an endeavor to fetch the word from silence and restore it to meaning to resurrect the human soul to regenerate the relation between the self and God the self and other the self and itself This book is less a critical study in the usual sense than an impassioned meditation on the deeper sources of the Holocaust novel Among the authors examined are Elie Wiesel Arnost Lustig Aharon Appelfeld Katzetnik 135633 Primo Levi Yehuda Amichai Piotr Rawicz A Anatoli Saul Bellow I B Singer Anna Langfus Rachmil Bryks and Ilse Aichinger The Shriek of Silence is a first in several respects the first to examine the Holocaust novels in their original languages the first to articulate a theoretical basis for its approach and the first phenomenological investigation one that attempts to penetrate the process of creation for these novelists Organized along conceptual lines the book examines the word in exile the themes of death of the father and the child transformations of the self and the implications of the reader Its philosophical foundations are Rosenzweig Buber Neher and Levinas Its critical approach is shaped by Bakhtin The novelists of the Holocaust in witnessing through their words regain their voices and in so doing are reborn By probing the depths of their struggle Patterson s study draws us too toward a higher understanding perhaps even our own rebirth The Jewish Holocaust Marty Bloomberg,Buckley Barry Barrett,1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years Jewish resistance Survey of Contemporary Literature Frank Northen Magill,1977 The Holocaust National Jewish Resource Center (U.S.),1985 Anti-Semitism and Its Metaphysical Origins David Patterson,2015-02-09 This book articulates a deeper understanding of the phenomenon of Jew hatred as a metaphysical aspect of the human soul Proceeding from the Jewish thinking that the anti Semites oppose David Patterson argues that anti Semitism arises from the most ancient of temptations the temptation to be as God and thus to flee from an absolute accountability to and for the other human being Voices From the Holocaust Harry James Cargas,2013-04-06 Interviews with Yitzhak Arad Leo Eitinguer Emil Fackenheim Whitney Harris Jan Karski Arnost Lusting Mordecai Paldiel Marion Pritchard Dorothee Soelle Leon Wells Elie Wiesel Simon Wiesenthal The late Harry James Cargas was professor emeritus of literature and language at Webster University and author of thirty two books including Problems Unique to the Holocaust The Holocaust Novel Efraim Sicher,2013-10-31 The first comprehensive study of Holocaust literature as a major postwar literary genre The Holocaust

Novel provides an ideal student guide to the powerful and moving works written in response to this historical tragedy This student friendly volume answers a dire need for readers to understand a genre in which boundaries and often blurred between history fiction autobiography and memoir Other essential features for students here include an annotated bibliography chronology and further reading list Major texts discussed include such widely taught works as Night Maus The Shawl Schindler s List Sophie s Choice White Noise and Time s Arrow Shoah and Torah David Patterson,2021-11-18 Shoah and Torah systematically takes up the task of reading the Shoah through the lens of the Torah and the Torah through the lens of the Shoah The investigation rests upon 1 the metaphysical standing that the Nazis ascribed to the Torah 2 the obliteration of the Torah in the extermination of the Jews 3 the significance of the Torah for an understanding of the Shoah and 4 the significance of the Shoah for an understanding of the Torah The basis for the inquiry lies not in the content of a certain belief but in the categories of a certain mode of thought Distinct from all other studies this book is grounded in the categories of Jewish thought and Judaism the categories of creation revelation and redemption that the Nazis sought to obliterate in the Shoah Thus the investigation is itself a response to the Nazi project of the extermination of the Jews and the millennial testimony of the Jews to the Torah American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Fiction. Juvenile fiction R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography,1978 Unified Jewish Religious Education Curriculum Jewish Education Service of North America.
