Praying the Movies Edward McNulty, 2001-01-01 Praying the Movies is a collection of thirty one devotions that connect movies with the spiritual life of moviegoers Each devotion contains a passage from Scripture a description of a scene from a popular film and a meditation connecting the themes in the scene to the Scripture passage Also included in each devotion are questions to encourage further reflection a suggestion for a hymn and a brief prayer

Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education

The Religion and Film Reader Jolyon P. Mitchell, S. Brent Plate, 2007 Film is now widely studied in theology and religious studies departments This volume explores key topics including early responses to film directors films and audiences cultural and social contexts biblical connections theological approaches and religious studies perspectives amongst others

Witness to Dispossession Tom Beaudoin, 2008 Tom Beaudoin s first book Virtual Faith celebrated the spiritual quest of Generation X and established his reputation as one of the most astute critics of contemporary faith and culture In this collection of essays he reflects on the task and purpose of theology in a post modern age Beaudoin sketches a view of the theologian as a witness to dispossession This dispossession involves the letting go of status and power but also the comfortable certainties of the past Book jacket The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film John Lyden,2009-05-07 The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film brings together a lively and experienced team of contributors to investigate the ways in which this exciting discipline is developing Encyclopedia of Religion and Film Eric Michael Mazur,2011-03-08 Comprising 91 A Z entries this encyclopedia provides a broad and comprehensive introduction to the topic of religion within film Technology has enabled films to reach much wider audiences enabling today s viewers to access a dizzying number of films that employ diverse symbolism and communicate a vast array of viewpoints Encyclopedia of Religion and Film will provide such an audience with the tools to begin their own exploration of the deeper meanings of these films and grasp the religious significance within Organized alphabetically this encyclopedia provides more than 90 entries on the larger religious traditions the major film producing regions of the globe the films that have stirred controversy the most significant religious symbols and the more important filmmakers The included topics provide substantially more information on the intersection of religion and film than any of the similar volumes currently available While the emphasis is on the English speaking world and the films produced therein there is also substantial representation of non English non Western film and filmmakers providing significant intercultural coverage to the topic Deep Focus (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston,Craig Detweiler,Kutter Callaway,2019-03-19 Three media experts guide the Christian moviegoer into a theological conversation with movies in this up to date readable introduction to Christian theology and film Building on the success of Robert Johnston s Reel Spirituality the leading textbook in the field for the past 17 years Deep Focus helps film lovers not only watch movies critically and theologically but also see beneath the surface of their moving images The book discusses a wide variety of classic and contemporary films and is illustrated with film stills from favorite movies Interpreting Star Wars Miles Booy,2021-01-14 Upon its initial release in 1977 many critics regarded Star Wars as a childish retort to the mature American cinema of the seventies Though full of sound and fury some felt that it signified nothing Four decades later the significations are multiple as interpretations of the film s strange imagery and metaphoric potential continue to pile up Interpreting Star Wars analyses and contextualises the dominant trends in Star Wars interpretation from the earliest reviews through Lucasfilm s attempts to use its position as copyright holder to promote a single meaning to the 21st century where the internet has rendered such authorial control impossible and new entries to the canon present new twists on old hopes Faith and Film Edward N. McNulty,2007-01-31 Growing numbers of church leaders are discovering that many films are able to impact viewers with gospel truths almost as well as a good sermon Ed McNulty a former pastor and longtime reviewer of films offers this guide to help church leaders enter into dialogue with contemporary films McNulty carefully crafts a theology of movies and then provides practical suggestions for creating and leading movie discussions with groups In addition he provides people from all across the theological spectrum with a framework to understand whether the overall message of a film outweighs concerns over profanity violence or sex in the film He concludes by introducing twenty seven films and including provocative questions about each that will prepare leaders to assemble and facilitate a group Popular films explored include The Color Purple Crash Hotel Rwanda The Matrix Million Dollar Baby O Brother Where Art Thou and The Shawshank Redemption Reel Spirituality (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston,2006-12-01 Increasingly thinking Christians are examining the influential role that movies play in our cultural dialogue Reel Spirituality successfully heightens readers sensitivity to the theological truths and statements about the human condition expressed through modern cinema This second edition cites 200 new movies and encourages readers to ponder movie themes that permeate our culture as well as motion pictures that have demonstrated power to shape our perceptions of everything from relationships and careers to good and evil Reel Spirituality is the perfect catalyst for dialogue and discipleship among moviegoers church based study groups and religious film and arts groups The second edition cites an additional 200 movies and includes new film photos

