CEO Ready Mark Thompson, Byron Loflin, 2025-11-25 Your track record of success isn't enough. Here's what it really takes to be CEO Ready. You're on the short list for the CEO job and you have a record of delivering amazing results. You've been told you have the inside track. You're the leader in the clubhouse. Don't believe it. Remember that no matter what you've heard or what your CV says, you are not alone in the race and the odds are against your getting the job. Leadership selection isn't the methodical objective process we imagine. Decisions aren't made by robotic executives ticking boxes for attributes such as strategic fit, core competencies or cultural alignment. Instead, the process is deeply personal, emotional and often unpredictable. Now Mark Thompson and Byron Loflin share with you what it really takes to become CEO ready. Thompson has coached thousands of executives and CEO candidates and Loflin is a boardroom expert and adviser. They've seen firsthand the emotions that sway CEO selections as well as the personal and boardroom dramas that unfold as a company prepares to pass the baton of leadership. In CEO Ready, Thompson and Loflin reveal what you need to do to maximize your chances of being the one who secures the top spot, including identifying the seven key stakeholders. CEO candidates need to understand and work with. Filled with practical advice and compelling and instructive stories from those who've gone through this arduous process, CEO Ready is essential reading for anyone who aspires to the ultimate leadership position. Ithaca

Public Schools, Our Point of View, 1919 The Multigenerational Church Crisis Bryan Chapell, 2025-05-06 Harness the strengths of every generation to create a church that endures, open the lines of communication, appreciate the experiences that shaped each generation in your church, unite in one mission to impact your community and the world. It may seem hard for younger Christians to believe that people over 50 were raised during an era when 90 percent of Americans identified as Christian. These older believers were once part of a majority group that understood the mission of the church was to take control of our culture to halt its evils. At the same time, Christians under 50 have lived their entire lives perceiving themselves as a minority that needs to make credible their faith to a secular pluralistic culture. These distinct experiences and perceptions have a profound impact on the priorities different generations have for church ministry. It's no wonder that younger and older believers don't always see eye to eye. But imagine what could be accomplished in the name of Christ if we could better understand each other and turn that understanding into shared purpose and aligned priorities. Backed by thorough research, this eminently practical and hopeful book from pastor and scholar Bryan Chapell shows you how to open the lines of communication, appreciate the experiences that shaped each generation in your church and unite in one mission to impact your community and the world. The Presbyterian, 1903 Who's who of Southern Africa, 2003 Vols for 1967-70 include as a section Who's who of Rhodesia, Mauritius, Central and East Africa. Presbyterian Survey, 1911 A
