Biblical Theology C. Clifton Black, 2024-11-19 An essential collection of C. Clifton Black's best essays on the theology of the New Testament. Clifton Black is well known and widely loved for his exegetical acuity, his theological seriousness, his pastoral kindness and the most delightful sense of humor in the biblical studies guild. All these qualities are amply displayed in these thirty essays written across four decades of his career, including four essays that are published here for the first time. Biblical Theology: Essays Exegetical, Cultural and Homiletical represents the fruit of a lifetime of studying, preaching, praying, training pastors, walking in the light and laughing in the valley of the shadow of death. Black's keen mind and pastoral heart make this volume a rich contribution to the field of biblical theology.

Christ in the Gospels of the Liturgical Year Raymond E. Brown, 2012-05-03 2009 Catholic Press Association Award Winner A decade after the untimely death of renowned Scripture scholar Father Raymond E. Brown, SS, he continues to inspire and inform scholars and preachers, students and pastoral ministers, lay and ordained. It was only days after Father Brown's death that his final book was published by Liturgical Press. That book, Christ in the Gospels of the Ordinary Sundays, completed his six-volume series on preaching the Scriptures, a series that had begun in the mid 1970s with the publication of his popular An Adult Christ at Christmas. Those six volumes are collected here in one convenient commemorative edition to mark the tenth anniversary of Brown's death. Brown's work is left largely untouched and readers will find that his wisdom is lasting. Yet Brown, being a scholar's scholar, would recognize the need for some enhancement in a work being republished some thirty years after the first volume appeared. Appropriately then, this edition contains introductory essays by Brown's colleagues and friends, John R. Donahue, SJ and Ronald D. Witherup, SS, as well as useful indexes and a bibliography of resources for preaching the word of God in the context of the lectionary. As Witherup notes in his preface, Brown had the rare capacity to simplify complex biblical studies in a manner that did not dumb down the material but allowed it to be understood by a wide audience. He did this in a fashion that was both inspiring and educational. That very broad audience, those who grew up with Brown, so to speak, as well as a whole new generation of readers and preachers of the word, will find this book to be a source of inspiration and knowledge that they will turn to again and again.

Raymond E. Brown, S.S. 1928-1998 was the Auburn Distinguished Professor of Biblical Studies at Union Theological Seminary in New York City. He was author of some forty books on the Bible and past president of three of the most important biblical societies in the world. By appointment of two popes, Paul VI in 1972, John Paul II in 1996, Brown was a member of the Roman Pontifical Biblical Commission. Time magazine called him probably the premier Catholic Scripture scholar of the U.S.

Ancient-Future Time () Robert E. Webber, 2004-10-01 Millions of Christians worldwide follow the liturgical Christian calendar in their worship services and in their own personal devotions. The seasons of the Christian

Preaching as Paying Attention Edward Foley, 2021-07-10 Author Ed Foley priest preacher and teacher invites preachers to an awareness of the world and the people around them as a lens for preaching God s Incarnate Word and inviting people into the Paschal Mystery He maintains that paying attention is a key to theological reflection When pondering a work of art or a catastrophe the preacher asks Where is God in all of this and How does my preaching invite people to respond to that presence Fr Foley presents excerpts of his own homilies and references to poets scientists and other resources some a bit surprising as models and suggestions that might draw a preacher's attention as a sign of God present and active in our midst. In short, this book offers a mindset, not a method for preachers.