Reel Spirituality Robert K. Johnston,2006-12 A comprehensive study of theology and film that explores how the Christian faith is portrayed in film throughout history Ford's The Modern Theologians Rachel Muers,Ashley Cocksworth,2024-03-18 Captures the multiple voices of Christian theology in a diverse and interconnected world through in depth studies of representative figures and overviews of key movements Providing an unparalleled overview of the subject The Modern Theologians provides an indispensable guide to the diverse approaches and perspectives within Christian theology from the early twentieth century to the present Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and explores the development and trajectory of modern theology while presenting critical accounts of a broad range of relevant topics and representative thinkers The fourth edition of The Modern Theologians is fully updated to provide readers with a clear picture of the broad spectrum and core concerns of modern Christian theology worldwide It offers new perspectives on key twentieth century figures and movements from different geographical and ecclesial contexts There are expanded sections on theological dialogue with non Christian traditions and on Christian theology s engagement with the arts and sciences A new section explores theological responses to urgent global challenges such as nationalism racism and the environmental crisis Providing the next generation of theologians with the tools needed to take theological conversations forward The Modern Theologians Explores Christian theology s engagement with multiple ways of knowing across diverse approaches and traditions Combines introductions to key modern theologians and coverage of the major movements within contemporary theology Identifies common dynamics found across theologies to enable cross contextual comparisons Positions individual theologians in geographical regions trans local movements and ecclesial contexts Features new and revised chapters written by experts in particular movements topics and individuals Providing in depth critical evaluation and extensive references to further readings and research Ford s The Modern Theologians An Introduction to Christian Theology since 1918 Fourth Edition remains an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in Theology and Religious Studies such as Introduction to Christian Theology Systematic Theology Modern Theology and Modern Theologians It is also an invaluable

Media Mindfulness Gretchen Hailer, Rose Pacatte, 2007 Whether you are a Catholic high school teacher of any discipline a catechist or a youth minister feel confident that you can educate teens in one of the most difficult yet crucial areas of their growth in faith Beware Sister Media and Sister Catechist have written an information packed resource that also shares their sense of fun and exploration You and your students might consider this study of Media Mindfulness to be one of the most enjoyable and meaningful educational experiences in high school Film, Lacan and the Subject of Religion Steve Nolan, 2009-09-23 In their study of religion and film religious film analysts have tended to privilege religion Uniquely this study treats the two disciplines as genuine equals by regarding both liturgy and film as representational media Steve Nolan argues that in each case subjects identify with a represented other which joins them into a narrative where they become participants in an ideological reality Finding many current approaches to religious film analysis lacking Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion explores the film theory other writers ignore particularly that mix of psychoanalysis Marxism and semiotics often termed Screen theory that attempts to understand how cinematic representation shapes spectator identity Using translations and commentary on Lacan not originally available to Screen theorists Nolan returns to Lacan's contribution to psychoanalytic film theory and offers a sustained application to religious practice examining several priest films and real life case study to expose the way liturgical representation shapes religious identity Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion proposes an interpretive strategy by which religious film analysts can develop the kind of analysis that engages with and critiques both cultural and religious practice

God's Wider Presence Robert K. Johnston, 2014-10-14 What are we to make of those occasional yet illuminating experiences of God's presence that occur outside both church and Scripture We may encounter God's revelatory presence as we experience a beautiful sunset the birth of a child or a work of art music or literature While theologians have tended to describe such experiences abstractly as mere traces or echoes those involved often recognize such moments of transcendence as transformative Here senior theologian Robert Johnston explores how Christians should think theologically about God's wider revelatory presence that is mediated outside the church through creation conscience and culture The book offers a robust constructive biblical theology of general revelation rooting its insights in the broader Trinitarian work of the Spirit Drawing in part from the author's theological engagement with film and the arts the book helps Christians understand personal moments of experiencing God's transcendence and accounts for revelatory experiences of those outside the believing community It also shows how God's revelatory presence can impact our interaction with nonbelievers and those of other faiths Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003

Implications of the Sacred in (post)modern Media Johanna Sumiala-Seppänen, Knut Lundby, Raimo Salokangas, 2006

Cinéma Divinité Eric S. Christianson, Peter Francis, William Telford, 2005 Cinema Divinite sets out various critical approaches to the study of film and theology such as formalism expressionism realism textual analysis contextual analysis post modern eclecticism narrative criticism and cultural studies It examines the major concepts in film studies such as cinema spectatorship the nature and application of film theory to theology and includes a discussion of the extensive literature which has been published recently on the film and religion The book also examines case studies of specific films filmmakers and genres from film noir to animation and the western The final part looks specifically at religion within film with a concluding discussion of the recently released The Passion of the Christ American Book Publishing Record ,2004
