Lost Lion Of Empire:

Lost Lion of Empire Edward Paice, 2001 By the age of twenty two Grogan had been elected the youngest ever member of the Alpine Club and was a Matabele War veteran But his prospects were far from certain when he fell in love with a young heiress and was required by her stepfather to prove himself a somebody in order to win her hand Grogan's response was typically unequivocal he announced that he intended to be the first man to complete a south to north traverse of the African continent In 1900 after almost three years of adventure and unimaginable hardship he arrived triumphantly in Cairo thus completing one of the most astonishing feats in the history of the African exploration He became an instant celebrity and returned to London to marry his beloved Gertrude BOOK JACKET Lions in Our Lives Terry Julian, 2003-11 Lion images are everywhere In literature in religion in statues emblems and heraldry Symbols of them are found in all larger European cities particularly London Many are also in Vancouver British Columbia A lion image is visually stimulating and should become part of our life Madness and marginality Will Jackson, 2017-03-01 Based on over two hundred and fifty psychiatric case files this book offers a radical new departure from existing historical accounts of what is still commonly thought of as the most picturesque of Britain's colonies overseas By tracing the life histories of Kenya's white insane the book allows for a new account of settler society one that moves attention away from the great white hunters and heroic pioneer farmers to all those Europeans who did not manage to emulate the colonial ideal In doing so it raises important new questions around deviance transgression and social control Sitting at the intersection of a number of fields the book will appeal to students and teachers of imperial history colonial medicine African history and postcolonial theory and will prove a valuable addition to both undergraduate and postgraduate courses Singing the Law Peter Leman, 2020 Singing the Law examines the legal dimensions of East African oral cultures as adapted within works of literature It demonstrates how writers draw on oral jurisprudence both to critique the temporal foundations of British colonial law and imagine new forms of time law and justice in the global south The Emergence of International Society in the 1920s Daniel Gorman, 2012-08-20 Chronicling the emergence of an international society in the 1920s Daniel Gorman describes how the shock of the First World War gave rise to a broad array of overlapping initiatives in international cooperation Though national rivalries continued to plague world politics ordinary citizens and state officials found common causes in politics religion culture and sport with peers beyond their borders The League of Nations the turn to a less centralized British Empire the beginning of an international ecumenical movement international sporting events and audacious plans for the abolition of war all signaled internationalism's growth State actors played an important role in these developments and were aided by international voluntary organizations church groups and international networks of academics athletes women pacifists and humanitarian activists These international networks became the forerunners of international NGOs and global governance

Imperial Plots Sarah Carter, 2016-10-07 Sarah Carter's Imperial Plots Women Land and the Spadework of British Colonialism on the Canadian Prairies examines the goals aspirations and challenges met by women who sought land of their own Supporters of British women homesteaders argued they would contribute to the spade work of the Empire through their imperial plots replacing foreign settlers and relieving Britain of its surplus women Yet far into the twentieth century there was persistent opposition to the idea that women could or should farm British women were to be exemplars of an idealized white femininity not toiling in the fields In Canada heated debates about women farmers touched on issues of ethnicity race gender class and nation Despite legal and cultural obstacles and discrimination British women did acquire land as homesteaders farmers ranchers and speculators on the Canadian prairies They participated in the project of dispossessing Indigenous people Their complicity was however ambiguous and restricted because they were excluded from the power and privileges of their male counterparts Imperial Plots depicts the female farmers and ranchers of the prairies from the Indigenous women agriculturalists of the Plains to the array of women who resolved to work on the land in the first decades of the twentieth century

Air empire Gordon Pirie, 2017-03-01 Air empire is a fresh study of civil aviation as a tool of late British imperialism The first pioneering flights across the British empire in 1919 20 were flag waving adventures that recreated an era of plucky British maritime exploration and conquest Britain's development of international air routes and services was approved organised and celebrated largely in London there was some resistance in and beyond the subordinate colonies and dominions Negotiating the financing and geopolitics of regular commercial air service delayed its inception until the 1930s Technological managerial and logistical problems also meant that Britain was slow into the air and slow in the air Propaganda concealed underperformance and criticism The study uses archival sources biographies industry magazines and newspapers to chronicle the disputed progress toward air empire The rhetoric behind imperial air service offers a glimpse of late imperial hopes fears attitudes and style Empire air service had emotional appeal and symbolic value but disappointed in practice
