Reading Sacred Scripture Stephen Westerholm, Martin Westerholm, 2016-02-08 A rich display of the Christian tradition's reading of Scripture. Though well known and oft repeated, the advice to read the Bible like any other book fails to acknowledge that different books call for different kinds of reading. The voice of Scripture summons readers to hear and respond to its words as divine address. Not everyone chooses to read the Bible on those terms, but in Reading Sacred Scripture, Stephen and Martin Westerholm, father and son, invite their readers to engage seriously with a dozen major Bible interpreters ranging from the second century to the twentieth who have been attentive to Scripture's voice. After expertly setting forth pertinent background context in two initial chapters, the Westerholms devote a separate chapter to each interpreter, exploring how these key Christian thinkers each understood Scripture and how it should be read. Though differing widely in their approaches to the text and its interpretation, these twelve select interpreters all insisted that the Bible is like no other book and should be read accordingly. Called Out of Darkness Sheri D. Mills, 2009-10-20 Is the darkness closing in? Tired of all the pain? Struggling with life? This is the book for you. The reality of loneliness, hopelessness, brokenness, drugs, divorce, single parenting, joblessness, and homelessness are common adversities many of us are facing today, and they play a major role in this fascinating story of hope and survival. Let the one who has faced all of them take you on the adventure of your life as you read her compelling story of expectations, transformations, and restorations. I have known Sheri Mills and been with her throughout much of what she has written, and I can assure you that she has written the truth of her testimony through the power of the Holy Spirit. As a retired minister, Sheri and I have worked together in ministry and witnessed God's deliverance and healing power. This book will change your life. You will read and feel the healing power of God and want to be set free. You will not want to lay the book down. Rev. Beatrice A. Kilborn M.Div. Sheri Mills is a writer and teacher. She teaches Bible Study groups at her local church and parenting classes at a local Pregnancy Crisis Center. She served as the managing editor of her local women's church newsletter, The Agape Line, for ten years. Sheri lives in Southern Idaho with her husband, Leon. Shakespeare and Hospitality Julia Reinhard Lupton, David Goldstein, 2016-04-20 This volume focuses on hospitality as a theoretically and historically crucial phenomenon in Shakespeare's work, with ramifications for contemporary thought and practice. Drawing a multifaceted picture of Shakespeare's scenes of hospitality with their numerous scenes of greeting, feeding, entertaining, and sheltering, the collection demonstrates how hospitality provides a compelling frame for the core ethical, political, theological, and ecological questions of Shakespeare's time and our own. By reading Shakespeare's plays in conjunction with contemporary theory as well as early modern texts and objects, including almanacs, recipe books, husbandry manuals and religious tracts this book reimagines Shakespeare's playworld as one charged with the risks of hosting rape and seduction war and betrayal enchantment and disenchantment and the limits of generosity how much can or should one give the guest with what attitude or comportment and under what circumstances This substantial volume maps the terrain of Shakespearean hospitality in its rich complexity demonstrating the importance of historical rhetorical and phenomenological approaches to this diverse subject

Sarah's Choice Eleanor Wilner, 1989 In this her third collection of poems Eleanor Wilner revises a number of our culture's central myths invoking figures as diverse as Briar Rose and Miriam the Prophet she casts upon their stories and choices an enlivening feminist perspective There is so much that is impressive in Wilner's mature poems In an era which has been labelled The End of History she examines history's less obvious lessons If the past is to teach us she seems to say then we must re-invent and re-shape it Poetry
