Path To Buddha A Tibetan Pilgrimage:

The Path to Buddha Steve McCurry, 2003-11-18 Tibet has suffered extreme political turmoil and upheaval over the last 50 odd years Occupied in 1950 Red Guards destroyed thousands of official buildings and holy places during the Cultural Revolution and religious freedom and traditional education are still severely under threat Due to the strength of Tibetan faith in Buddha in the Dalai Lama and against the odds many buildings have been reconstructed their devotion and belief remain extraordinarily strong Buddhism permeates every aspect of a Tibetan's life whether living in Tibet or in exile in Nepal India or the United States A magnificent and time stopping work The Path to Buddha is divided into five parts in which we see the monks in animated discussion meditation and prayer and we follow the devout believers on their arduous journeys to prayer The two main chapters are interspersed with sections of portraits of this proud and dignified people whose own innate sense of their own being can be seen in the simplest of things such as the way they dress and adorn themselves The SAGE Handbook of Criminological Research Methods David Gadd, Susanne Karstedt, Steven F Messner, 2011-10-19 Conducting research into crime and criminal justice carries unique challenges This Handbook focuses on the application of methods to address the core substantive questions that currently motivate contemporary criminological research It maps a canon of methods that are more elaborated than in most other fields of social science and the intellectual terrain of research problems with which criminologists are routinely confronted Drawing on exemplary studies chapters in each section illustrate the techniques qualitative and quantitative that are commonly applied in empirical studies as well as the logic of criminological enquiry Organized into five sections each prefaced by an editorial introduction the Handbook covers Crime and Criminals Contextualizing Crimes in Space and Time Networks Communities and Culture Perceptual Dimensions of Crime Criminal Justice Systems Organizations and Institutions Preventing Crime and Improving Justice Edited by leaders in the field of criminological research and with contributions from internationally renowned experts The SAGE Handbook of Criminological Research Methods is set to become the definitive resource for postgraduates researchers and academics in criminology criminal justice policing law and sociology David Gadd is Professor of Criminology at Manchester University School of Law where he is also Director of the Centre for Criminology and Criminal Justice Susanne Karstedt has a Chair in Criminology and Criminological Justice at the University of Leeds Steven F Messner is Distinguished Teaching Professor of Sociology University at Albany State University of New York Pilgrimage Simon Coleman, John Elsner, 1995 From the Great Panathenaea of ancient Greece to the hajj of today people of all religions and cultures have made sacred journeys to confirm their faith and their part in a larger identity This book is a fascinating guide through the vast and varied cultural territory such pilgrimages have covered across the ages The first book to look at the phenomenon and experience of pilgrimage through the multiple lenses of history religion sociology anthropology and art history this sumptuously illustrated volume explores the full richness and range of sacred travel as it maps the cultural imagination The authors consider pilgrimage as a physical journey through time and space but also as a metaphorical passage resonant with meaning on many levels It may entail a ritual transformation of the pilgrim s inner state or outer status it may be a quest for a transcendent goal it may involve the healing of a physical or spiritual ailment Through folktales narratives of the crusades and the firsthand accounts of those who have made these journeys through descriptions and pictures of the rituals holy objects and sacred architecture they have encountered as well as the relics and talismans they have carried home Pilgrimage evokes the physical and spiritual landscape these seekers have traveled In its structure the book broadly moves from those religions Judaism Christianity and Islam that cohere around a single canonical text to those with a multiplicity of sacred scriptures like Hinduism and Buddhism Juxtaposing the different practices and experiences of pilgrimage in these contexts this book reveals the common structures and singular features of sacred travel from ancient times to our own My Favorite Place on Earth Jerry Camarillo Dunn,2009 Award winning author and National Geographic Traveler writer Jerry Camarillo Dunn takes you on a remarkable journey with such amazing and diverse figures as Sandra Day O Connor and the Dalai Lama actors Robin Williams and Morgan Freeman astronauts Buzz Aldrin and Sally Ride explorer Jean Michel Cousteau real estate mogul Donald Trump entertainer Jerry Seinfeld food guru Alice Waters and author Tony Hillerman His simple question to these people What is your favorite travel discovery The answers are both surprising and engaging ranging from Bali Indonesia to a well used bench at San Francisco s Crissy Field from the Hopi Mesas in Arizona to the Old City of Jerusalem In page after page celebrated contributors describe the special appeal of each place be it the amazing beauty or the character of the people or simply the hushed joy of solitude American Photo ,2005-05 Pilgrimage Linda Kay Davidson,David M.
